O'GRADY HERE FOR WORK OUT IN LOCAL RING

Southern Oregon Champ Says He's Ready For Warneke

After having seen service in the "big time" and living up to all the nice things said of him—winning all five bouts he engaged in around San Francisco where he defeated such good boys as Jack Linkham, Tillie Taverno, Tom Corbett and Kid Reese—the Ashland farmer, under a large guarantee, accepted the Warneke match here Labor Day under the auspices of the Central Labor council. The Labor Union wanted the best card available so Matchmaker Joe Bickerstaff signed a natural in two boys who got their start in the boxing game in Oregon.

A great interest is being shown by the fans as to the merits of these two star light heavyweights Gene, always popular in southern Oregon, is particularly well liked in Klamath Falls where he has boxed at least ten times. His greatest battle in a local ring was the memorable K. O. White scrap, and it is still on the minds of the fans. It was about the greatest card ever staged here and none will forget how Gene, after being floored several times and having three ribs broken, came back in a sensational manner and beat the Chicago negro all around the ring for a decisive win. That fight made Gene O'Grady.

Under Ray Pelkey since being down south Gene has been under the watchful eye of the veteran Ray Pelkey and for the past eight months has been drilled so that today he is a different ring man. From a stand-away, counter puncher he has been changed into a brawler, take a chance battler, willing to stand toe to toe with his opponent. A terrific right hand hitter, he has learned what left hook is now. So with his big experience the fans are to be pleased when Gene steps in the ring Monday evening to face Frankie Warneke.

Gene hasn't gained any in weight since being away. He still tips the scales at 173 pounds. He will box ten rounds this evening at the Legion pavilion and the public is invited.

Warneke in Form
Frankie Warneke is in great condition himself, showing it last night before a large crowd when he put on a great four round exhibition with Willie Feldman. A strong, rugged youth, he showed himself capable of taking everything Feldman threw at him and more than held his own against this clever Jewish boxer. Willie opened the first round like a flyweight and had the Dutchman catching that fast left but Frankie solved Willie's style in the second and in this round had the spectators on their feet. Both boys stood toe to toe and slugged it out. Frankie a little stronger of the two. The third was a whale of a round, both boys giving their best. Willie threw a little and the fourth was a Downey brook, both coming out of their corners pitching punches and ending the bout to the satisfaction of the fans. When Willie gets in the shape he was when he first came here a Warneke-Feldman bout would be a natural.

Frankie stepped on the scales last night at 170 pounds, a difference of two pounds less than his opponent.

A large crowd of Medford-Ashland fans will be at the ringside to see their favorite O'Grady in action, while a bunch from Lakeview is coming to root for Warneke.

Manager's "Hit And Run" Signs

BY AL DEERBERGER
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)
Many managers prefer club "hit and run" signs to individual ones. There is less chance for players missing signs and they can be followed more easily.

In the above cartoon I have shown three comparatively simple "hit and run" play signals. For the first three innings of the game any player on the team wishing to "hit and run" with the baserunner on the next pitched ball, touches the peak of his cap while he is in the batter's box.

During the next three innings he signals his intention by rubbing the large end of his bat. During the last three innings, rubbing the small end of the bat shows the baserunner that he is supposed to start on the next ball pitched.

Club "hit and run" signs give the manager a better chance to find out which players are successful with this type of play and which are not.

There are only a few good "hit and run" men. As John McGraw says, "Show me a chronic 'hit and run' ball club and I'll show you a chronic second division club."

However, it is a great play when it is successful and breaks up the opponent's infield.

Morgan Easy Victor Over Eddie Mack

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 29. (AP)—In quest of his second world's crown, Tod Morgan, Seattle, former junior lightweight champion, gained a big step here last night when he won an easy victory over Eddie Mack, Denver, one of the leading contenders for the lightweight boxing title.

Morgan had Mack groggy in the second canto when he landed two stiff left hooks to start the stanza and then patted Eddie all around the ring. Tod won the fourth and fifth with vicious attacks and lost the sixth when Mack threw caution aside and tore into the former junior champion with both fists.

Don Fraser, Spokane junior welterweight, and Tony Portillo, Los Angeles Mexican, battled to a draw in the six round semi final.

CARDS WORRY CUBS WITH 8 STRAIGHT WINS

Open Chicago Series By Taking 20-Inning Game 8-7

By HUGH S. FULLERTON Jr.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
At least three teams in the National league apparently have no intention of letting the Chicago Cubs capture another pennant without a battle. With their successive triumphs over Brooklyn and New York, the Cubs seemed to be having things much their own way, then along came the St. Louis Cardinals to cause trouble.

The Cards, who have been creeping up in fourth place for some time, moved into Chicago yesterday with a record of eight straight victories. Instead of following the example of their predecessors and letting themselves be knocked out of such a place, they fought through the major league season's longest game to make it nine straight, with an 8 to 7 triumph in 20 innings.

