SILVERTON IS CROWDED OUT BY CALIFORNIA

Triple With Bases Full Proves Undoing Of Oregon Boys

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 22, (AP)—Boys' baseball teams from the far west, middle west and south clash today in the semi-final round of the American Legion junior baseball regional championship.

New Orleans plays Salina, Kans., in one game. These teams drew byes for the first round. Enderlin, N. D., and Long Beach, Calif., meet in the other game.

Enderlin advanced yesterday by defeating Denver 5 to 3 and Long Beach put Silvertton, Ore., out of the running after a hard fought eleven inning contest, 6 to 5.

Title Game Tomorrow

Winners of today's games will meet tomorrow for the title. The winner of tomorrow's game goes to Memphis, Tenn., to play in the junior world series for the National championship.

A hard-driven triple into deep right field with the bases loaded proved the undoing of the Silvertton, Ore., nine and the Long Beach, Calif., aggregation advanced to the semi-finals of the all western American Legion junior baseball tournament by virtue of the three runs scored by that triple winning an 11-inning struggle for the Oregonians, 16 to 2.

Howard Ehmke, Long Beach third sacker, who had not hit safely up to that time, turned the trick that eliminated the hard-fighting boys from the northwest.

Catch Spoils Game

Silvertton lost a chance to win the game in the regulation nine innings when Solares, Long Beach left fielder, made a sensational overhanded catch of Schwab's long drive, retiring the side with the bases loaded.

Schwab pitched masterly baseball for the losers, striking out ten men and allowing only nine hits over the 11 innings, keeping them well scattered throughout until the 11th. Hibbard, Silvertton shortstop, belted out three singles and a double in five times up to lead all batters in the tourney to date. Kitchin also hit a two-bagger, his only safety.

Lomski Draws With Maxie in 8-Round Bout

ABERDEEN, Wash., Aug. 22, (AP)—Leo Lomski, Aberdeen light heavyweight, battled his way to a draw with Maxie Rosenbloom of New York, champion of the division, in a non-title eight-round bout here last night.

The bout featured a smoker held in connection with the State American Legion convention.

It was a fast bout, with both boxers moving and hitting at lightweight speed, but depending entirely on their left hands. Lomski's famous right that formerly carried so much dynamite, was missing except in one or two instances. In the third round, which was his best, Lomski tore the plaster off Rosenbloom's injured eye and a poke started the blood. He then shook the champion up with a solid right under the heart.

Rosenbloom wound up the fight with a furious eighth round onslaught, in which he threw everything he had in Lomski's direction.

It was estimated the fight drew about a $7,000 house.

Big League BASEBALL "Cross Fire" Ball

CROSS-FIRE METHOD OF STEPPING USUAL METHOD OF STEPPING

HOWARD EHMKE'S SIDE-ARM "CROSS FIRE"

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

The "cross fire" ball is really a side arm delivery. The pitcher instead of stepping almost straight towards the batter when he delivers the ball, steps about two feet towards the right with his left foot, and the ball, instead of coming in a straight line to the batter, comes at an entirely different angle.

One had only to see Howard Ehmke's exhibition in the first world series game last fall, between the Athletics and Cubs, to see how effective this delivery is, if under control. Ehmke stood the Cubs on their heads and struck out thirteen men.

Art Fletcher, the old Giant shortstop, used to remark that a "cross fire" pitcher seemed to be pitching from the back.

The only drawback to this baffling delivery is that it is harder to control the ball when stepping out at right angles than when stepping directly towards the plate.

A pitcher who can master this type of delivery has very little competition and that makes him all the more effective. The batters are used to the orthodox type of pitch and a ball coming at them at this angle has a tendency to intimidate them. Especially if the "cross fire" pitcher judiciously mixes up his curves and fast balls.

State Schools Preparing For Annual Classic

PORTLAND, Aug. 22, (AP)—Preliminary plans for one of Portland's outstanding football games of the 1930 season—the Oregon State-Washington State classic on November 1—were made yesterday at a meeting of representatives from both colleges.

E. N. Strong, chairman of the ticket committee, said 60,000 tickets will be printed to be sold at $2.50 each. Proceeds will be divided three ways after field expenses are paid. One-third will go to each of the two colleges for expenses and the remaining third will go to Al Kader temple, which will turn over the entire amount to the Shrine hospital for crippled children.

