ANGELS KEEP LEAD DESPITE DOUBLE LOSS

Enter Final Week of First Half Season 4 Games Ahead

By The Associated Press
Los Angeles went into the final week of the first half season in the Pacific Coast league today with a four game lead, in spite of having dropped two yesterday to Portland, 5 to 0 and 8 to 4.

Walter Mails shut the Angels out in the first, while the Ducks got to Hallion in the first four innings. Carl Mays kept Angel hits scattered in the second and the Ducks hammered Peters frequently.

Saca Split Pair
Sacramento gained a game on the leaders by splitting the first with the Missions, winning, 7 to 5, in the morning, and losing 3 to 2, in the afternoon. Backer's two homers featured the first game. Bryan hit Burns with pitched ball to force in the tying run and allowed Kelly a hit as the Missions won in the ninth of the second.

Hollywood made it 14 out of 15 by trimming Oakland twice, 5 to 4 and 7 to 6. Shellenback won his own game by knocking a homer with two on in the fourth, and holding the Oaks to nine scattered hits. The second was scheduled for seven innings, but went into eight and the Acorns won after Oakland took a one run lead in the extra period. Seven pitchers worked in the game.

Indians Take Series
Seattle took the series with San Francisco, winning twice yesterday, 4 to 3 and 3 to 2. Zahner profited by some good batting support in the first. "Dutch" Ruether blanked the Seals in the second.

Walter Johnson, Jr., Shows Class in Pitcher's Box

WASHINGTON, July 7, (AP)—It was only a few months ago that the sport dopsters were saying the baseball career of Walter Johnson, Jr. had ended before it was fairly begun.

Last winter, the youngster, 15 years old, was run down by an automobile. Both legs were broken, and it was feared for a time that she might have to be amputated.

Yesterday, almost entirely recovered, he pitched two hitless innings for the Bethesda Juniors, and proudest of all the spectators was Walter Johnson, Senior.

The youthful pitcher with the great name opened the game for Bethesda and Lotz, and retired after two innings because his father felt he should take no chances with his legs by going to bat and running bases.

Physician Orders Champion to Rest
BERLIN, July 7, (AP)—Max Schmeling, German heavyweight who won the world's championship from Jack Sharkey on a foul last month, today was ordered by physicians to rest two or three months before resuming training.

The report of the physicians, submitted to the German boxing commission, stated that Schmeling was suffering from varicocele of the right side as a result of the foul.

The report will be taken up by the commission tomorrow. According to the physician, Schmeling's injury is of such a nature that sporting authorities who read the report interpreted it to mean there would be no participation by the German fighter in a championship possibly until 1931, if then.

Young Stars Win British Doubles

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 7 (AP)—John Van Ryn and Wilmer Allison, young American tennis stars, won the British men's doubles championship today for the second successive year, beating their countrymen, John Doeg and George Lott, in straight sets in the final.

Lifting Head Main Cause of Dubbing

THE ACT OF LIFTING THE HEAD SPOILS MOST APPROACH SHOTS—

BOBBY JONES PLAYING AN APPROACH SHOT—

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Fitter N. Y. Giants)
It is in approach that the professional gains his great advantage over the amateur. There are a considerable number of amateurs who can drive from the tee as far as most pros or farther and almost as consistently. There are of course approaches, however, is in the second shot, but the machine-like accuracy with which the average pro will place his ball, time after time, not merely on the green but within holing distance.

There are of course approaches and approaches, from the orthodox, well-lifted shot to the stroke which can best be described as a glorified putt. The only precept in which I have the most implicit faith is that which enjoins us to keep the eye on the ball. There is no doubt that nine-tenths of the bad strokes we perpetrate, are directly due to looking up before the shot is finished and one is more liable to do this with a short approach than with any other stroke.

Hard, concentrated work at this particular shot until one has mastered it is no doubt the best prescription, and I am quite certain that, if we could make up our mind to practice approaching for an hour or so quite frequently, it would improve our game fifty per cent in a short time. However, it is much more amusing to play a match than to practice and so no doubt most of us will continue to muddle along till the end of the chapter.

Star Tackle of N. Y. University Drowns in Maine

HARRISON, Me., July 7, (AP)—Al Lassman, former star tackle on the New York University football team, was drowned in Long Lake yesterday. The body was recovered early this morning after several hours of grappling.

Lassman, who was 24 years old, was a guest at a boy's camp, where he had served as counselor two years ago. Yesterday afternoon he went out on the lake in a canoe alone.

A few hours later the canoe was brought to camp by persons who had found it unoccupied.

The body was brought to the surface at 2 a. m.

