N. J. Crain Robbed By Masked Bandits
N. J. Crain, owner of a drug store, was held up and robbed at his drug store at 339 East Main street at 8:15 Saturday by three masked robbers, who secured only $3 cash from the cash register and a check for $1 which they took from Crain's pocketbook.
Two of the robbers entered the store and threatened Crain with a revolver while a third waited outside in a car in which all three made their getaway.
Police have been questioning suspects and rounding up transients.
