

SOCIETY

VIVIAN McCAULEY, EDITOR

TELEPHONE 1900

Catherine Casper Is Worthy Matron Of Aloha Chapter

Election of officers for Aloha chapter, O. E. S., took place on Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall.

Officers elected include Catherine Casper worthy matron, Karl Knutson worthy patron, Orva Beard associate matron, Jack Murphy associate patron, Ella McMillan secretary, Melba Belding treasurer, Alberta Stenmetts conductor, Nita West associate conductor, Mrs. L. F. Williams, Mrs. Frank Ward and Mrs. Marion Hanks trustees.

Installation of the newly elected officers will take place in the near future.

Officers for the past year have been: Mrs. R. Batsler worthy matron, J. I. Beard worthy patron, Catherine Casper associate matron, Carl Knutson associate matron, Ella McMillan secretary, Melba Belding treasurer and Orva Beard conductor.

After the close of the business meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. H. A. Sprague, Mrs. V. E. Parker and Mrs. H. C. Bonney.

Mrs. Saunders Is Given Lovely Party

Mrs. Elizabeth Saunders was pleasantly surprised Monday evening, when members of the Redtail drill team gathered at the Odd Fellows hall to honor her on her birthday.

A centerpiece of pink and green flowers formed the main decoration. A huge green and pink cake was presented to the guest of honor.

Guests who attended were Mesdames E. A. Emmitt, Georgia Sloan, Mabel Foster, Gertrude Blith, Dorothy Nichols, Charmain Johnson, Pearl Bark, Alice Lawrence, Ida Grimes, Letha Landis, Anna Bean, Beatrice Perkins, Lina Mutschelbacher, Harriet Estes, Mable Hunsaker, Ethel Hoagland, George Hider, Nellie Summers, Addie Walker, Anna Hill, Ivy Propst, Isabella Marsh, Catherine Ess, Cordelia Cantrill, Dolis Norris, Lena Horton and Elizabeth Saunders, guest of honor.

John Francis, Mr. Walker and Lynn Propst were other guests present.

Cards were played during the evening, with scores going to Mrs. Saunders high, and Mrs. Hider consolation.

Library Club Held Christmas Program

Outstanding among the social events of this week was the Christmas party given Friday afternoon by the ladies of the Library club.

The decorations were most beautiful. A lovely Christmas tree occupied the center of the room and branches of holly were placed about the room. Red tapers completed the decoration scheme.

Miss Eleanor Wagner, talented pianist, gave a selection of solos and little Steve Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. E. M. Wilson, delighted the large number of members attending with several songs.

The annual hi-jinks party of the Women's Library club will be held January 9 in the City Library club rooms. A general invitation is extended to various organizations to participate. Three prizes will be offered for the best stunts. Those wishing further information are asked to call Mrs. E. M. Bubb.

Mrs. R. C. Groomsbeck is chairman of the committee outlining plans for the hi-jinks.

High School Glee Club Plan Cantata

Under the direction of Mrs. Madge Hampton, musical director of the high school, a cantata entitled "The Gift" will be presented by members of the elementary and advanced glee clubs of the school on Wednesday, December 17, at 8 p. m. The presentation is to be in the high school auditorium.

Solo parts will be sung by Lenora Ames, Elsie Eschbeck and Jean Crawford. There will be selections by a quartet: Gwen Sellers, Maxine Carson, Thelma Hubbard, Wanda Stafford and Helen Shive, selected from the elementary glee club, and a sextet consisting of Lenora Ames, Elsie Eschbeck, Gwen Sellers, Norma Mansfield, Janetta Stillings and Dorothy Fidler, from the advanced glee club. Miss Marjorie Mantle is accompanist for the group.

Proceeding the performance there will be several numbers by Mr. Harry Berrell's string ensemble and a flute solo by Lawrence Davie. The public is cordially invited and urged to attend.