Hollingsberry Absent

Among those attending the meeting was Paul Schisler, Oregon State coach; Carl Lodeal, graduate manager O. S. C.; Earl Foster, graduate manager of Washington State; Howard Greer, publicity director Washington State; O. E. Hollingsberry, Washington State coach, was in San Francisco.

Colonel George Drever, former potentate of Nile temple, Seattle, promised that Nile's Arab patrol, band and chanters would be here for the game. The Al Kader patrol, band, drum corps and chanters also will participate in the program.

Giants Serve Notice They Intend to Win Pennant By Trouncing Champion Cubs

By HUGH S. FULLERTON Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The New York Giants have served notice they intend to win the pennant. Yesterday they opened a series with the Chicago Cubs by trouncing the 1929 champions and 1930 leaders by a 13 to 6 score to put themselves only two games behind first place.

The Giants started hitting in the first inning and at the same time the Cubs began to make errors and New York got off to a lead of six runs.

Wally Roettger clouted a home run with two on to make it six runs. Blake settled down after this bad start, and held his own against Walker until the eighth.

The victory brought New York's record up to 23 victories in the 30 games of the last month, while in the same time the Cubs have won 19 games and lost 11. The Giants must win all of the remaining three contests of the series to lead Chicago at the head of the league.

Cards Rag Phis

The third place Brooklyn Robins gained on Chicago and lost ground to New York as rain kept them idle in Cincinnati. The Boston-Pittsburgh game also was postponed, while the St. Louis Cardinals slapped a 16 to 6 defeat on the Phillies.

The Philadelphia Athletics moved a step nearer the certainty of victory in the American league pennant race by coming from behind to defeat the Detroit Tigers, 8 to 7. Held to one hit in six innings by George Uhle, the A's broke loose in the last three frames to score all their runs.

Keep Pace With Leaders

Washington kept pace with the leaders by taking a quick 5 to 3 decision over the St. Louis Browns as Sad Sam Jones allowed only six hits in a duel with Collins, but the New York Yankees lost one more of their faint hopes as the Cleveland Indians pulled a 4 to 5 triumph out of a 12-inning struggle. A Yankee error with two out in the ninth paved the way for the defeat, and a home run by Dick Porter settled the over-time dispute.

The humble Boston Red Sox staged a three-run uprising in the eighth inning of a mound duel between Al Thomas and Hod Lisenbee, to defeat Chicago 4 to 2, and keep the White Sox from breaking their sixth place tie with St. Louis. Five Boston errors kept Lisenbee trailing for the first seven frames, although he gave Chicago only four hits.

The NUT CRACKER

Only by heroism can the American League lead be taken away from the Athletics now, says a New York sports writer. Maybe one of the other teams ought to coax Bill Tilden to play.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE REMAINS ANYBODY'S RACE. MAYBE THE GIANTS COULD WIN IF THEY HAD BOBBY JONES.

The Robins held the lead most of the season. Just think what the Dodgers might do with say Gallant Fox!

It seems to be a pretty good year for foxes this year. Besides the horse there is Jimmy, the A's first baseman, who only has 22 home runs, but who smacked most of 'em in the ninth inning with the bases loaded and the Macks three runs behind.

If you're lonesome for football, be patient and watch the scores of baseball games in which the New York Yankees take part.

The next logical lightweight battle seems to lie between Berg and Singer. But they all seem to be lightweight battles these days, says O'Gearty.

MARKSMEN IN FINALS TODAY

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 22, (AP)—A regiment of the nation's crack marksmen trained their sights today on the grand American handicap championship, most coveted prize of the trap shoot world.

More than 1,000 gunners from over the country fired for the championship won last year by Mose Newman of Sweetwater, Texas, in the final event of the annual grand American tournament.

Newman Defends Title

Newman was back to defend his title in an attempt to end the tradition that no champion has ever repeated in the 31 years the meet has been held. Last year he was victorious in the shoot-off of a tie after he and two other contestants broke 98 out of a possible 100 targets firing from the 30-yard line.

The keenness of the competition was indicated in the opening up event yesterday when Jean A. Pope of East Moline, Ill., broke every one of 100 targets from the 22-yard line, the first time a perfect run had ever been scored in the grand American preliminary.

