Park Service to Encircle Rim of Lake With Road

Construction of a new Crater lake rim road—a highway which will completely encircle the lip of the gigantic volcanic cup—was announced last night by Horace M. Albright, director of the national park service who stopped in Portland on a tour of western parks and made the plans known through an article in this morning's Oregonian. Construction of the new highway is to be started next spring and bids will be advertised for this fall, he said. Cost of the enterprise was estimated at $1,000,000 and engineers of the service have already prepared tentative plans for the project. "We have about $250,000 on hand to start the work," he said, "and the remainder of the fund will be supplied from time to time from our annual allotment. "Our present allotment, specified by congress, is exactly $5,000,000 a year, and we intend to spend at least a fifth of that sum in improving the Crater lake highway." From the standpoint of the national park service, he declared, Crater lake park is one of the most important in the system.

WHEN THERE ARE GRAY SKIES . . .

WHITE KING makes bluing unnecessary. Hang white clothes up to dry indoors, if necessary—they'll dry snow-white. For White King Granulated Soap is so pure, so completely cleansing, so free from "filler," that it needs no bleaching or bluing help. Colored goods, too, are kept brighter when White King is used. It safeguards the colors and freshens the beauty of cotton prints and ginghams. And White King is economical. A teaspoonful for a basin of water. A cupful for the washing machine. That's all, even in hard water. Try it. Sold by your grocer.

M-G-M Star To Sing Over KOIN Station Tonight

Robert Montgomery will sing many of the popular tunes of the hour tonight on the Demi Tasse Revue, a Columbia Network program, released locally over station KOIN from 8:30 to 9:00. George Olsen and His Music will accompany Bob in his vocal numbers and also play many popular dance tunes. Bob Montgomery will never be forgotten for his great acting in "The Divorcee." "The Big House" and is destined to win new laurels in the forthcoming Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "Love in the Rough." He has come into movie-land's limelight faster than any other juvenile actor in the past year, however considering his past experience on the legitimate stage it is only what Hollywood expected of him. Dance tunes and the musical accompaniment for Bob Montgomery are played by George Olsen, the stocky Portland boy who decided that playing pianos was more profitable than moving them, organized a small orchestra in Portland—Eddie Cantor heard it, wired Ziegfeld—New Yorkers raved about him and the nation stamped their approval.

War Veteran Slays Wife, Son With Ax

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 6, (AP)—Charles S. Hall today killed his wife and five year old son with an ax and then wandered back to the Veterans hospital at Fort Snelling, where he had been a mental patient.

Clad in pajamas, he urged some one to go to his home, adding "there may be something the matter with my wife."

Coroner Seashore returned a verdict of murder and said indications were that the intense heat of last week may have affected Hall's mentality.

James Kirkwood Awarded Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6, (AP)—James Kirkwood, actor and film director, and Lila Lee, actress of the stage and motion pictures, are separated in divorce today. The couple was married July 26, 1923, and separated July 15, 1928.

CITY CREAMERY APPOINTS LOVE ASST. MANAGER

Announcement was made yesterday by Mr. R. E. Patterson, manager of the City Creamery, of the appointment of Mr. H. V. Love as assistant manager. "Negotiations have been under way for sometime but all the details are now completed whereby Mr. Love will act in this capacity. Up until just recently Mr. Love has been factory manager and will continue to supervise the production of the plant. In his new position he will have charge of all sales, production and field extension work," Mr. Patterson said.

"Our business has shown a very substantial growth this season and we are compelled to make a number of improvements to care for the increasing demand for our product," stated Mr. Patterson. "A new ice machine unit will be added of five ton capacity. This unit will be used for making ice and cooling storage rooms. Additional space amounting to approximately 40 per cent of our present floor space will be added this fall. Two new 300-gallon pasteurizers will also be installed as well as a new churn for next season operation. It is our intention to have one of the most modern and up to date plants in the Pacific Northwest.

"This year we have used sweet cream for making our ice cream, and over eight thousands of gallons have been used. The eight cent premium we have paid for this class of cream has increased our general price or average price considerably. The general outlook for butterfat is very promising at this time, the market being on the upward trend."

Made friends quickly but couldn't keep them . . . all because of 'B.O.'

THE ROOM might be warm. But surely the hostess' manner had grown decidedly cool. Why did something like this always happen? Why couldn't her friendships last? Now she knows the answer to this question that had puzzled and distressed her for years. A new acquaintance—a woman doctor—talked with her frankly about "B. O.", the polite name for a condition people dislike even to mention—body odor. Pointed out how easily it could be overcome. . . She took the hint. Now she has many friends—is welcome in their homes. No more "B. O."—no more loneliness! Hot weather warning Heat . . . humidity . . . sticky perspiration—these are danger signals for "B. O." It is so easy to offend and not know it these oppressive mid-summer days. We quickly become used to an ever-present odor and don't notice it in ourselves. But others do instantly! Why not play safe—make Lifebuoy your toilet soap? Like millions of other particular men and women you'll revel in its generous, creamy, antiseptic lather—so abundant even in hard water. Cools, refreshes, cleanses, purifies pores—removes all odor. Lifebuoy's pleasant, extra-clean scent—that vanishes as you rinse—tells you you're safe from offending. Clearer, fresher complexions Is your skin inclined to be dull—sallow? Try Lifebuoy "facials." Work the bland creamy lather well into the skin. It deep-cleanses pores—gently frees them of clogged impurities—makes complexions glow with fresh, healthy radiance. Adopt Lifebuoy today. LEYER BROTHERS CO., Cambridge, Mass.
