

MALIN HIGH BROADCASTER

VOL. 2. MALIN, OREGON. NO. 8.
 (PUBLISHED BY JUNIOR CLASS)
 EDITOR: Edwin Stastny SOCIETY: Russell Marshall
 SPORTS (Girls): Bertha Roddy ASST. EDITOR: Rex Stoffer
 PERSONALS: Olga Kuns SPORTS (Boys): Billy Streeter
 REPORTERS: Paul Petrasek, Naomi Davis, James Bradshaw, Delmer Williamson, Fred Fisher, Edna Ransier, David White, Mary Fabianek, Anna Micka.

BONANZA HIGH SQUAD LOSES

Malin Braves, playing their best game of the season, beat the Bonanza squad 30-0, last Friday, on the Bonanza field. The Malin plays they put the ball over the net due to hard practice this last week.

The first quarter started with Malin receiving. After a few plays they put the ball over the line for the first touchdown. The first quarter ended 6-0.

The second quarter started with Malin in possession of the ball. The second touchdown soon came with Malin converting for the extra point. Malin kicked off to Bonanza, but Bonanza was unable to make any yardage. Malin made another touchdown this quarter, making the score 20-0.

In the third neither scored, but Malin came back strong in the fourth quarter. The final score was 30-0.

Malin's lineup was as follows: Enoch Petrasek, lt; David White, rt; Richard Jackman, lg; Edwin Stastny, center; Delmer Williamson, rg; Leo Kamarad, rt; Bill Rajnus, re; Mervyn Wilde, qb; Joe Miskovsky, lb; Wilford Hundley, rb; Claude Layman, fs; substitutes: Billy Streeter, David McCamb, Paul Petrasek, Wayne Holbrook and Walter Stastny.

Malin Girls Win Volley Ball Game

Last Friday a volleyball game was played between the Henley high school girls and Malin high school girls, which ended with the score, 16 to 20, in favor of Malin.

The girls who played from Malin were: Agnes Drasil, Emma Kalina, Marjorie Kos, Mildred Potucek, Rita Hundley and Bertha Roddy. Lillian Hilland substituted for Bertha Roddy in the last quarter.

Wednesday, October 15, at 7:30 p. m., the freshmen girls of Malin high, and the eighth grade girls of Malin engaged in a volleyball game at the grade school court.

The teams were well matched, although the freshmen have had the most experience. The grade school players had been well coached by Mr. Olson. The grade girls were ahead at the end of the first half, but the freshmen rallied and the final score was 11 to 22 in the freshmen's favor.

New 'Orange M' Boys Initiated

Friday, October 10, the members of the "Orange M" club initiated the newcomers—those who had won a letter in basketball and baseball last year—into their association. The new members were taken to Klamath Falls wearing ridiculous costumes. They paraded down Main street to the Pine Tree theater, where they took in a show. Following the show they went to the Klamath Natatorium for a swim. After the swim they were escorted to the Brick cafe for supper.

The new members are Edwin Stastny, Enoch Petrasek, Ben Layman, Louis Tofel, Jack Szykai, Leo Kamarad and David McCamb.

Team Picked To Attend Stock Show

Friday, at the pie social, Mr. Street, principal of Malin high, announced that Wilford Hundley, Jack Chapman, Don Stoffer and Ben Layman had been selected to represent Malin high school at the stock show in Portland.

The boys were picked from the agriculture classes. All the boys in these classes have been practicing judging the past few weeks as part of their class work, and all have worked hard for a position on this team.

Bonanza Girls Downed in Game

Malin girls' volleyball team was victorious over Bonanza on the Bonanza court last Friday by a score of 16-22. Both teams played a good game. Bonanza was leading the first half by a score of 13 to 12.

Malin has only one more game to play of the county series. The girls are hoping to again hold the county cup.

The girls that played Friday on Malin's team were Rita Hundley, Emma Kalina, Mildred Potucek, Marjorie Kos, Bertha Roddy and Irene Halousek.