For six innings Burleigh Grimes shut out the champions while the Cards piled up a five run lead. Then Grimes weakened, and before Sylvester Johnson took over the mound duty the Cubs had tied the score at 5-5.

Johnson finished the game for St. Louis, hurling 12 innings and giving only nine hits. And young Bob Osborn, who opposed him for the last nine frames, did about as well. Each had one bad inning, the fifteenth, but it failed to break the deadlock, each team scoring twice. In the twentieth Doubt hit singled, advanced to second as Adams was thrown out, and scored on High's single with the run which finally decided the game after four hours and ten minutes of play.

Brooklyn in Second
Brooklyn complicated the standing by taking second place from New York with an 8 to 7 victory.

Pittsburgh's Pirates slammed out a pair of victories over Cincinnati, to carry their winning streak to ten victories in twelve games. A 15-hit assault in the first game offset the slugging of Harry Hellmann, and gave Pittsburgh a 16 to 12 victory. Fifteen more wallops won the second game by an 11 to 2 count. Hell-drove hit two home runs and a double in the opening clash, to drive in seven runs.

The Boston Braves, aided by Wally Berger's 31st home run, piled out a 13 to 19 victory over Philadelphia.

Senators Trounce Yanks
Washington's Senators continued their efforts to make the American league race resemble that in the elder circuit by trouncing the New York Yankees, 6 to 3. The Athletics ran afoul of some of the great pitching the last-place Boston Red Sox have been getting, and lost a 2 to 1 decision as Hod Lisenbee outpitched George Ershaw with a six-hit performance.

The tie in games for sixth place in the standing dropped up as the St. Louis Browns continued to out-play the Detroit Tigers, gaining a 9 to 1 victory. The Chicago White Sox, after pulling ahead at Cleveland's expense, dropped back again when opposed by Wesley Ferrell. The big Indian hurler won his 23d victory of the season and his 12th in succession by a 10 to 5 count. Both the winning streak and the victory total are the best of the season for the major leagues.

ANGELS GARNER TWO GAME LEAD

By Associated Press
The battle between the Angels for second place in the Pacific Coast league today found Los Angeles two games ahead of San Francisco by virtue of a 1 to 0 win by the southerners yesterday.

Playing a tight pitching duel, Ed Baecht triumphed over Jimmy Zinn in one of the outstanding games of the week. It was an errorless game. As well as pitching a tight game, Baecht baited in the one run for the Angels in the second inning.

The Seattle Indians appear to be waking up to the fact that they will finish the season at the bottom of the standings unless they pep up. The Indians last night ran away with the Oaks, hammering out a 19 to 7 victory in a game which was featured by seven errors on the part of the Oaks.

The leading Hollywood Stars are still leading. The Stars played consistent baseball to go into the ninth with a three-run lead. The Mission Reds, however, clamped out three in the last frame. It looked like an extra inning game for a moment, but the Stars brought in the winning run in the last half to win 4 to 3.

The Portland Ducks also ran away with the Senators, winning 10 to 6, although the Solons chalked ten hits to the Ducks' four.

Tree Sitter Gives Fire Alarm; Saves Aged Negress' Life

HOUSTON, Texas, Aug. 29. (AP)—Johnny Fry, 12 years old, and a favorite in the tree-sitting contest here, obtained succor for a 70-year-old negro woman in the burning servants quarters at his home early today by shouting for it, but he refused to descend from his perch.

He remained there while the flames crackled, and Tony Kaufmann, Houston baseball pitcher and three others of the local Texas league team, who happened to be passing, rescued the woman.

Jinx Hovers Over McCarthy's Cubs

CHICAGO, Aug. 29. (AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy is beginning to believe there is no justice for his Cubs, what with injuries and 20-inning games.

The latest blow is an injury to Charlie Root's pitching arm which may keep him out for two weeks. Root sprained a muscle in the arm in the first inning of Wednesday's game with Pittsburgh.

PITCHER FIRE HERO

HOUSTON, Texas, Aug. 29. (AP)—Tony Kaufman, former Chicago Cubs pitcher, led other members of the Houston Texas League baseball team through a blazing building to the rescue of a 70-year-old negro woman last night.

Max Baer and Eight Others Are Suspended

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29. (AP)—Inquiries into the death of Frankie Campbell, heavyweight prizefighter who died after taking a beating at the hands of Max Baer in the ring here Monday night, waited today on the completion of a coroner's investigation.

Baer and eight others connected with the fight were temporarily suspended by the State Athletic Commission late yesterday. The commission then deferred further action until civil and criminal proceedings are completed. Baer is to appear in superior court on a manslaughter charge Sept. 12.

The commission suspended Toby Irwin, referee; J. H. Lorimer, Baer's manager; Ray Carlin and Frankie Burns, seconds; C. E. Working, Campbell's manager; Tom Maloney, Tillie "Kid" Herman and Larry Morrison, seconds of Campbell.

The commission also suspended Ace Hudkins, one time "Nebraska" team player, 2 and 1, after a bitterly contested match.
