

SAN FRANCISCO CAR COLLISION INJURES MANY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13, (AP)—A trolley car collision, occurring in the Twin Peaks tunnel as one car backed up to recover a lost 50-cent coin, left thirteen persons nursing injuries here today. Two were reported in serious condition and a score of others were said to have received minor cuts and bruises.

The crash occurred during the rush hour late yesterday. The leading car was about 700 feet in the tunnel. Investigators said, when Conductor C. A. Lund signalled motorman Robert Hanlow to back up.

Fred Booken, superintendent of the municipal railways, said the car had backed 400 to 500 feet when the following trolley bore down on it and crashed into the rear of the backing vehicle.

The cars were telescoped for about eight feet, trapping Arthur Anderson, 63, motorman of the second car and 13 year old Tom Watson, who stood on the platform beside him. They were freed from the wreckage with the aid of axes and acetylene torches.

Anderson's legs were crushed, his skull possibly fractured and he was thought to have been internally injured. Young Watson also was internally injured. Both were reported critically hurt.

Booken said the backing of the leading car was a violation of rules. Operators of the cars were ordered to surrender their badges.

Passengers in the rear of the backing car, seeing a collision imminent, jammed themselves forward. Passengers in both cars were hurled into the aisle and cut by flying glass but sustained each other out of the wreckage without confusion. Short circuits started fires in the wreckage but they were extinguished promptly. Traffic was delayed an hour while the tunnel was cleared.

HELL BE QUARTERBACK SAYS PROUD FATHER

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13, (AP)—Harry Stuhldreher, one of the famous "Four Horsemen of Notre Dame" is the proud father of a son, Harry Jr., who arrived today.

"He'll be a quarterback," was the comment of the former football star.

Stuhldreher is head football coach at Villanova college.

TYRONE, Okla. — Nature's surely funny in some instances. But then maybe the speedometer of R. T. Linsey's friend wasn't working correctly when he timed the speed of a jack-rabbit near here. The pack according to Linsey, started up 100 feet in front of the car. Just to see how fast it could run, the car was stepped up to 63 miles an hour—and still the rabbit kept ahead!

THE NUT CRACKER

Joe O'Goofy says mutual betting at the race track gets its name because of the thousands who lose money on their choice. The feeling, he says, is mutual.

Be pleasant, says those who prescribe the rules of success in 10 easy lessons. But consider Fordham and N. Y. U. who drew 75,000 people to one football game in which the two teams were supposed to act very unpleasantly toward one another.

- Before the Princeton team
- left for Chicago, the students held an old-fashioned

- the team accustomed to the Chicago atmosphere.

Consider peewee golf. It is one of our most popular games, yet never has been touched by the breath of scandal.

Five Miners Are Killed in Slide At Canadian Mine

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 13, (AP)—Five men were dead today and one injured from a rock and dirt slide which demolished a bunk house at the Knox mine of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power company.

Reports of the tragedy were meager and it was not known how many men were in the building or how the slide was started. Anox is on Observatory Island, about 50 miles north of Prince Rupert, B. C.

Chicago Markets Get Better Turkeys

CHICAGO, Nov. 13, (AP)—The early birds are coming to town—bigger, better and cheaper.

"The dry weather" said an official of one product concern "has been good for turkeys. They are better in quality than for the last ten years." Thousands are coming into Chicago from Ohio, Kentucky, Iowa, Wisconsin and other states, two weeks ahead of the usual time.

All of which is good news coming after the long drought of last summer, but which doesn't augur well for the turkeys.

High School Band To Present Concert

By DORIS PORTER School Correspondent

To raise money for additional uniforms, the band of Klamath Union high school will present a concert Friday evening, November 21, at 8 o'clock, in the school auditorium.

The program will last about an hour and a half and will consist of classical and semi-classical pieces, military marches and popular numbers. An admission charge of 50 cents will be made.

