WANTED HIS FOOD
PITTSBURG.—When George Washington, 48-year-old negro, works for something he wants it, even if he is in jail. George was scrubbing floors in jail here recently when he was called before Judge McKim and released. It so happened that it came about just before dinner time. George didn't want to be released. He had worked for his dinner, and he wanted to put him back into jail until he had it. But they wouldn't put him back in jail no matter how hard he pleaded.