Las Amigas Club At Moore Home

Mrs. Chesleigh O. Moore entertained members of the Las Amigas Bridge club at her home on Laguna street Tuesday afternoon. The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations.

Branched of huckleberry bushes provided greenery for the room. A centerpiece of red flowers accentuated by tall red tapers was placed on the table where luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Pete Mutschelbacher was awarded high score and Mrs. William Ahins second.

Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. H. E. Rookamp, Mrs. E. O. Ellingson, Mrs. Charles House Jr., and Mrs. D. R. Woodcock.

Mrs. James Welch will entertain the club at the next meeting, Tuesday, December 16, at her new home, 767 Roseway drive.

Outgoing and Incoming Officers

Mrs. A. Fred Glover, retiring Oracle, and Mrs. R. F. Hogue, newly elected Oracle of the Friendship Camp, Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. R. F. Hogue, newly elected Oracle of the Friendship Camp, Royal Neighbors.

Still Holds Office

Mrs. Bert Shuey, who has held the office of recorder in the Royal Neighbors lodge for the past five years, was re-elected to that position at the annual election of officers held last evening.

Merrill Library Club Met Thursday

MERRILL: The Merrill Library club was entertained at the home of Mrs. N. H. Bogus Thursday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the business meeting and program. Members attending were: Mesdames R. H. Anderson, Antio Anderson, T. A. Blake, Tom Chaburn, L. W. Burris, R. L. Dalton, W. C. Bailey, George Ady, Arthur Frazier, M. A. Bowman, E. C. Frazier, C. Bowman, B. F. Faus, L. E. Brown, George Frey, C. A. Barrows, John Guilson, M. A. Harterode, C. A. Brown, W. J. Briethaupt, K. C. Burkes, M. W. Howard, E. T. Crawford, H. J. Hendrickson, C. N. Haskins, J. R. Kidwell, R. Kattenhorn, E. G. McGreer, M. L. Moore, E. P. Merrill, Ray Merrill, W. F. Fruits, Hugh Falvey, J. L. Pope, Walter Robinson, J. C. Stevenson, James Scogins, Elmer C. Stukel, W. Walker, C. L. Wilson, N. H. Bogus and Miss Dorothy Hitchison.

Two new members, Mrs. A. W. Rhodes and Miss Margaret Turner, were initiated into the club, and two other members, Mrs. J. L. Fotheringham and Mrs. I. A. Bowers were reinstated.

Visitors at the club meeting were Mesdames Joe Stukel, P. D. Lee, Ben Wilson, A. W. Rhodes, Edwin Turner and R. G. Robinson.

Mary Thomas Given Costume Prize

General Canby chapter, Children of the American Revolution, gathered at the home of Mrs. Bert C. Thomas for an enjoyable meeting last Saturday afternoon.

The children all appeared in their quaint colonial costumes and the prize for the best costume was given to Mary Thomas. There were thirteen children in attendance.

Donations for Angel Island were taken at the meeting. Before the meeting was dismissed dainty refreshments were served.

Annual Christmas Tree Planned

The annual Christmas tree for the children and orphans of Odd Fellows and Prosperity Rebekah members will be held this year on Monday evening, December 22, in the west hall of the I. O. O. F. building. Members of the I. O. O. F. Boy Scout troop are also invited to attend on this occasion, it being the regular meeting night of the troop.

Pajamas in the Vagabond Mood

All in a vagabond mood are these gay pajamas of Irish linen, ready to go to Bermuda, Palm Beach, or to stay home and cheer. The flaring trousers are of a deep orange, with a stripe around the bottom of maize, white and brown. The pyjama blouse with its modish short sleeves is of white linen with the gay stripes of the orange of the trousers, plus the maize and brown. And to top it all there is a little sports beret of the white linen, with the top striped in orange, brown and maize.

Church Societies Give Christmas Entertainments.

