Come On, Boys and Girls!

Write your letters to Santa Claus. He is coming to meet you personally at the Pelican Theatre, Wednesday, December 24. Prizes will be given by the merchants whose ads appear on this page. The Herald and News will give every youngster a bag of candy or orange and Mr. Poole is giving you the nicest picture that he can find.

Come...

WHISPER
IT to SANTA!

He's a grand old fellow. . . . Knows what good little folks want . . . but he's been away for a whole year making new toys and he kind of forgets all your wishes, so you had better hurry and write him.

REMEMBER THE PARTY

And that all letters to Santa must be addressed to Santa Claus in care of The Herald and News.

That Turkey or Chicken Dinner

And what a delectable treat is in store for everybody who comes to The Pelican Grille. It's impossible to prepare the palatable meal for the price we ask—which we serve all day every day—and we assure you that you'll like it through every course.

Santa Has a Savings Account For Every Boy and Girl

Our message to the boys and girls of Klamath this year is that they can all be the happy possessors of a savings account if they will save their pennies, nickels and dimes and place them in a savings bank.

A dollar isn't much to start with but it can be increased by leaps and bounds with careful planning.

The AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK
