

MANY ATTEND DEDICATION OF NEW HOME

Archdeacon and Mrs. J. Henry Thomas of the Episcopal church of Eastern Oregon, were hosts last night at their new home, 520 Pacific Terrace, when the formal dedication of the official residence was beautifully conducted by Bishop William P. Remington, head of the diocese of Eastern Oregon.

Many friends of Archbishop and Mrs. Thomas, members and friends of St. Paul's church, and missions out of Klamath Falls, called at the home last night and greeted the archdeacon and his wife, Bishop and Mrs. Remington and Archdeacon Sidney W. Greasy, all of Pendleton.

The home was filled during the hours of 8 o'clock until 11 o'clock, by those who called for a moment to greet the archdeacon and his guests, and also by those who spent the entire evening and enjoyed the dedicatory by the bishop and the remarks made in a brief summary of the archdeacon's work in this district.

Flowers in huge baskets decorated the living room, the study, and formed a charming centerpiece for the dining room table where refreshments were served.

English Altar Viewed
There were many gifts exhibited also, including the beautiful altar purchased in England by Bishop Remington for Archdeacon Thomas' study, a nest of tables, the gift of Bishop and Mrs. Remington, and other presentations from friends of the archdeacon and Mrs. Thomas. Outstanding among other gifts was the Frigidaire installed in the Thomas' kitchen, a gift from their many friends and admirers.

Following the dedicatory address and service by Bishop Remington, Archdeacon Greasy of Pendleton, in charge of the northern district, similar to the southern district in charge of Archdeacon Thomas, paid a glowing tribute to his fellow worker, Rev. Joseph Ewing, rector of St. Paul's, spoke briefly as did Heber Radcliffe, lay-reader and son of an archdeacon of the Episcopal church.

Musical Trio Pleases
A delightful musical program was arranged by Mrs. Don Zumwalt's trio which includes Mrs. Zumwalt, piano; Katherine Walton, violin, and Lyle Stockton, cello. Their numbers included "The Two Guitars," Horlick; "Hungarian Dance, No. 5," Brahms and Farewell to Cuckoo, arranged by Kreisler.

The hostesses at last night's open house were wives of members of the bishop's committee including Mrs. H. E. Getz, Mrs. M. J. Young, Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. F. R. Olds, Mrs. F. L. Weaver, Mrs. Heber Radcliffe, ably assisted by Mrs. H. W. Bathiany.

of forest fires, thirty being reported in the state. In the two most serious blazes 60 bungalows were destroyed between Mays Landing and Pleasantville, while 11,550 acres of timber lands have been burned over near Astoria.

After a tour of state forests in New York, two state conservation officials said they would recommend closing the Northern Adirondack forests to the public to relieve the fire hazard.

Photographers Will Meet Here

A demonstration of negatives will be given by one of the association members. A discussion of the coming year's work will also be held.

The studios which will be represented at tonight's meeting include the following: Anderson, Ponder, Shores, Harwood and Swann, all of Medford; Darling, Ashland; Brainard, Grants Pass, and May King, Klamath Falls.

administration of all laws. "I have no time for the spasmodic chap who seeks the limelight with hurrahs about some certain dramatic feature in law enforcement," said Mr. Gillenwaters, "for I believe that the district attorney's office is essentially the office that stands for the whole people, always ready to protect the public from lawlessness, from fraud of every kind and from encroachment of the strong against the weak. If you elect me to the office please understand that every man, woman and child in Klamath county will have a personal attorney in Ted Gillenwaters who will always be ready to listen to them and protect them."

Mrs. Ruth O. Bathiany, candidate for city treasurer, spoke briefly telling the Lions she would be an efficient and courteous treasurer if elected. She pleased everyone present when she said, "and I will not attempt to run the whole city hall—just my own department."

As it was "advertising day" among the Lions a good natured "roar" went up when Mrs. Lynn Zimmerman, of the Herald and News, addressed the club on the merits of advertising. Mrs. Zimmerman told them that advertising is the well balanced lever that moves the world and all that is the world today. She insisted that everyone of us get up in the morning, eat our breakfast, ride to work, work all day and go home in the evening with every act and every utensil used dictated by national or local advertising. She then outlined the successes made in the nation with the help of advertising and told of the failures which would have been successful had proper advertising been used.

Another sign that a man will soon be out of a job is his belief that advice is impudence.

CHAPTER NAT'L. LADIES' LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED

Klamath chapter of the National League of Women Voters was organized at a well attended meeting in the circuit court rooms of the court house Monday night, with Miss Edna Boyd, executive secretary of the Seventh Region, acting as chairman. Thirty-two enthusiastic women joined the league as charter members. The following officers were unanimously elected: Mrs. Nelson Reed, whose efforts are fundamentally responsible for the organization of the local chapter, president; Mrs. H. W. Poole, first vice-president; Miss Etta Farr, secretary, and Mrs.

Paul Sharp treasurer. The National League of Women Voters is an outgrowth of the women's suffrage movement. It was originally established to educate the women in their new duties as voters, and since its inception has made great contributions to political thinking.

Open-mindedly, and non-partisanly, the league has studied problems of national and international importance and from time to time conducts classes in citizenship. Women voters from both republican and democratic parties are enthusiastic workers in the organization, but the League itself is strictly non-partisan. It sponsors measures, not candidates.

It is unique in its non-partisan-ship and is intensely patriotic, upholding the Constitution and working for the welfare of the country, for the removal of legal discriminations against women by specific measures not prejudicial to women's labor laws or to social welfare legislation.

A meeting of the local league is scheduled for Tuesday evening, October 21, in the circuit court rooms. At this time, speakers will discuss both sides of the 13 measures which will appear on the ballot at the coming election.

Later in October, the League will hold a meeting at which all candidates for county and city offices will be asked to speak. All women in the county are invited to attend the meetings, and if they are interested, to join the league.