Outstanding among the church social events during the past week was the program given at the Methodist church last evening, which honored the first anniversary of the new church building. The program was prepared under the direction of R. E. Patterson, choir leader, and consisted of instrumental and vocal music. R. E. Patterson and Asgodi Frigaard presented a vocal solo. R. E. Patterson and Mrs. Wallace Berling gave a clever musical skit, and members of the Lend-a-Hand society of the church participated in another skit. "The Romance of Piff Piff Land" was cleverly presented by Misses De Bock, Widmer and Fenwick. A large attendance was present.

A lovely Christmas party was held by members of the Episcopal guild and the parish hall Thursday afternoon, at which a large attendance was present. The party was in the fun. An exchange of gifts provided much amusement. At the close of the afternoon several of the guild members served dainty refreshments. A Christmas tree decorated the hall.

Parent-Teachers Associations Busy During Past Week

Of interest to parents and friends of the students of the Congregational church, Thursday afternoon at the Fairview school auditorium last evening.

The program: Christmas Carols—First Low Christmas Carols—Primary Dept. The Rooster Parade—First Low Acrobatic Dance—Bonita Duracha and Marie Daly.

Baritone solo—Dr. C. B. Casel Reading—Mrs. J. Palmer Musical comedy—Pupils of Mrs. Duracha's dancing school Nursery Toys—1st and 2nd Low Saxeite from Lucia Jean Harvey Spanish song and dance—Freda Sugarman

Vocal solo—Mrs. M. Wyman Jazz song and dance—Ruby Joseph Piano solo—Muriel Justin Buck Tap dance—Beth Price Acrobatic dance—Colleen Graham Darning song—Fourth Grade Recitation and dance—Marie Daly Saxophone and trombone duet—Glenn Scott, Richard Gillan Padoa—Bonita Duracha Hats of Other Days—Joseph Conser P. T. A.

The dancing numbers were given by the pupils of Mrs. Duracha's dancing school.

The Mills Parent-Teachers association benefit card party which was held at the school last evening will be given on Wednesday, December 17, it was recently announced.

MERRILL: Friday the Merrill Parent-Teachers association meeting was held at the Merrill high school building.

Several short talks were delivered by the teachers and at the close a silver tea was served. Mrs. J. Gray and Mrs. T. W. Welsh presided and served.

Members present were Mesdames F. W. Brown, H. N. Heaton, M. A. Bowman, W. F. Fruits, W. Walker, J. Whitlatch, R. F. Reasler, Gray, T. W. Welsh, P. D. Lee, and the teachers, Misses Margaret Turner and Dorothy Hutchins, Mrs. Davis and Messrs. H. J. Hendrickson, H. P. Blanton and Rev. Stanley Jewell.

Delphian Groups Will Meet Soon

Because of the Christmas holidays, the regular chapter meeting of the Delphian society in December will be omitted. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 13, at 2:15 p. m., when the groups will meet to discuss Greek mythology. Mrs. Lamm's group will meet with Mrs. H. M. Manning on North Eleventh street; Mrs. Zumwalt's group will meet with Mrs. H. E. Getz at her home on Pacific terrace.

The Evening class, under the leadership of Mrs. Rachel Good, will meet on Wednesday evening, December 15, at the home of Mrs. Sabo on Melrose.

Elks New Year's Eve Ball Planned

Of importance in the coming holiday social events will be the Elks Informal New Year's ball, to be given at the Elks temple on December 31. Elks and their ladies only are to attend. All visiting Elks are issued an invitation. Committees are working on plans for the event, which is expected to be the highlight of the holiday season, and they promise some unusual entertainment in the way of a program. The hall will be specially decorated for the occasion.

Past Matrons to Meet Friday

Aloha Past Matrons club will enjoy a pot-luck luncheon and Christmas tree on Friday, December 19, at the home of Mrs. Oscar Peyton on North Ninth street.

Mrs. Jennie Hurn and Mrs. William A. Jones will assist with the arrangements for the luncheon.

Each member is to bring a gift not to exceed 25 cents in value for the Christmas tree.