Elect Hundley Class President

The F. F. A. class held election of officers on September 10. Those elected were: President, Wilford Hundley; vice president, Jack Chapman; Sec.-Treas., Ben Layman; reporter, Elmost Kanyon.

Maline Wetzel vaccinated several pupils of the Malin grade school for small pox, Tuesday.

Mrs. Hartman of Grants Pass visited with Mrs. A. M. Worlow, Sunday.

The typewriters of the Malin high school were overhauled by an agent of the Underwood Typing company, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kalina and small son, Rudolph, left for Forest Grove to visit with their son, Louis, who is attending Pacific university.

It's easy to measure a man's unimportance. It's in exact ratio to the importance of his telephone voice.

PERSONALS

Kenneth and Lester Porterfield of Myrtle Point are visiting in Malin for a few days.

Miss Beale Burgess of Blocksburg, California is visiting with relatives at Malin.

Jack Chapman had the misfortune of hitting his tongue. Friday in the football game with Henley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Holousek and family motored to Ashland over the week end. Mr. Holousek will remain there for an indefinite period for his health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Branch of Bly visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stastny, Wednesday.

James Toliver received serious injuries while digging potatoes for H. R. Jackman.

Mrs. John Honzik visited with Mrs. Joe Chotard, Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Maupin of Malin is cooking at the Havlina hunting camp of Tule lake.

Miss Georgia Liskey spent the week end with Miss Loretta Fisher.

Mrs. Holbrook and family have moved to Midland where they plan to reside all winter.

Mrs. Nelson and Mr. Houge of Medford visited in Malin, last week end.

Maxine Miller gave a birthday party Sunday afternoon and all present had an enjoyable time.

Mrs. Tom Decker and family and Mr. Tom Beach motored to Bly on Sunday.

The "spot" dance held at Malin, Saturday, was well attended by everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker motored to McCloud, California, Friday to visit friends.

Mrs. William Allen of Klamath Falls visited with her son, MacGarrett of Malin, Wednesday.

Mabel Scott of Klamath Falls has moved to Malin to spend the winter with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Durkin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Criss and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenyon and family motored to Gungora Neck, California to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Criss, parents of Mr. Criss and Mrs. Kenyon.

Rev. Taylor of Portland had charge of the service at the Presbyterian church at Malin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Jelinek and Harry Adamek of Langell Valley were visiting in Malin, Sunday.

Many of the high school and grade school students were in Klamath Falls Wednesday to hear the U. S. Marine band play at Poole's Politan theatre.

Mrs. C. A. Henderson, county music teacher was at the Malin grade school, Wednesday.

Merrill Defeats Malin Grade Team

On Friday, October 10, the Malin grade school took its football team to Merrill, where they were defeated by a score of 13 to 0.

It was a hard-fought game, the members of both teams doing their best. The line-up for Malin was as follows:

Kenyon, lg; Tomson, lt; Wilson, lb; Kirkpatrick, c; Decker, rg; Cooley, re; Kuns, rt; Edwards, qb; Decker, lb; Holbrook, rb; Reber, fb; Wisner, Osborne and Drasil, subs.

MALIN WINS GRID GAME

In the first conference game played on the Malin gridiron, Henley was defeated by a score of 7 to 6.

Both teams were so evenly matched that neither side scored in the first half. Henley was the first to score, making a touchdown in the third quarter, but failed to convert the point. Malin also scored in this quarter, with Miskovsky making the touchdown, and converting the extra point by a line buck. There was no scoring in the last quarter.

Malin's lineup was as follows: Enoch Petrasek, lg; Jack Chapman, lt; Richard Jackman, lg; Edwin Stastny, c; Delmer Williamson, rg; Wilford Hundley, rt; Willie Rajnus, re; Mervyn Wilde, qb; Leo Kamarad, lb; Joe Miskovsky, rb; Claude Layman, fb.

Hundley and Kamarad changed positions in the last quarter.

Substituted David White for Jack Chapman.

Referee, Roland Parks; head lineeman, Ivan Petrasek.

Pie Social Held To Raise Funds

A pie social was held Friday, October 17, at the Community hall for the benefit of the F. F. A. organization of Malin high school. Proceeds will be used to send four boys to the stock show in Portland.

