At The Churches

The Immanuel Baptist Church, 11th and High streets. The Missionary Baptist Church affiliated with the Oregon and Northern Baptist conventions.

Evangelist Bernard Mason of Los Angeles will bring the message Sunday at the eleven o'clock hour. The church school meets at 9:45.

We hope to have a record breaking attendance Sunday morning. The Stewardship commission Virginia Larkoy chairman, will have charge of the program at the B. Y. Y. U. meeting Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Senior society has adopted the commission plan in its entirety for their future activities. This is the greatest plan ever devised for the young people. If you are not in your young people's work you are invited to join with these live and wide awake young people.

The intermediates and Juniors will meet at 6:30 p. m. Sunday evening at eight o'clock Rev. Mason will play on his musical glasses. He also will sing and hear these unique musical numbers. Then the Immanuel male quartet will also sing.

There will be lively singing by the congregation. Rev. Mason will bring the message of the evening. Every night during the week at 8 o'clock there will be meetings. In these meetings each evening Rev. Mason will furnish some special musical number and there will be duets, quartets and solos beside the congregational singing. This is the church with a big welcome. A. O. Broyles, pastor, H. J. Lorenz assistant pastor.

First Baptist Church, Eighth at Washington street, phone 469-W. Sunday school at 9:45 promptly. We offer you a high class school for the teaching of the Bible. Our strong organization stands ready to be of service to you.

The morning service begins at 11:00 o'clock. A well prepared music program. Join with us in worship if you have no church home elsewhere in Klamath Falls. Visitors especially are invited.

A B. Y. P. U. now awaits every individual who wishes that sort of training. We have four separate units under the general organization of which Mrs. Fred Southard is director. The senior Union especially offers an interesting program in the form of a "Voyage" for Sunday night. These services begin at 8:45 p. m. at the church house.

The evening service will be held under the tent on the corner of East Main and Reclamation. This service begins a revival meeting which is dedicated to the people of Mills addition who wish to have a revival in their own community. These services continue every evening except Saturday. The evening pastor of the First Baptist church will preach and the choir of that church will furnish the music. All churches and pastors of the town are invited and expected to assist. Though this meeting like the one just closing on the corner of Main and Reclamation, is under the supervision of the First Baptist church, it is intended to benefit all churches of town.

Klamath Temple, church of the four-fold gospel, corner Eighth and Oak street. The church with a big welcome and blessing for all who believe the Bible is the word of God, and truly Jesus is the very same today. Revival fires are again burning brightly at the big wooden tabernacle, at the corner of Seventh and Oak street. Evangelist Watson Argue, from Winnipeg, Canada, who is also an artist on the trombone, is bringing a soul stirring message every night at 8 o'clock, and large crowds are in attendance at every service.

Large numbers have already responded to the altar calls at every service, seeking spiritual help, and miracles of healings are wrought in answer to the prayer of faith. To the sick and needy who believe Jesus is still the great physician today. Tonight will be a great service of blessing to all. Sunday is expected to climax every service thus far. At 2:30 p. m. Rev. Argue will bring a message on the much disputed topic in the church of today, "The Baptism of the Holy Spirit," and speaking with other tongues. Don't miss this vital message. At 8 o'clock another great service, special music by the large chorus, and orchestra, followed by the evangelistic message, "The Meanest Man in Klamath. Who Is He?" You cannot afford to miss this great service.

At the temple Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock, a live growing Bible school, classes of interest for all ages. Mrs. John Linfesty aupt. A cordial invitation is extended to you to visit our school. Sunday. Morning worship at 11 o'clock, special message by the pastor, "Laying Up Treasures in Heaven." Don't miss this service of rich blessing to all. At 8:30 p. m. young people's service, followed by a street meeting. Dwight McLaughlin in charge. All evening services dismissed at the temple during the great Argue undenominational revival campaign at the big wooden tabernacle. Pastor Guy DeVries, 730 Oak street, phone 1873-J.

