Another Meeting to Be Called Shortly

Those who attended the meeting yesterday afternoon at the chamber of commerce for the purpose of forming a horse racing association decided to secure further information and to hold a meeting in about two weeks to perfect a Klamath horse show and racing committee.

The meeting was called by Mrs. Leda Parker, manager of the Klamath county fair, and R. E. Bradbury of the fair board. It is the desire of some to present a fast horse racing program and a horse show during the Klamath county fair the third week in September.

The U. S. Navy can now muster more than 300 fighting planes.

Mystery of Ten And Five Solved

The mystery surrounding the ten and five, running in an advertisement in the Herald the past few days, has been solved. In reality the two figures combined make 15, and they represent some, thier valuable to customers of the Golden Rule store.

Thursday morning a big 15% cash discount sale opens at the Golden Rule store, and continues until Saturday evening. For every $1.00 or more spent in cash purchases at this store those three days the customer will receive a check in return amounting to 15% of the total purchase. This is a new and unique sales plan, and from indications about the store promises to be the biggest money-saving event Klamath Falls has seen this year.
