

NEWS IN BRIEF

Visited in Berkeley—

Rev. and Mrs. T. Davis Preston, of the Community Congregational church have been spending the week in Berkeley, Calif., attending the sessions of the Pacific Slope Congress of Congregational churches. Delegates from six states were in attendance. On their return trip Rev. and Mrs. Preston stopped in Benicia, where they were located before coming to Klamath Falls. They were much interested in the new Southern Pacific bridge, which will replace the trestle. It is considered that the opening of this $12,000,000 bridge will be a vital blow to this historic California town. Rev. Preston returns to Klamath Falls tonight, and will preach Sunday morning.
