Knockout May Prove Fatal To Campbell

Boxer Still Unconscious After Match With Livermore Boy

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. (A.P.)—Suffering from a severe concussion of the brain, Frankie Campbell, heavyweight boxer of San Francisco, was in a serious condition at a hospital here today, following his bout at the San Francisco baseball park last night with Max Baer, Livermore, Calif. He had not regained consciousness early today.

The bout, scheduled for ten rounds, was stopped in the fifth after Campbell had taken a terrific battering to the head and was away unconscious on the ropes. Previously in the second round, he was handed a terrific blow in the back of the head, a blow which Campbell's backers were quick to claim was an unfair punch.

Baer knocked down Campbell on the floor, before a half push and a half knockdown assault by Campbell in the second and the latter had turned away. Baer jumped to his feet and landed viciously at the base of Campbell's brain. He saved himself by clinging to the ropes.

Campbell came back strong in the fourth, outpunched his heavier opponent and seemed to be having things his own way. As the fifth got under way, he was holding his own until Baer backed him into a corner, shot a terrific right to the jaw, a blow sufficient in itself to put out the light for Campbell.

Campbell slid into a sitting posture and wedged into the corner took a rain of blows to his unprotected jaw. Referee Toby Irwin's position behind Baer held the slaughter. Finally the referee stopped the fight and held Baer's glove aloft. There was no count and the victory was credited as a technical knockout.

Taken to Hospital
Doctors worked over Campbell in the open air ring hall, an hour, and failing to revive him, took him to a hospital where physicians and nurses worked over him for hours.

Baer, a two to one favorite, received more opposition than was expected. Campbell losing the first round by a nod and taking the fourth easily.

Campbell was knocked out at 19:30 p. m. three and one-half hours later he was still unconscious.

Physicians said he was suffering from a general cerebral hemorrhage and had a fifty-fifty chance to live.

Portland News Is Modest Hero

PORTLAND, Aug. 26. (A.P.)—A modest hero is Joe Hart, legless bowler, who sells papers on Portland's main downtown corner and feeds street pigeons as a sideline.

What Joe lacks in leg power he makes up in his arms. He is an expert swimmer. Today it was learned Joe sprang into the Tualatin river Sunday and saved an unidentified boy from drowning. "I wasn't interested," Joe answered to the question of why he said nothing about the incident. "I sell newspapers, not write them."

Governor Not to Issue Statement

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 26. (A.P.)—Governor Norblad said today that he probably would not issue a statement tomorrow on the question of calling a special session of the legislature. He said Saturday that he expected to issue the statement Tuesday, but now thinks he may want to look into legal angles of the question before he decides the matter. The governor thinks it may also be necessary to defer the inquiry into the financial affairs of the state engineer's office, which was set for Tuesday.

Clerk Issues Three Marriage Licenses

Three licenses to marry were issued yesterday at the office of the county clerk. Those securing licenses were: Ralph Marshall Sayers, 25, cook, and Mary Minnett Potter, 23, teacher's training, both of Klamath Falls; Earl E. Redhart, 25, school teacher of Hubbard, Oregon, and Ruth L. Powers, 29, of Bonanza; and to Guy Raymond Hartell, legal, and Eva Fay MacDonald, 19, both of Fort Klamath.

The NUT CRACKER

Experts say Sir Thomas Lipton has a good chance to win the America's cup this year. O'Goofy however, says there's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the Lipton.

SIR THOMAS HAS SPENT $13,000,000 TRYING TO WIN THE CUP. SOUNDS AS IF THAT MUG WERE LISTED ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

The British challenger ought to ask Bobby Jones how he manages to reach the cup so easily.

O'Goofy hasn't had much luck recently, either. He says he and Sir Thomas are in the same boat.

The sailing trophy should be given to some British heavyweight. They know so much about canvas.

O'Goofy took a sailing trip during his vacation. He says all the fish in the ocean are now suffering from gout.

Big League Baseball "Running Home"

ALWAYS BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR LINE DRIVES TO OUTFIELD WHEN ON THIRD WITH ONE OR NONE OUT.

THIRD BASEMAN CAN SOMETIMES PREVENT RUNNER SEEING WHEN BALL IS OUTRIGHT.