The following program was presented: "Kentucky Babe," Girls' Glee club; reading, Richard Jackman; "Cinderella, Sophomore agriculture class; "The Woodshed Blues," solo by Elmost Kanyon; boxing match, Richard Jackman and Wilford Hundley; "Miss Popularity," skit; "One Fleeting Hour" and "Down the River of Golden Dreams," Girls' Trio; Magician act, Mervyn Wilde; "Womanless Wedding," skit; "Dumb and Devoled," duet by Louise Jenkins and Emma Kalina.

Election Ballots Being Sent Out

Ballots for the general election to be held November 4 are being sent out by the county clerk's office force to the 65 precincts in the county, with other election supplies.

With the election two weeks from today, the final preparations for voting are being made by the officials. Election and counting boards are being selected and notified and all ballots mailed out to the precincts.

In Klamath Falls the voters will have three ballots to mark, the general ballot containing the names of candidates and proposed state measures; the city special election ballot carrying three measures submitted to the people, and the special county ballot carrying the armory bond proposal.

Charles and Chester Delap are in charge of the work in the clerk's office. Both samples and the original ballots are being mailed with ballot boxes, pencils, polling booths and tabulation sheets.

VALLEY PEOPLE HEAR BOIVIN

By GRACE E. BROWN — LANGELL VALLEY, Ore., Oct. 21. (Special)—At the Langell Valley community hall Saturday evening there was a largely attended dance and political meeting. Among the speakers was Harry D. Boivin, assistant district attorney who is a candidate for district attorney. Mr. Boivin is running on a platform of honest enforcement of the law. He was born in Klamath county and attended the public schools in the county. Mr. Boivin is well known throughout this valley, having visited here many times.

Mr. and Mrs. David Turner are spending a few days in Sutherland, Oregon, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Willis and daughter of Lakeview are here visiting Mrs. Willis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi McDonald.

Lee Wortman left for Alturas, Calif., last week.

Lee and Fred Roberts of Bryant Mountain were through the valley the forepart of the week looking for cattle.

Bonanza high school football team played the Klamath Falls team on Friday at Klamath Falls. The K. U. H. S. team won with a lead of 19 points.

Thomas Lovelady of Poe Valley delivered some cattle to the Lyle Mills ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. Mills recently bought these.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Welch and son, Le Roy, of Hildebrand were transacting business in Bonanza on Saturday.

A crew has been working on the Bonanza-Lorella road, widening and straightening it near the Frank Nichols ranch where it makes a blind turn. This has for some time needed straightening as several bad accidents have occurred there.

Work on the church building has been resumed. Everyone who is able to work is urged to assist.

The regular meeting of the grange was held Tuesday. A large attendance was present.

Henry Thaw, Frances Thaw and Vera McReynolds attended a football game in Bonanza on Friday afternoon.

Jim Lenzl, C. B. Brown, Henry Howe, Art Welmer, Frank Jenkins and Wilbur Nise left Saturday for a hunting trip to Summer Lake.

"Whitie" Dun and June Stastny were married last week at Bend, Ore. Mr. Dunn is a farmer of this valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Powers transacted business in Klamath Falls on Wednesday.

George Shantz was a business visitor in Bonanza on Friday afternoon.

Public Political Meeting Tonight

A public political meeting will be held tonight at 7:45 o'clock at the Eagles' hall, Ninth and Walnut, at which all candidates for public office are invited to attend and speak. The public is invited to attend the meeting and listen to the discussions.

William Ferguson, candidate for mayor, announced that the hall had been secured and extended the invitation to all candidates to appear and speak, and to the public to attend the meeting.

HILDEBRAND PARTY PLANNED

By ESTHER MICHAEL — HILDEBRAND, Ore., Oct. 21. (Special)—The Hildebrand school and Parent-Teachers association are giving a Halloween program and dance Friday evening, October 31 at the Hildebrand grange hall.

Mrs. Leonard Ritter and two children, Walter and Clara and Mrs. Karloline Ritter spent Tuesday afternoon at the T. P. Michael home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horton visited friends and relatives in Bonanza Friday.

