SHORT, WIDE EARS DENOTE PRACTICALITY UNHAMPERED BY DREAMY IDEALS

Visited in Lakeview—
Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McLean of Klamath Falls spent the first part of the week in Lakeview visiting at the home of Mrs. McLean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Umbach who left this week for Reno, Lake Tahoe and Los Angeles. From there Mr. and Mrs. Umbach plan to journey to Chicago where they will visit for several weeks.

Several Acres Sold—
Announcement of the sale of several acre tracts, owned by the Klamath Development company, was made this morning. The tracts are located two miles north of Shippington on the Dallas-California highway where a number of new homes are being started and others are already completed. A new small settlement is rapidly springing up in that vicinity, according to officials of the K. D. company, who stated that 40 families are moving into that locality.

Minister Visits in Bend—
Rev. Earl Cotton, Methodist missionary at the Klamath Indian reservation, was in Bend this morning on his way to Fayette, Idaho, where Mrs. Cotton has been visiting her parents for some time. Rev. Cotton's sister, Mrs. Helen Love of the Salem library staff is with her brother on the trip. She brought his son, John Cotton, with her from Salem where he has been visiting with his grandmother for several weeks.—Bend Bulletin.

Divorce Complaint Filed—
Bertie M. Shoun has filed a divorce complaint in the circuit court against Claud C. Shoun, whom she married in Mountain Home, Idaho, on March 4, 1927. The complaint charges cruel and inhuman treatment. W. C. Van Emou represents the plaintiff.

Meeting Friday Evening—
Friday evening, August 8, is the regular meeting of the Friendship camp, 9898, Royal Neighbors of America. A good attendance is wished as final arrangements will be made for the picnic to be held Sunday. All neighbors and visiting neighbors are welcome to attend the meeting.

Visited Klamath Falls—
Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schlagel were visitors in Klamath Falls Wednesday with Miss Bonnie Ayres, who has been spending a month here. Miss Ayres left for her home in Oakland today and Mr. and Mrs. Schlagel returned to their home in Lakeview.

Stopped in Ashland—
Mrs. Charles Swingle and daughter, Eleanor, of Phoenix, Oregon, stopped in Ashland Wednesday morning to visit friends on their way to Klamath Falls. They plan to spend several days here.
