WARNEKE HAS GREATER SPEED HEAVIER PUNCH

Lightweights Can't Get Inside of Dutchman's Heavy Attack

Frankie Warneke 25-year-old cousin of Heavyweight Champion of the World, Max Schmeling, worked out two rounds with Ted Evans and two with Benny Dyson yesterday afternoon, and neither of the fast boys was able to hit him.

In the past two years Frankie has advanced from a preliminary boxer to a main event in any city on the Pacific coast, and that is the reason he is matched here Monday night in the main event with the popular Gene O'Grady who has a similar history as far as fighting goes.

Learn's Punching Art

In the past three weeks, Jack Capri, Warneke's manager, has been teaching Warneke how to really punch. For an hour each day he has had Warneke working on the heavy bag learning how to put over punches that count, or make the referee count.

Frankie has also been on the road every day for two and a half miles and his legs are in wonderful shape for the battle. Frankie has ambition and has every reason for being ambitious. When Max Schmeling arrived in New York for the Sharkey bout Frankie wrote his cousin Max a letter asking for a shot on the card. Because the card was made up a month before that time there was no spot for Frankie.

To Get Real Fight

Max wrote to Frankie that he was sorry the card was filled and promised that the next time he fights in the United States he will see that Frankie gets a spot on the card.

That is what Frankie has to work for—maybe it will lead to a title.

Warneke is only 26. He weighs about 170 pounds now. He has a fighting spirit and mind. He is powerful and fast. That is what Gene O'Grady will have to overcome when he meets the "Flying Dutchman," as Warneke is known, here Monday night.

Ashland For O'Grady

O'Grady is due in Klamath Falls tomorrow from Ashland where he has been training.

Great interest has been aroused in the fight and Ashland fans promise to fill the Legion arena Monday night to boost for their man. Klamath has been picking Warneke to take the fight after his previous battle here on the last card when he stopped the favorite of southern California, Roy Smith, in two rounds.

Tony Canzoneri Too Classy For Goldie

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (AP)—The first eastern ring appearance of Goldie Hess, Los Angeles lightweight, has ended in disaster.

Hess, holder of the California 135-pound title, dropped the decision to Tony Canzoneri, of New York in a ten round bout at the Queensboro stadium last night. There were no knock-downs but Canzoneri, centering his attack on the far westerner's body, won nine of the 10 rounds.

Babe Has Ups and Downs in Golf

WHAT KIND OF A GOLF GAME DOES BABE RUTH PLAY?

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

Many fans have asked me just what kind of a golfer Babe Ruth really is. In answering this question I will say that Ruth is at times a very good golfer and at other times a very poor golfer. By that I mean that he is the world's most inconsistent golfer. I have seen him shoot a 94 in the morning and come back in the afternoon with a 77 over the same course and the next day reverse his high and low score. He hits a terrific tee shot when he hits them, but is inclined to slice with all his irons.

While Ruth can hit home runs with fifty thousand maniacs yelling in rapture at him he likes quiet when putting. One day he had to hole a difficult sidehill putt for a win. Just as he started to strike the ball a woodpecker in a tree nearby started to do his stuff.

"Hey, you long-necked so-and-so," yelled Babe, stopping his stroke. "Don't you ever get a headache?"

Officials To File Charge Against Baer

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27. (AP)—Max Baer, heavyweight pugilist, whose fists slugged his ring foe, Frankie Campbell, to death Monday night, will appear before Municipal Judge A. J. Fritz today to answer a charge of manslaughter.

Baer's managers, seconds and trainers also will appear to give their versions of the fight which ended in Campbell's death. Who was to sign the complaint charging manslaughter was uncertain this morning. Mrs. Elsie McGuire Cammell, widow of Campbell, has shown no desire to prosecute Baer.

"I have no resentment," she said, "there is only room in my heart for sorrow."

Chief of Police Quigg said if no one else would sign the complaint a member of the homicide squad would do so.

Cammell will be buried tomorrow.

TRACK CLASSIC TO BE RUN AT SOLDIER FIELD

British and Americans to Vie for Honors in Flood Lights

CHICAGO, Aug. 27. (AP)—Under the rutilant rays of huge arc lights, winged mercuries of the British Empire and the United States clash on historic Soldier Field tonight in another international classic of the cinder paths.

The battle of brawn and flying spikes, the fourth dual international track and field meet between the two English speaking nations, promised an estimated throng of more than 25,000 spectators thrills and new records. The meet falls on the second anniversary of the signing of the Kellogg Peace Pact.

British Formidable

England, aided by its best talent from 10 dominions, presented formidable front but was expected to lose in the 14 event struggle, although the result appeared to hinge on but two events—the 400 yard relay and the 480 yard shuttle races. In these two races, the Americans had the best record on season's form.

All six of the running races were all but conceded to the Britons while the American stars, most of them from the Pacific Coast, expected to score a grand slam of first places in the weight and field events.

