

NEWS IN BRIEF

Pelican P. T. A.—

The Pelican P. T. A. met Wednesday afternoon, and after the regular business meeting enjoyed an interesting program. Miss Aileen Dwyer, city school nurse, addressed the meeting, taking for her subject, "The Duties of Parenthood." Mrs. Helmer and Mrs. Erickson sang Aloha arranged as a duet, after which Mrs. Helm, principal of Pelican school gave a talk on Hawaii. Mrs. Helm spent the summer in the Hawaiian Islands. Delegates to the regional convention of P. T. A. meeting here on October 22 and 23, were chosen and Mrs. Muskops and Mrs. Yantis will represent Pelican P. T. A. Delightful refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

League to Hold Sale—

The Girls' league of Klamath Union high school will hold a rummage sale Saturday in the Forbes building at the corner of Fifth and Klamath avenue. Funds derived from the sale will be used to sponsor league activities throughout the year. Miss Blanche O'Neil is president of the organization.

Bill Priest Here—

"Bill" Priest, manager of the Portland branch of the Burns Detective Agency, is spending a week in Klamath Falls on business connected with his office. Before his return to Portland, Mr. Priest expects to enjoy a deer hunt.

Negro Apprehended—

Shortly before noon Thursday Arthur Parker, negro, wanted by Medford authorities, was apprehended by local police officers just as he was walking out of the city. Officers from Medford will come for Parker.

Returned From Trip—

E. N. Hardenbrook, Earl DeWeese, Bill Houston, Charles Moore, and "Hot Shot" Reed have returned from a two weeks' hunting trip in Klamath forests. C. H. Foster of the Southern Pacific company accompanied the party.

On Shopping Tour—

Mrs. Charles LaPointe left on Thursday evening for Los Angeles where she will purchase additional fall and winter merchandise for LaPointe's. She expects to be away about a fortnight or longer.

Underwent Operation—

Miss Martha Jones of this city successfully underwent a major operation at a San Francisco hospital yesterday, according to word received here by her mother, Mrs. Caleb Jones.

License Issued—

A marriage license was issued yesterday at the office of the county clerk to Joe Bruchou, 27, carpenter of Klamath Falls, and Marie Bergner, 21, dressmaker, of San Francisco.

Plans to Remain—

Oliver Bredeeson has arrived in the city from Chicago, Ill., and plans to remain here at least several weeks.

Old Statute Is Used by Sheriff

PENDLETON, Oct. 16, (AP)—An old and seldom used section of the law was invoked here today when Sheriff Tom Gardane, Umatilla county, assembled a sheriff's jury to decide ownership of property under attachment.

The case was brought by D. B. Snyder against Jesse Goff. The law permits the sheriff, when ownership is disputed, to secure a jury and assume the role of judge.

Now that Will Rogers has provided a loser's cap for Lipton, may be he will collect a few shirts for those who tried to beat Wall street.
