Real Good Letter

Dear Santa Claus—I am writing you a letter.

I am trying to write a real good letter to you.

I am trying to win a FLEXIBLE FLYER SLED

I am 10 years old. My name is Jimmie Sutton.

I have been longing for one ever seen them. There are many other gifts I would like to have. But I must think of others before myself.

I would give most anything for a FLEXIBLE FLYER SLED. I am going to try to pay a dollar to join the Red Cross. I am selling Christmas seals.

I am trying to sell 50c worth of them then if I do will get a pin with your picture on it. I will be glad when summer is here and I can go swimming and have lots of fun. But when summer is here I wish it was winter so I could be out of that hot sun and go ice skating on our big pond, and go sleighing. I can hardly wait for Christmas eve to come. Every morning when I get up I think it is Christmas morning. I will be glad to hear you over the radio. I like to here the childrens program.

We are getting all fixed up for our Christmas program. I am getting along fine only in spelling and arithmetic. Yours truly,
Jimmie Sutton