Women Breaks 94

The women's victory in this event went to Mrs. Walter P. Andrews of Atlanta, Ga., who broke 94 targets from the 30 yard mark. Mrs. C. E. Pike of Kent, O., won second place after a shoot off with Mrs. George T. Peter of Phoenix, Ariz., both of whom had scores of 92.

LAST OF QUARTET DIES

LONDON, Aug. 2, (AP)—Marion Terry, last of the four famous Terry sisters, who for years were leading figures on the English stage, died today in her London home at the age of 73. The other sisters were Kate, Florence and Ellen.

Yacht Trials Postponed By Bad Weather

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 22, (AP)—Trials for the selection of the yacht to defend the America's Cup were temporarily halted today because of heavy wind and sea. The selection committee felt that enough was known about the four racing ships—Yankee, Whirlwind, Westamoc and Enterprise—in boisterous weather and planned to await tests conducted in lighter breezes.

Yankee and Enterprise today had two straight races to their credit in the official elimination races.

Yankee whipped Whirlwind yesterday in a fresh northeasterly that reached a maximum of 25 miles an hour and Enterprise romped home ahead of Westamoc.

Shamrock Arrives

Shamrock V, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, arrived in port from New London shortly after Yankee and Enterprise had broken all records for a yacht race over a thirty mile triangular course.

Yankee, sailed by Charles Francis Adams, secretary of the navy and the only non-New York candidate, came home yesterday in better time than did Columbia, the successful defender in 1901, and she did it after losing her jib, which parted under the freshening breeze.

The standing to date place the House of Vanderbilt, as represented by Westamoc, ahead of the House of Morgan, represented by Whirlwind, Yankee, leading Whirlwind, is the Hammond-Thorne candidate.

Enterprise skippered by Harold S. Vanderbilt, has whipped Westamoc, sailed by George Nichols, son-in-law of J. P. Morgan, in light air and in heavy air, in two days.

ARMOUR FINDS SELF SLIPPING

INDIANWOOD CLUB, Orion, Mich., Aug. 22, (AP)—Tommy Armour, the black scot, felt his crown slip from his head today as the battle for the western open championship splashed into its second 18 hole round over the wind swept Indianwood club course.

Caught off form with a shaky 78 in the opening skirmish for the title yesterday, the Detroit professional found himself several strokes behind a rugged field and nine big shots behind a dark horse leader, Harry Hampton, of Chicago, who paced it with a par shattering 69.

Eight shots ahead of Armour stood Clarence Gamber, Detroit pro, with a 70; Bob Shave of Marion, Ohio, and the veteran Al Watrous of Detroit, made 71's; while Bill Mehlhorn of New York and Denamore Shute of Columbus, Ohio, had 72's; Gene Sarason of New York and Emmet French of Southern Pines, N. C., had 73's; and Horton Smith and Johnny Farrell, two more of New York's contributions to the field of favorites, and the two Espinosa brothers from Chicago, Abe and Al, stood four shots in front of him with 74's, and a number of other dark horses with low scores.

Top-Notchers On Coast Get Tough Lacing

By Associated Press

All three of the top-notchers in the Pacific Coast league took a licking at the hands of the more down-trodden clubs in games throughout the circuit yesterday and last night.

Hollywood, still leading the league, lost to Oakland, 9 to 8, as the Oaks rose in wrath in the ninth inning and staged a three-run rally to nose out the Stars. Previously in the game, the Oaks threw away a four-run lead.

As a result of Oakland's last-minute decision to win the game that club is tied for fourth place with the San Francisco Missions, who lost last night to the Sacramento Senators by a 4 to 4 score. The Solons chalked 12 hits off the Reds.

Los Angeles, yet in second place, was drubbed unmercifully by the Portland Ducks, 11 to 5. Although the Ducks are next to the tail-enders, they apparently were in sympathy with the uprising of the trailers to cut down the percentage of the leading teams.

Seattle broke its losing streak to win from San Francisco, 8 to 5. Paul Zahniser limited the Seals to eight hits, losing a slow one that had the Seals swinging before the ball reached the plate. This is the first win of the series for the Indians, who for the past two weeks have been on the losing end.

STICKING TO ESSENTIALS

"Once upon a time"—every sawmill operator in the Klamath Basin carried a large stock of supplies to insure uninterrupted operation of his plant.

Now—in trying times—the alert operator finds that at least this one burden has been lifted. He can stick to the essentials of his business, because supplies are available at his door.

Here a studied effort is made to cater to the industries served.