Mrs. C. L. Harvey, president, urges all members to attend.

Charter Members of Organization

Mrs. Mary Jorey and Mrs. Melissa Hammel, charter members of Friendship Camp, Royal Neighbors, are among the most prominent members of that organization. Both have attended every meeting held this year.

Business Women Take in New Members

Eleven women were initiated into the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club on Monday evening, when the initiatory degree and the emblem pageant were enacted in the club rooms of the public library.

The women who have now become members of the club include Lorabel Gordon, Moo's store; Mildred Clark, Moo's store; Ella Cummings, furrier; Irma Propst, stenographer; Grace Skinner, stenographer; Ida Nordoen, teacher; Madeline Lohr, nurse; Marie Obenchain, organist; Emilie Haldeaman, teacher; Sarah Woods, owner Men's Hand Laundry; Clara Simonson, teacher.

Those who took part in the pageant were Jean Porter, chairman; Leda Parker, Belle Fahnlander, Florence Dreher, Mary App, Bernice Eckstein, Thelma McAlpine and Florence Walker. Each woman represented a part of the emblem, which includes Nike of Samothrace, the torch, the ship, the scroll and the wand.

Mrs. Porter read the emblem collect as follows: "Give us, Oh God, a realization of what our emblem stands for."

"With its standards before us, may our lives be a little stronger and finer than yesterday."

"May we weed out a little more of the selfishness and greed that makes our lives petty."

"Help us to see the beauty of the golden circle that binds fifty thousand women to higher ideals in these United States."

"And, Oh Lord of Hosts, may we forget not the ideals of this symbol, the beauty of art, the need of knowledge, our responsibilities to the business world, the opportunity to uplift and the ever-increasing need to be kind."

Mrs. Parker, for the past two years president of the club, charged the women of their duties in becoming members of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, and also the local group which has many duties before it the coming year. Plans for civic and community projects are under way, headed by Mrs. Parker, and the club will launch an extensive program immediately after the first of the year.

Prior to the initiation dinner was served by women of the Christian church. The next meeting of the group will be Monday, December 22.

There will be no meeting of the book department of the Business and Professional Women's club until the third Thursday in January, the 15th. The place of meeting will be announced later. Russian books will be studied at this meeting.

Donations Taken For Angel Island

Eulaion chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, have sent a Christmas box to Angel Island each year. Mrs. Fred Schallack, chapter chairman of the Angel Island, is out of town, and in her absence Mrs. Warren Hunt, vice president, will receive donations and arrange for the shipment of the box.

Clear, wearable clothes, wool and cotton yarns, stamped embroidery goods with thread, towels, shoes, hose and remnant goods are among the contributions desired. The box must be mailed before Monday, December 15.

Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, chapter president, urges that all members of the chapter wish to donate send their articles to Mrs. Hunt before Monday.

Mooseheart Ladies Choose Officers

Members of Mooseheart met on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Moose hall for the election of officers, who were nominated on November 25, and the initiation of one new member.

New officers elected to serve during 1931 are Mrs. Edna Jensen senior regent, Mrs. Evelyn Bord junior regent, Mrs. Elsie Ilean chaplain, Mrs. Fannie Mae Thompson recorder, and Mrs. Nellie Lussomb treasurer. Other officers will be appointed by the honor regent following installation at the first meeting in January.

It was decided to have a Christmas party at the next meeting, December 23. Each member is requested to bring one gift, not to cost more than 25 cents, for a gift exchange. A pot luck luncheon will be held following lodge.

Eagles Auxiliary Met on Tuesday

The drill team club of the Eagles auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. A. C. Gibson, 2219 White avenue Tuesday afternoon.

The afternoon was spent doing fancy work, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Fourteen members and three visitors were present. Members were Mrs. C. D. Lone, Mrs. Clyde Thompson, Mrs. William Cameron, Mrs. J. J. Lewis, Mrs. G. Moseby, Mrs. L. Ponce, Mrs. J. A. Martin, Mrs. F. W. Burdette, Mrs. Harry Hyland, Mrs. I. B. Morrie, Mrs. Rose Sumpley and Mrs. Fred Madigan.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. George Wood.

