HILLS BROS COFFEE

its rare flavor to the principle you follow in making mayonnaise

You add the oil a little at a time to prevent the mayonnaise from separating. Hills Bros. roast their coffee a few pounds at a time to prevent variation in flavor. That's why this patented, continuous process is called Controlled Roasting. No bulk-roasting process can produce such a rich, delicious flavor.

NEW DRY CHIEF SAYS LAW CAN BE ENFORCED

PORTLAND, July 11, (AP)—Carl Jackson, new dry chief for Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Washington and Alaska, who made his first visit to Portland today, said it was just as possible to enforce the prohibition amendment as any other law on the federal books.

"By going after the major cases," Jackson said, "source of supply, transportation, conspiracy, manufacture and liberal use of abatement proceedings, we are going to control the liquor traffic in these states as much as possible."

Jackson said the need was more officers, not more laws. Though he does not favor the use of "stool pigeons," or "contract men" as the government refers to them, Jackson said there are a few cases where it was impossible to gain information without using them.

Lightning Storm Responsible For 58 Forest Fires

MISSOULA, Mont., July 11, (AP)—Fifty-eight forest fires were counted in this district today. They were the result of a terrific lightning storm. In the Bitter Root valley, 41 fires were reported. More than 85 men, supplementing regular crews have been sent out. The east Selway forest reported six fires; Frenchtown, five. Three others were found on O'Brien Creek.

Insolvent Bank Not Responsible For Banker's Act

SALEM, Ore., July 11, (AP)—Pauline Downing, Stella Downing and Jane Chilson, Lane county women, are unable to recover from the Lane County State Savings bank, insolvent, of Florence, money that was invested for them by Henry L. Bergman, former president of the bank. The supreme court so held yesterday in an opinion written by Chief Justice Coshaw, affirming Judge Skipworth of the circuit court for Lane county.

Selection of Site May Be Deferred

PORTLAND, July 11, (AP)—Information was received today the selection of the site of the $2,600,000 home of the National Soldiers' Home authorized for the Pacific Northwest by congress may be delayed by reorganization of all veterans' activities into a single department.

Senator McNary was advised of this today. An enlarged veterans' bureau will be set up under the direction of President Hoover. It is possible the selection of the site will be delayed only a short time after the department is set up.

MONEY FACE

MOSCOW.—Russia's new bank notes will have the face of a girl on them. For months a society was made of the country to find a face typifying Russia. Finally some artists found Agnes Moajoukin, a poor girl and her face was unanimously selected. It is said that she has "a beauty with struggle in her eyes."