Washington's Deals With St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox Prove Beneficial

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer
A large part of the first half of the Major league baseball season has been spent in strenuous efforts on the parts of various managers to strengthen their clubs for the later part of the year and the success of their efforts is quite evident in the current standings of the clubs.

Washington's big deals with St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox turned out to be an important factor in making the American league campaign a duel between the Senators and the Philadelphia Athletics. The acquisition of Heinie Manush gave them some batting punch where it was needed while Al Crowder has turned out to be an effective pitcher in Washington.

Art Shires and Dave Harris, formerly of Chicago and Portland, Ore., also have helped improve the Senators' batting average.

The result is that the Senators and the Athletics today are tied for the league lead. It was Shires who brought about the tie, coming through with a pinch single with the bases full in the tenth inning to beat the New York Yankees, 3 to 2.

Washington now has won 15 out of 16 games, showing the Yanks 1-2 games into third place by sweeping the series. And by pitching all of yesterday's game Dumps Hadley made it 14 out of 16 pitchers who have finished the games they started.

The Athletics kept their place in the sun by winning their third close decision in a row from the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 2. George Karshaw scored his eleventh victory of the year, gaining a slight edge over Dan MacFarland.

Indians Shut Out Browns
Cleveland Indians, with Clint Brown on the mound, shut out the St. Louis Browns, 7 to 0. Waite Hoyt also pitched well and led Detroit to a 2 to 2 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

The Brooklyn Robins, who chose to add strength to their team by obtaining Ike Boone from the Pacific Coast league, found good reason to be pleased with their new acquisition. Boone made his debut yesterday and played the principal role as the Robins regained first place in the National league by beating the Boston Braves, 10 to 4. He hit a home run and a single and made a great catch of a fly, diving into the bleachers to grab the ball.

Cincinnati took both games of a double header from Chicago by scores of 5 to 4 and 8 to 7, breaking a losing streak of five games.

The third place struggle between the New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals remained unchanged as both teams won double headers. The Giants trounced Philadelphia, 10 to 8 and 6 to 2.

The Cards made it 12 victories in their last 16 games by winning a 2-1 decision over Pittsburgh in the first game although they made only two hits off Spencer and following it up with a 12 to 4 victory in a slugfest match. Douthitt's ninth inning home run won the first game atter Spencer's wild pitch had provided the other Cardinal run.

Young Evangelist Greeted by Huge Audience Sunday

An audience estimated at 300, and 22 converts "hitting the sawdust trail" for conversion, were scenes witnessed at the big wood-tavern, corner Seventh and Oak streets, last night.

It was the opening service of Rev. Watson Argue's campaign, which will continue nightly for several weeks. Rev. and Mrs. Argue arrived in the city Sunday morning, coming from Banff, Alberta.

Rev. Argue, who is now 36, has been an ordained evangelist since he was 16. His grandfather was a pioneer Methodist minister and his father and two sisters are also evangelists. The young evangelist has campaigned in most of the large American and Canadian cities as well as many European countries.

"Swimming Parson"
Rev. Argue has often been called "the swimming parson," because of having won a collection of thirty awards in swimming meets. He has passed the highest swimming and life-saving examinations of the Y. M. C. A., the American Red Cross and the Royal Life Saving society of England.

In last night's opening service, Rev. Guy DeVries, pastor of Klamath temple, expressed his appreciation of the campaign opening. Rev. Argue led the song service with a slide trombone, and Mrs. Argue accompanied at the grand piano. An orchestra of several pieces and a large chorus choir assisted the evangelists. Mr. Argue led in the opening prayer for the success of the revival effort.

Twenty-two Respond
"God's Great Invitations," was the speaker's subject. For fifty

Actor in Court For Beating up Popular Actress

LOS ANGELES, July 7, (AP)—With a badly swollen eye as evidence, Vivian Duncan, of the Duncan sisters' dancing team, haled Rex Leaso, film actor into a sunrise court at Malibu, beach resort near here today, on charges of battery.

The dancer said Leaso resorted to punching tactics with her face after she had refused his advances following a party at the home of Charles Farrell, another actor.

Released on Bond
Leaso was given his liberty on $500 bail and ordered to face a hearing next Thursday before Justice of the Peace John L. Webster of Malibu.

Everything went smoothly at the party, Miss Duncan related, and as the guests bid farewell, Leaso offered to escort her home. Miss Duncan has a cottage at the resort, where many of the Hollywood film, colony live during the summer.

Eye Badly Swollen
A half hour later, the dancer and night watchman appeared before Justice Webster. Miss Duncan's eye was assuming abnormal proportions. She told the court Leaso had made advances to her and when she refused, Leaso swung at her face, knocked her down and kicked her.

Leaso refused to affirm or deny the charge.