Leading England's invading army were such stars as Lord David Burghley, Olympic 400 meter hurdle champion; Jack London, second in the 100 meters at Amsterdam; Wilfrid Legg of South Africa, finalist in the 100 meters at Amsterdam; Douglas Lowe, winner of the 800 meters at Amsterdam and at Paris in 1924; Eric Liddell of Scotland, winner of the 400 meters at the 1924 Olympic games; James Ball, Canadian 400 meter star; Leigh Miller of Canada, who defeated all opponents in the indoor sprints last winter; Cyril Ellis, England's great miler; Phil Edwards, former New York University star half miler who will represent British Guinea and Lay, New Zealand's long distance javelin thrower.

Prominent among the American stars were Orval Martin, National Intercollegiate one mile champion; Tom Warner, National collegiate pole vault champion; Eddie Tolan, George Simpson, dash stars; Ed Hamm, Olympic broad jump champion; Steve Anderson, Washington University hurdler; Herman Brix and Eric Krenz, shot putters of fame; Ray Conger, distance star and Leo Sentman, University of Illinois hurdle star.

A 100 yard dash will be held as a special attraction but the points will not count in the final tabulation.

William R. Castle, assistant secretary of state, will act as an emissary for President Hoover tonight, greeting the athletes in an address before the opening of the meet.

Fair weather was the forecast.

Babe Ruth says he likes to pitch as well as he likes to hit. But pitchers don't get $50,000 a year.

Referee Stops Hudkins-McVey Fight In Tenth

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27. (AP)—The case of the Ace Hudkins-Jack McVey fistie fiasco, which ended last night with only a few seconds remaining in the tenth when Referee Jack Kennedy called the affair "no contest" will be up for an airing at the meeting of the state athletic commission at San Francisco today.

The action came with only half a minute of the final round remaining. McVey, negro middleweight from New York had hit the canvas twice for counts of seven and eight, apparently from light blows. Those came in the second and ninth.

Fans Shout Fake

Kennedy's ruling came with the 7500 fans shouting "fake, fake!" They applauded his decision long and loud.

Hudkins showed only faint resemblance of the ripping, tearing style that once made him the sobriquet of "Nebraska Wildcat." McVey was apparently holding his punches, and failed to follow up advantage resulting from short jabs which seemed to jar Ace.

As a result of the decision both fighters are automatically suspended and their purses withheld.

Chicago Fans About Ready to Ask, "Who is This Ruth Fellow?"

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago's baseball fans are about ready to look haughtily in the direction of New York and ask, "who is this fellow Ruth?"

Hack Wilson, hefty home-run hitter of the Cubs, has a new National League record in the Ruthian specialty and has drawn up on even terms with the great Babe in this year's competition at belting four baggers.

Hack hit his forty-fourth home run of the season to put a finishing touch on the Cubs' 7 to 5 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday, and in doing it passed the record Chock Klein set a year ago. It took Klein the first season to beat Rogers Hornsby's old mark of 42, while Wilson has beaten the young Philadelphia with 31 games to go. And he is tied with Ruth in the season's totals while the Babe still is a week ahead of the record he set in 1927.

One More Week at Home

The Cubs have a week more at home before they start on their final road tour, and Wilson has hit most of his homers in Wrigley Field. The Chicago triumph yesterday, put the Cubs 5 1/2 games ahead of the New York Giants, who had a day of rest before the start of their series with Brooklyn.

The St. Louis Cardinals continued their advance in the only other National league game, defeating Cincinnati, 3 to 1, for their seventh successive victory. The victory left St. Louis only a half game behind the third place Brooklyn Robins with some prospects of improving their position as they continue against the Reds today while Brooklyn battles the Giants.

Only one game was on schedule for the American League yesterday and it finally brought the Philadelphia Athletics out of the difficulties which had beset them in the first two games of their series with Washington to a final 10 to 9 triumph which put them again in a fairly safe place, 7 1/2 games in the lead.

SEALS IN TIE FOR RUNG TWO

The San Francisco Seals were tied with Los Angeles today for second place in the Pacific Coast League. The Seals yesterday walloped the Angels, 5 to 4 in an eleven inning game.

Both the Seals and the Angels, who are struggling to overcome the lead of the Hollywood Stars, are three games behind the top-notchers, who last night lost a round to the San Francisco Missions, 8 to 3. Hollywood garnered 15 hits off Herman Pilleto, but they were good only for the three runs.

Three teams were tied for third place today. Sacramento to the Missions and Oakland were eight games behind the Stars.

The Oaks defeated the Seattle Indians 5 to 3, last night in Seattle. The Indians led until the eighth inning when four Oakland runners crossed the plate.

The Portland Ducks found Sacramento easy picking, winning 10 to 4.

Local Heavies Main Eventers At Chiloquin

Dick Reed, Klamath heavyweight, and Freddy Walters, Sacramento boy, who fought the last semi-windup here will meet in a finish match tonight in Chiloquin when they will tangle for 10 rounds. They fought a six-round draw here.

Interest has been great here because fans were not satisfied with the decision, although there has been much debate as to who would have won had the bout been four rounds longer.

A large number of Klamath fight fans plan on going to Chiloquin tonight to see the matter finally settled. On his first showing here Walters knocked Jack Foley of Portland and earned a lot of support. Reed is well known and has many followers. Flash Davies and Jim Jacobs meet in the semi-windup tonight. Amos Shadley and Billy Edwards will meet in another six round event.
