Imported Dinner Set—and a Set of Silver plate, both $19.50

The China comes from one of the foremost potteries in Austria—and is stamped "Victoria." There are forty-two pieces in each set, as follows: Six Dinner Plates—six Soup Plates—six Bread and Butter Plates—six Fruit or Oatmeal Dishes—half a dozen Cups and Saucers—a Platter—an open Vegetable Dish—a Salad Bowl—a Sugar Bowl and a Cream Pitcher.

The silver comes from the shops of one of the foremost makers in the land (though at this low price we are not allowed to advertise the name). Each set includes—Six Dinner Knives with stainless steel blades and with hollow handles—six Forks—six Serving Spoons—six Teaspoons—a Sugar Shell and a Butter Knife—and each piece is guaranteed for a decade of daily service.

All are decorated in the most artistic manner and are fine enough for the finest home in town.

Bought separately the "ensemble" would—in the language of a college boy—"make a fifty-dollar bill look like the wreck of the Hesperus," but those who help us by shopping early—can get both silver and china—sixty-eight pieces all told—for Nineteen Fifty.

Pay Half a Dollar and Take the Set Along—Pay the Balance—a Dollar or So a Week
