

NEWS IN BRIEF

Oregonians in City—
Many Oregon people, living in cities outside of Portland, visited at the local hotels Monday. Among them were D. B. Gray, W. Walker, C. F. Schumacher, C. Barbur, W. I. Knaube, R. C. Burgess, all of Medford; Edward F. Bailey, gubernatorial candidate from Junction City; L. J. Burnett, Roseburg; W. E. Baintyne, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. H. Jameson, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Tibbels, McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Estes, Grants Pass; R. B. Johnston, H. Smith and G. A. Howard, Roseburg.

United in Marriage—
Russell Whitlock, 26, and Theima McCoy, 19, both of Gales, California, were united in marriage by Justice of the Peace Barnes, Monday afternoon.

Society Anticipates Dance—
Society of Klamath Falls is anticipating the first social dance of the season, which is being sponsored by the Eastern Star Social club. Masons, Eastern Stars, De Molays, Job Daughters and their friends are invited to attend. Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mr. and Mrs. Willard J. Peyton, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Beard and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Drake. The dance will be held Friday evening, Oct. 10, in the Moose hall.

Wednesday Club to Meet—
Members of the Wednesday club will meet again Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the parish house.

Teachers to be Guests—
Plans are continuing for the reception which the business and Professional Women's club will give for the Klamath Falls teachers Monday evening, October 13, at the library social rooms. Those in charge of the reception are Misses Phinney, Dena Backen, Etta Farr, Irma Dixon, Florence Orscher, Greta Humphrey, Beulah Drake, Isabelle Brinker, Margaret Goodgrass, Katherine Gaylord, Olive Cornett and Ethel Williams.

Women Plan Entertainment—
In place of the benefit bridge party which was originally planned, the members of the executive board of the Women's Library club will sponsor a varied entertainment to be given at their next meeting, Friday afternoon at the city library club rooms. J. Percy Wells, superintendent of the city schools, will give a talk on "Columbus Day." Music will be furnished by Mrs. Don Zumwalt, piano, Miss Katherine Walton, violin and Lyle Stockton, cello.
