ANGELS AGAIN MAKE THREAT FOR TOP RUNG

Ed Baecht Blanks Sacs While Team Mates Hammer Pellet

By The Associated Press

The strength that carried Los Angeles to the top in the first half season of the Coast League was today firmly implanted as a second half threat by virtue of the Angels' 5 to 0 win over Sacramento last night.

Ed Baecht shut out the Sacs as his teammates slammed Vincini and Gould, while attendance for the week at the Angel Park rose to new heights with night ball.

Missions Down Ducks

The Missions went on at the top, having downed Portland last night, 5 to 1, with Dutch Lieber blanking the Beavers in all but the second inning.

Oakland dropped out of the first place tie when San Francisco trimmed them 12 to 6, knocking the Oaks' new star hurler, Henderson, out of the box in the fourth. Elmer Jacobs held the Acorns to two runs until the ninth when the Seals had a safe enough lead.

Hollywood was outbait by Seattle, but made a ninth inning rally good for a 7 to 4 victory, having trailed up to then. Turner, was credited with the win although he blew up in the ninth.

Today is "Rabbit" Maranville's Day

BOSTON, July 26, (AP)—The 27-year-old Peter Pan of baseball, Rabbit Maranville, grizzled veteran of 15 campaigns of shortstop play, today had his "day."

An automobile, a chest of silver, a purse and other gifts awaited his appearance at the Braves-Cardinals doubleheader. Even the knot-hole gang and the peanut vendors had gifts for him.

Fans from far and wide in New England joined in planning the day. The biggest advance sale of Braves Field ever had proved the popularity of "The Springfield Kid," who ranks with Babe Ruth in popularity in the annals of Boston big league baseball.

All Hack Wanted Was Close Shave

By AL DEMAREE

(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

There is a story going around among the ball players concerning "Hack" Wilson, the fiery-tempered, pudgy outfielder of the Cubs, and the recent world series.

"Hack," it seems, strolled into a barber shop in Philadelphia, trying to forget the two flyballs he lost in the sun that day. A good shave and some hot towels would help him forget his troubles.

But the barber was a voluble bird, and not recognizing his customer, opened up a tirade on Hack Wilson.

"This Hack Wilson is a big bum," he said. "I lost five bucks on that game when the big stiff lost those fly balls in the sun!" and he continued to heap abuse on Hack during the entire shave.

"Hack" figured discretion the better part of valor while the barber swung menacingly over his head, but after he had paid his check, he said:

"I'm Hack Wilson," and with a short right knocked the astonished barber flat.

I've often wondered just what was the state of mind of the barber when he picked himself up several minutes later.

Carnera Sailing For Home Aug. 1

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 26, (AP)—Frank Carnera, of the Primo Carnera retinue, announced here the Italian heavyweight and his French manager, Leon See, would sail for Europe Aug. 1 on the Ile De France. Carnera said he had booked passage for the pair.

Immigration authorities recently refused to grant Carnera and See an extension of their six months stay granted when they entered the country last winter. Carnera has one more fight in this country with George Cook, Australian, at Cleveland, July 31. He will leave after the fight for New York and the return trip to Europe.

Mackmen Widen Space at Top As Struggle Loses Interest

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.

At the rate the Philadelphia Athletics are pulling away from the rest of the American League pack and the spaces between the lower positions in the standing are widening, it won't be long before the only interesting struggle left is the fight between Boston and St. Louis to keep out of last place.

Yesterday the Mackmen surprised the Cleveland infield with a pair of triple steals and worked them to add a couple of runs to their total. In addition to this strategy, the A's made 12 hits, three of them home runs and received ten bases on balls to win by a 14 to 1 score. It was their eleventh victory in 14 games of the current western tour.

Senators Fall

Washington dropped further back as the Chicago White Sox came along fast in the closing innings and pulled out a 6 to 5 victory in the ninth. The Senators have suffered almost as many reverses as the Athletics have scored triumphs, losing 11 games and winning 7 against western opposition.

The third place New York Yankees kept pace with the league leaders nine games behind them, by taking advantage of Detroit's seven errors to win a 14 to 7 decision. Lou Gehrig got his 29th home run.

Down where the league's real struggle is going on the St. Louis Browns came out on top by a 6 to 3 score and kept the Boston Red Sox in the cellar, Boston, striving to move into seventh place, could not cope with George Blaholder's six hit pitching and Goose Goslin's hitting. Goslin drove in four runs with a homer, double and a single.

Brooklyn and Chicago, who continue to keep the National League race interesting, each won another game without trouble yesterday and are separated by a half game, Brooklyn leading.

Robins Down Reds

The Robins pounded Lucas hard in three innings and accumulated enough runs to down Cincinnati 7 to 2 while Moss and Helmach, the latter making his first appearance for Brooklyn, held the Red batters in check.

Chicago pounded Bengie and Willoughby for 16 hits and again defeated the Phillies, 9 to 5 this time.

Clarence Mitchell's southpaw hurling held Pittsburgh to seven hits while New York gained a 3 to 1 victory. "The Willie" Sherdel stopped his former mates, with nine hits and Boston defeated the Cards, 5 to 4.

Seventeen Horses Entered Today in Arlington Races

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP)—A purse of around $45,000 was up for grabs among 17 crack stake horses in the second running of the Arlington handicap today.

The overnight field for the second largest purse of Arlington's meet, contained 17 entrants, big enough to promise a great horse race, even though champions were lacking.

Sun Beau, 5-year-old star from the stable of Willis Sharpe Kilmer, was the favorite, quoted at 5 to 2 with another eastern horse Joseph E. Widener's Curate, the second choice at 5 to 1. Both have performed well recently and were expected to battle it out between them for the big share of the purse. Lady Broadcast, racing under the silks of Rogers Caldwell, Memphis, Tenn., also had plenty of followers and was rated as a 6 to 1 shot.

The longest price was 50 to 1 on a Kentucky son of Stefan the Great, Jean Valjean.

Mays Suspended Following Fight

PORTLAND, Ore., July 26, (AP)—Carl Mays, righthanded pitcher of the Portland Beavers, has been indefinitely suspended without salary. Thomas L. Turner, president, announced today. This action follows a clubhouse fist fight between the ex-Major Leaguer and John Walters, another Beaver pitcher, two days ago.

Mays, it was said, suffered a broken nose and rib fractures. He has been confined to his home since the encounter. Walters has a swollen jaw, split lip and assorted bruises.

Turner said the suspension will not be lifted until Mays reports in condition to pitch.

The "Submarine Ball" expert is said to be one of the highest paid players on the coast. He signed with Portland last winter having been made a free agent by the New York Giants.

Klamath Nimrods To Gather at C. C. Rooms Monday

On Monday night the Klamath Sportsmen's association will meet in the chamber of commerce rooms in regular session, postponed from last Monday night on account of other attractions in the city which the membership would want to attend.

The meeting Monday night will be an important one, especially to the Nimrods, as a new break has appeared in the transportation of game from one state to another which puts a serious aspect on the matter from the view of the Oregon sportsmen. Some action must be taken in this matter, and the meeting on Monday will consider what are the best steps to take to protect the sportsmen's interests.