By AL DEMARCO (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)
A baserunner on third base with one or no one out must be constantly on the alert for line drives hit to the outfield. On a line drive it is his natural impulse to start for the plate as soon as the ball is hit.

But if it is caught by some outfielder he must stop, retrace his steps to third base, and start over again. He has lost much valuable time and is liable to be thrown out at the plate. If he had stayed on third until the ball was caught he could have scored easily. The runner should always remember not to start too quickly on a line drive.

If the drive is a safe hit he scores and if it carries to an outfielder he can also score after the catch.

Many third basemen try to obscure a runner's vision of the catch by jumping up and down in front of them so that they cannot time their start with the catch, and thereby lose a step or two, which is often the difference between scoring and being thrown out.

Dog's Escape Only Clue to Kidnaped Boy

COLEBROOK, Conn., Aug. 26. (A.P.)—A mute witness to the whereabouts of little Kenneth Swanson, two and a half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Swanson of Barre, Vt., missing since Sunday, turned up early today at the farm house where a distracted father and mother anxiously await word of their child.

It was Prince, yellow and white collie, constant companion of the vanished boy, who disappeared at the same time. The dog returned around midnight, tired and hungry but apparently not footsore. Police and civilian searchers believed the dog had been dropped from an automobile containing Kenneth some time last night.

Wooded sections and swamp lands in the vicinity have been combed since Sunday in a fruitless search. Wells and ponds in the neighborhood have been inspected without result and the theory that Kenneth was carried away in an automobile and hidden has gained headway.

Seals, Angels To Fight For Second Place

By The Associated Press
The San Francisco Seals and Los Angeles clubs of the Pacific coast league tangle in San Francisco today in the first game of this week's series to battle for second place in the league. To tie the Angels for second, the Seals must win the series four to three, as the southern team is leading by one game.

Only a major upset can put the Hollywood Stars out of top place this week. The Stars play the San Francisco Missions at Los Angeles. The Missions are now tied with Oakland for fifth place in the league, and with the Stars three games ahead of their nearest competitors, the Angels, they were almost certain of keeping in the top spot.

Sacs Meet Ducks
Sacramento, which worked up to fourth place last week, plays Portland. The Solons have traveled north and will engage the Ducks on their home ground. The Senators are playing baseball, and may by dint of good luck, climb another notch.

The Oaks have also gone north to play the Seattle Indians. The Indians are down at rock-bottom in the standings. The Oaks were favored to win the series.

WARNEKE AND MANAGER HERE FOR BIG FIGHT

Dutchman Starts Work For Meeting With Gene O'Grady

Frankie Warneke, "The Flying Dutchman," and his manager, Jack Capri, arrived in the city yesterday and last night Frankie started training for his 10-round bout with Gene O'Grady scheduled for Labor day evening at the Legion arena.

Gene O'Grady has arrived from Oakland, Calif., and has started training in Ashland, his former home town. Gene will arrive here Thursday to complete training for the bout next Monday night.

Expect Large Crowd
Indications point to the largest crowd ever to assemble in the Legion hall at a fight card, with about half the Rogue valley people coming over to cheer their champion, O'Grady, who has been a favorite on both sides of the mountains in southern Oregon since long before he ever fought a main event.

Frankie Warneke, too, has his supporters in this section. Frankie is also being trained here where he fought while making headquarters in Klamath Falls.

Trains Daily
Frankie proved that he has risen higher on the ladder of fame since leaving here when he returned and kayped Pete Smith, a fine boy from Los Angeles, in the second round of a bout—and it wasn't any setup either.

From now on Frankie will be training daily in the Legion arena about 5 or 5:30 p. m. and O'Grady will be here Thursday.

Sponsored by Labor
The bout is on a holiday when many who are fans and cannot attend any other day are able to see the bouts and indications point to a full house as Warneke and O'Grady were both popular when they were preliminary boys here.

The bout is sponsored by the Central Labor council and is being promoted by Joe Eberstadt, local matchmaker, under the City Boxing commission.

Copelands Lose To Weyerhaeuser

Sunday morning's nine inning game between the Weyerhaeuser Generals and the Copeland Lumber Yard nine on the Weyerhaeuser diamond was one of the many surprises finally ending with a score of 12 to 19 in favor of the Weyerhaeuser team.