Calendar

SUNDAY
Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church to meet in the church parlors at 6:30 p. m.

MONDAY
Mrs. R. C. Groomsbeck will entertain members of the Kedron club at her home at 7:30 p. m. Each member is to bring a toy for the Salvation Army.

TUESDAY
Lutheran church council at 7:30 p. m. in the church.

WEDNESDAY
Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold their Christmas party Wednesday evening, December 17, at Odd Fellows hall. Members and families are cordially invited. A program will be given, and will be followed by dancing. There will be no exchange of gifts.

Miss P. T. A. sponsoring benefit card party in the Mills auditorium at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

The evening class of Delphians will meet at the home of Mrs. Steve Sabo on Melrose. Subject: "Structure and Nature of Poetry."

FRIDAY
Past Matrons of Aloha chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Oscar Peyton for a pot-luck luncheon and Christmas tree. Meeting at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. F. B. Hogue Elected Oracle Of Royal Neighbors

Friendship camp, Royal Neighbors of America, held their regular election of officers Friday evening at the Moose hall. Mrs. A. Fred Glover, retiring oracle of the lodge, presided at the meeting.

Election of officers was held and the following selected:

Mrs. R. F. Hogue oracle, Mrs. Bert Knutson vice oracle, Mrs. B. E. Woolver chancellor, Mrs. G. M. Spots receiver, Mrs. Myers musician, Mrs. W. J. Heffer inner sentinel, Mrs. P. D. Marks outer sentinel, Mrs. Elizabeth Shaffer marshal.

Installation of officers will take place some time after the first of the year.

Mayor Bill Thompson thinks a raffle would put money in circulation, but Aloha people who expect something for nothing haven't any money left.

MOTHER Are your children's shoes in shape for school? —if not— Let Us Fix Them Up.

CONNOR'S Shoe Repair Shop
121 N. Eighth St.
Near Golden Rule Store

BE THRIFTY Make Your OWN GIFTS

We Carry a Full Line of Barilla Needlework. Also agents for Romilla Hosiery

ART & CRAFT SHOP
112 North Eighth Street.

Johnsons Entertain Informally at Home

Mrs. and Mr. Jim Johnson entertained informally at a family dinner at their home Thursday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Langer, Dorris, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Langer and Elmer Langer, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Propst and Lynn Propst.

ONE ENGINE A WEEK
LONDON—Twenty railway engines weighing 127 tons each have been turned out of a factory here at the rate of one a week.

YOU Are The Only One Who Can Give This Gift

Really surprise your friends or family this Christmas with your Photograph—the gift that is not in Santa's sack. Only you can give this gift and only this Christmas can you give a portrait of yourself as you are today. A few moments at our studio now will happily solve many a gift problem. Call—or phone—today.

May King Studio

The Powder Puff Christmas Special

Quart Permanent Wave
YOUR ENTIRE HEAD COMPLETE
$5.00
Shampoo and Finger Wave
$1.00

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
Morning Specials From 9 a. m. Until Noon
107 So. 7th Phone 796

Notice to the Public!

On Dec. 15, Dr. C. E. Jenkins will join his practice with that of Dr. Casel at 120 N. 7th St.

Dr. Jenkins will specialize in female trouble and piles.

Complete X-ray Laboratory in connection at a price you can afford to pay.

Emergencies are likely to arise at any time, and we have found it well to be prepared for them.

Hence we have four licensed embalmers available; as a matter of fact, we employ only licensed men.

One can readily see by what we have said that we can meet whatever demands might be made upon us for service. Whitlock service is thoughtful and complete.

EARL WHITLOCK FUNERAL HOME

"Distinctive Funeral Service"

PINE AVE. AT 6th ST.
PHONE 46