Karl Zansinger, who is employed at the H. N. Whitelins ranch near Klamath Falls, was a Sunday visitor at the Leonard Ritter home.

C. A. Carlson was a business visitor in Bonanza Wednesday. Many of the Hildebrand grange members attended the Polman grange meeting held at Keno, Oct. 11.

London's name was once Hill by the Pool.

Police Seeking California Girl Last Seen Monday

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 21. (A P)—Last seen talking to a man in an automobile while on her way to school, 10-year-old Virginia Eddy was the object of a police search throughout Northern California today.

She is the daughter of Mrs. C. D. Eddy of Berkeley and her divorced husband, Maurice Flynn of Portland, Ore.

Schoolmates told of seeing the girl talking to a man near the school yesterday, but her teachers said she did not attend classes. The other girls who saw the man in the car were unable to give a description of him or his machine.

But if you don't play contract bridge you are sunk, anyway, and there's no gargon for that.

THIS NEW DISCOVERY paves the way to Better Health

Youngsters . . . and grownups too need this Vitalizing Hot Cereal . . .

OF COURSE you want your children to be sturdy and strong, bubbling over with health and spirits.

You're sorry for nervous, under-nourished children, with appetites that can't be coaxed alive. You don't want yours to get that way . . .

Then you will be interested in what scientists have learned about Vitamin B and how to get it. Where, do you suppose, do they now turn to obtain in greatest abundance this priceless builder of appetite and nerve strength?

Whole Wheat for Health

THEY find it in whole grains. And most bountifully of all in whole wheat! Wheat with the heart left in!

Carnation Wheat is such a cereal. Flakes rolled from choice California white Sonora wheat . . . luscious, creamy flavored . . . brimming with all the health values of the wheat.

The heart . . . the bran . . . carbohydrates for energy . . . growth-promoting proteins . . . minerals for red blood and sturdy bone. Super-rich also in Vitamin E, the mysterious life force that means so much to one in later years. And one of the best of all cereal sources of the growth-promoting Vitamin A . . . Truly, the Vitalizing Cereal!

THIS NEW DISCOVERY paves the way to Better Health

Youngsters . . . and grownups too need this Vitalizing Hot Cereal . . .

OF COURSE you want your children to be sturdy and strong, bubbling over with health and spirits.

You're sorry for nervous, under-nourished children, with appetites that can't be coaxed alive. You don't want yours to get that way . . .

Then you will be interested in what scientists have learned about Vitamin B and how to get it. Where, do you suppose, do they now turn to obtain in greatest abundance this priceless builder of appetite and nerve strength?

The Vitalizing Hot Cereal . . .

THEY find it in whole grains. And most bountifully of all in whole wheat! Wheat with the heart left in!

Carnation Wheat is such a cereal. Flakes rolled from choice California white Sonora wheat . . . luscious, creamy flavored . . . brimming with all the health values of the wheat.

The heart . . . the bran . . . carbohydrates for energy . . . growth-promoting proteins . . . minerals for red blood and sturdy bone. Super-rich also in Vitamin E, the mysterious life force that means so much to one in later years. And one of the best of all cereal sources of the growth-promoting Vitamin A . . . Truly, the Vitalizing Cereal!

Carnation Wheat

ONE OF THE Carnation - Albers PRODUCTS

Others are: CARNATION MILK, CARNATION OATS (quick and regular), ALBERS FLAKES, PEACOCK BUCKWHEAT, PEARLS OF WHEAT, INSTANT TAPIOCA, ALBERS CORNMEAL

Snowdrift

is as sweet as pure rich cream and fresh as new laid eggs

FOR good cooks, who like things just a little bit nicer, the Wesson Oil people make Snowdrift. Pure, sweet and fresh, Snowdrift is creamed from an oil as fine as a delicious salad oil . . . and nothing else.

It is creamed for you to an even, spoonable, easy-to-blend smoothness. An air-tight sealed pail brings all its goodness to you. All its rich freshness comes to your table as part of the nice things you bake and fry.