At the end of the fourth inning and again in the last inning it looked like a Copeland victory but two runs in the last half by the Weyerhaeuser of the ninth finally settled the contest in their favor.

Both teams changed pitchers. Howry being called to pitch the last inning for the Weyerhaeuser team and Gillman changing places with Huff in the second for Copelands.

The game was interesting throughout. Wakeman as umpire came in for the usual run of criticism. A large and good natured crowd witnessed the game.

Lineups were: Weyerhaeusers—Moore, 2b; Gallaspy, rf; Griffith, 3b; Murphy, cf; Palmer, ss; Hudson, 1b; E. Deering, rf; Walsh, c; Radliff, p; Howry, p.

Copelands—Pepple, lf; McCumber, 2b; Beggs, c; Gillman, 1b; Bray, 3b; Huff, p; Davis, ss; Jones, rf; Hamline, cf.

No Matter Where Jones Got Title of Sad Sam, He Spreads Grief Among Opposing Batters

BY ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Back in 1915 a youth of 23 years, with a mediocre minor league record, and answering to the name of Samuel Pond Jones, made his bow to Major League baseball as a member of the Cleveland Indians.

The boy from Woodfield, Ohio, who cost the Indians $800, wandered in the American League, from Cleveland to Boston, New York, St. Louis and finally to Washington. Before he reached the Senators in 1927, his name had been shortened to "Sad Sam." Maybe it was because of the expression on his face, or his ability to spread grief among opposing batters or again it may have been the fact that he played in four world series without winning a game.

Still Spreading Grief
Sad Sam is still in Washington, spreading grief, especially among the Philadelphia Athletics as they arrive to tighten their grip on the league leadership. Although 35 years of age and lacking much of the speed and deceptiveness that has kept his all-time pitching record above the 300 mark, Sad Sam still retains his cunning and is using it to aid Walter Johnson and the Senators in the battle to oust the Athletics from the league leadership. He has defeated the A's in three out of four games.

Jones accounted for his sixth straight game, in five of which he started and finished, yesterday in downing the Athletics 3 to 2. Lefty Grove was opposing him but Sad Sam set the champions down with only six hits and broke Grove's string of eight consecutive triumphs.

In lending powerful aid to Jones, was 24-year-old Joe Cronin swinging a wicked bat. He accounted for all of the Senators runs sending Heinie Manush across in the fourth, with a driving Sam Rice with a single in the eighth, with what proved to be the winning tally.

The only other game played in either of the Major Leagues saw the Detroit Tigers take the measure of the St. Louis Browns 7 to 5 after Tom Bridges, rookie hurler from the three-eye league, had issued 12 bases on balls.

Bridges, who has a record of striking out 150 batters in 12 consecutive games last year, received credit for winning his first Major League start although Walter Hoyt was called to the rescue in the ninth with two men out. Previous to Hoyt's appearance Ferrell had cleaned the loaded bases with a triple. Bridges may have been wild but he was stingy with hits, giving the Browns only seven.

OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE

A DOLLAR THAT BUYS MORE THAN THE AVERAGE

THE dollar you invest in fire insurance returns far more than you realize. Of course it buys indemnity from financial loss if misfortune overtakes you, but it provides so much more that it ranks as one of the most effective dollars you spend.

From the viewpoint of indemnity alone, Stock Fire Insurance is one of the cheapest of present-day necessities. Its average cost has consistently declined for the last twenty years.

Research—Engineering—Other Services

However, Stock Fire Insurance as transacted by the more than 250 company members of the National Board of Fire Underwriters offers much more than indemnity.

For good measure it provides a research and engineering service to make life and property safer—with great laboratories to test the fire safety of materials and devices.

It teaches better building practices—furnishes a service for the detection and investigation of arson—another for the improvement of community fire defenses—conducts many general fire prevention activities—and sponsors other voluntary measures, all of which have contributed to the reduction of the fire waste and the lowering of the average cost of fire insurance.

STOCK FIRE INSURANCE

effectually safeguards the home, factory, store, public institution and other forms of property. It supplies an element of certainty to business.

The more than 150 billion dollars which Stock Fire Insurance companies have at risk in the protection of burnable property in this country is indispensable to the stabilization of our credit structure.