First Church of Christ Scientist, 10th and Washington, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Sunday service at 11 a. m. Subject "Sacrament." Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. Free reading and free lending library open afternoons, on week days from 2:30 to 4:30 except on Wednesday and holidays, also before and after the Wednesday evening meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend the services and use the reading room.

Community (Congregational) Church, Garden and Martin, East side. T. Davis Preston, minister, 2027 Wantland Avenue, phone 1447-H. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bailey, student assistants. 10 o'clock church school and young people's discussion group; 11 o'clock, service of worship with sermon by the minister. The building has been moved from Wantland Avenue to the new location on Garden and Martin.

This new location is two blocks south from the Mills school and one block east. The Community Church seeks to serve the Mills addition with a full program that takes into consideration not only the spiritual development but the social and educational as well. To meet this we have a graded church school and a vacation week day school. We help with the playground work with the children on the Mills school playground and the tennis court. We do not conceive our work to be the snatching of brands from the burning through protracted meetings but rather building up Christian character in our contacts—day in and day out—especially with the children and young people. On Monday morning at nine o'clock we start a two weeks vacation school for children, six to twelve years of age. There is a large enrollment already. The program consists of worship, Bible instruction, music, story telling, drama, and craft-work. The school will be under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Preston with competent helpers. Sessions last from nine to eleven thirty, Monday to Friday for two weeks.

First Methodist Episcopal Church, corner 10th and High streets. Melville T. Wire, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Morning service at 11 o'clock. The new pastor will preach at this service. Special music by the choir and Mr. and Mrs. Sievert. Epworth at the usual evening hour. There will be no evening church service.

Klamath Lutheran Church. Rev. T. J. Luvaas who was scheduled to hold services here Sunday evening has postponed his visit to the local parish until Sunday evening, July 20, when services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Eighth and Jefferson.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 8th and Jefferson streets. Joseph S. Ewing missionary in charge; 8:00 a. m. Communion service; 9:45 a. m. Church school; 11:00 a. m. morning prayer and sermon, subject "How We Lose Christian Fellowship."

First Christian Church, corner Pine Avenue and 8th street. Dr. Eaton will preside at the morning service. Sunday school at 9:45. R. H. Dunbar, aupt. Endeavor meetings at the usual hour. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these services.

Nazarene Church, corner Martin and Garden street. Rev. James Dole, pastor. Sunday evening closes the Great Tent Revival, conducted by Evangelist W. H. Nerry and Rev. I. H. Nerry, song leader. God has greatly blessed this soul winning service and many have been born into the Kingdom of God. Many have been sanctified into the fuller life of Christ Jesus. There is yet time for that friend, brother, sister or parent to be saved—bring them to the services and pray. Come believing, pray expecting.

Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m. Sunday; Sunday school at 9:45, classes for all. Everybody welcome. 2 blocks Mills School, Mills Addition.

Zion Lutheran Church, 1025 High street, G. W. Hoffman, pastor. Sunday school meets Sunday morning at 9:30; Divine worship at 10:30. The pastor will preach on the topic, "Be Ye Merciful." Immediately following the morning service the regular quarterly meeting of the congregation will be held. Mid-week Bible class meets Wednesday evening at 7:30. A cordial invitation to strangers and visitors to attend our services.

Mount Laki Church, Merrill road near Mac's store. Sunday, 10 a. m. Sunday school; 11 a. m. Holy Communion. Rev. S. H. Jewell of Merrill in charge. Preceding the Communion Service there will be baptisms and reception of new members. 7:30 p. m. Young People's Society, Miss Dorothy Durant, leader. Thursday, 7:30 p. m. Pioneer Boy's club, 12-15 years; Friendly Indian club, 8-11 years. All welcome.

First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Arthur L. Rice, former pastor of this church, who is spending part of his vacation in Klamath county will preach in this pulpit at the hour of Morning Worship, 11:00 a. m. Mr. Rice has many friends in Klamath Falls whose welcome he has been enjoying this week. At

That soft breeze so welcome in the summer can quickly grow into a destructive gale.

We know of no method by which a windstorm under way can be controlled. But we do know of very effective indemnity against wind damage which can be secured at low cost. Let us tell you about it.