The band, which is under the direction of John Stovall, musical director, now contains 45 members, but it is possible that 50 boys will be in the band next semester. The Lions club made it possible for the boys to have their present red and white uniforms. The boys' and girls' glee clubs will also appear on the concert program.

"We expect to have the best concert that has been presented in the school so far," Mr. Stovall stated Wednesday.

CALLISON'S OREGON BABES WANT REVENGE

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 13, (AP)—Oregon Frosh and Oregon State Rooks resume their football feud on Hayward Field Friday night. Frank Callison, Frosh coach, is out for revenge for the 7-6 defeat suffered at the hands of the Rooks a few weeks ago. He has withdrawn his team from scrimmage and will mass the full strength of the Webfoots with the exception of Ed McKelligan, center, who is out with injuries. McKelligan will occupy the center position.

HEL-LO HONEY; SHO, SHO!

Internationally famous yet practically unknown! Sounds like a paradox, but it applies to the kings of radio entertainment, Amos 'n' Andy, appearing at the Pelican theatre, in their first talking picture, "Check and Double Check."

Motion picture players whose names are not nearly so well known as Amos 'n' Andy, scarcely can go anywhere without being recognized, yet Amos 'n' Andy rarely are recognized in their daily movements.

The reason for this is that they are known only as delineators of negro types. When they remove their makeup they reveal their identity. To preserve the illusion that they are what their radio audiences imagine them to be no one ever sees them broadcast, not even their wives nor their manager.

Even in Chicago, where most of their broadcasting is done, they are known only to their immediate circle of friends. Amos 'n' Andy are known to millions—as two voices—but Freeman Gosden and Charles Carroll look pretty much like other young business men in a crowd.

In "Check and Double Check" they emerge from their usual seclusion and provide the public with its first view of them. Featured with them in the picture are Sue Carol, Charles Martin, Irene Rich, and a strong supporting cast.

Richard Arlen is seen as a swaggering, bragging and wholly lovable lover in his featured role in "The Light of Western Stars," which opened at the Pine Tree theatre Tuesday for a three-day run. With a part closely resembling his inimitable role in "The Virginian," Arlen gives a great portrayal in this Zane Grey outdoor action-romance.

Gene Hammond Wins Election Over Mr. Semon

E. M. "Gene" Hammond of Merrill was elected a director of the Klamath Irrigation district yesterday by property owners in the district by a majority of 55 votes over Henry Semon, prominent farmer of the Henley district.

The election brought out the heaviest vote ever recorded in a district election. It is stated, with 443 ballots being cast, which is 190 more than in any previous election and an increase of about 25 per cent over the next highest vote ever cast.

Succeeds Folsom

Mr. Hammond will take his seat as a director on the first Tuesday in January, 1931, which is January 6. He will succeed Judge H. H. Folsom, who has served out his elective term.

Other members of the board of directors are J. L. Jacobs and Sam Dehlinger, both farmers in the district, as is Mr. Hammond.

VITALITY IS LOW AMONG WORKERS AT FOUR O'CLOCK

Fatigue During This Zoro Hour Can be Overcome by Sugar

Finishing the day's work "dead tired" is neither wise nor necessary. Everybody knows that a fatigued system is readily susceptible to the common ills. To maintain vitality during the last half of the day is therefore essential, not only for the sake of health but efficient work.

One of the simplest ways to combat fatigue is eating a food or drinking a beverage that contains refined sugar. Candy, ice cream, cookies and cakes are ideal in this respect. Best of all, they can be bought readily and cheaply everywhere.

Medical men have made many experiments with workers and sugar foods in mid-afternoon and have found the results most satisfactory. The sugar quickly nourishes the body without taxing the digestive system. When the body is nourished in this way, fatigue disappears.

Such sweet snacks as those previously mentioned can be kept in one's desk and eaten while at work. For a sweet beverage, a glass of water containing sugar—the "athlete's cocktail"—is most invigorating. Many famous athletes drink this prior to a hard game. Most foods are more delicious with refined sugar. The Sugar Institute.
