

DOZEN PLANES ROAR AWAY ON OCEANIC HOP

ORBETELLO, Italy, Dec. 17 (AP)—Twelve Italian seaplanes roared away from the calm surface of Lake Orbetello at 7:45 a. m. today (1:45 p. m. E. S. T.) and, striking into a heavy mist, headed for Cartagena, Spain, on the first lap of a projected trans-Atlantic flight to Rio de Janeiro.

Piloting the first of the planes was General Italo Balbo, Italian air minister and leader of the expedition, which in many ways represents the most ambitious trans-oceanic flight adventure ever attempted. Fifty-three other men comprised the officers and crew of the fascist air armada.

From Cartagena the airmen plan to fly down the Mediterranean and west African coast to a point near Dakar, Senegal, whence the expedition will take off on a 1,900 mile flight across the Atlantic to Natal, Brazil. From Natal they will strike out for Rio de Janeiro. It is planned eventually to sell the planes to the Brazilian government and to return home by ship.

Departure of the expedition followed a brief ceremony, witnessed by about 250 persons, in which the airmen stood at attention and sang the "Hymn of the Aviators," new Italian air service anthem. Then, taking off their hats, they raised their arms in the fascist salute and at General Balbo's order, "to your posts," repaired to the seaplanes.

General Balbo arose first in a black-winged plane emblematic of fascism, two similar machines following. Then came three other groups of three planes each, the first with white wings, the second with red wings, and the third with green wings, representing the Italian national colors. In the rear were two relief planes which may be substituted for any of the original 12 planes which may fall enroute.

The planes rose into the air at 20 second intervals. All headed northward first and then turned westward toward the open sea on the more than 7,000 mile trip to Cartagena. There was not a breath of air stirring although there was a heavy mist, nearly a drizzle. Weather reports after two days' postponement of the start, were favorable. The expedition expected to reach Cartagena before the early nightfall of this season.

CHIEF OF POLICE POUND GUILTY OF BOOZE CHARGE

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Dec. 17, (AP)—Ray M. Gant, Great Falls chief of police, was convicted today on conspiracy to violate the federal liquor laws. A jury in federal court found the chief, four fellow officers, and twenty other persons guilty. Gant was fined $1,000.

Local Elks Will Consider Various Matters Thursday

The last meeting of the B. P. O. Elks club before the Christmas season will be held Thursday, December 18, at 8 p. m. It was announced today by Floyd McMillan, secretary.

Initiation of new members will take place, followed by a banquet. Many things of importance are to come up for discussion in regard to the charity work which the Elks have outlined and all members are urgently requested to attend. Plans will also be discussed for the Elks New Year's ball December 31.

Klamath High School News Notes

BLANCHE O'NEILL
(High School Correspondent)

To create friendship between the junior and senior girls after the severe rivalry during recent contests, the junior girls entertained the senior girls with a program during activity period Tuesday, in the high school auditorium.

A skit, "Opal's Three Lovers," was presented by Kathryn Horbelt, Jean Crawford, Blanche Hayden and Thelma Hubbard. Dorothy Ackerman and Thelma Fossum presented a tap dance. "Here Comes the Sun" and "Three Little Words" were sung by Marie Sewell and Verna Iretson. Allison Barnes gave a reading, "Jake's Correcting." At the close of the program Paul T. Jackson, principal, expressed his appreciation for the entertainment.

The program was in charge of Allison Barnes.

Trees Decorate Rooms

Almost every room in the Klamath Union high school has a decorated Christmas tree with a pile of clothes, toys and food beneath it, donated by the students for the Salvation Army. The Pepp Peppers have charge of this work, and report that the students have entered the spirit of the affair whole heartedly.

Lewis Clark, civics teacher, and his home room are donating 20 sacks of potatoes.

The donations will be turned over to the Salvation Army in the near future.

Course in Etiquette

Instructions in proper etiquette at informal teas being given every Wednesday afternoon by the girls' league of the high school. A senior girl with a member from each class serves tea in the women teachers' room, which is attractively decorated with flowers, to the faculty members. Cleverly designed invitations are issued to the faculty members, who wear them during the day. Jean Frazier is chairman of the faculty tea committees.

"This innovation is deeply appreciated by all members of the faculty," Paul T. Jackson, principal, stated, "and I want to congratulate the girls' league on its good work."

Wishing Ring Would Be Best

Dear Santa Claus
How are you? I do wish for a great many things but I hope you don't care. It seems that a wishing ring would be best. Because I could give every body something for Xmas. I would wish that all the boys and girls were happy the whole year. If you cannot give me that I would like these: Doll, ball, book, games, skates, dishes, table, chair, and many other things but I must close.

Writes Real Poetry

Dear Santa
I often wondered if there was a Santa until I wrote a note to you on Xmas and it was answered. There are many expensive things I wish for but most of all I want a watch and some ice skates.

I hope I win a watch by these three poems I made up.

"What Xmas Brings"

Christmas brings toys
Toys bring joys
Joys bring happiness to girls
And boys
Boys and girls bring lots of noise.

"What Might Happen"

Oh Boy! Christmas is near!
But sometimes I almost fear
That I've been a bad boy
And he wont bring me even one toy.

Jolly Santa

Oh! Santa is very jolly
For to me he brings lots of toys
Once some candy and a doll
But never a toy to a bad girls or boys

I hope you can read my writing. Sincerely yours
Peery Constanas

Likes Music Best of All

Dearest Santa
I am nine years old and in the 4th grade I would like most of all to have most of all some new music sheets as I haven't had any for a long time. I used to take music lessons but dont any more Daddy says times are to hard now and I must wait until this summer.

I would like my music to be Smas cords if you have any more left.

I sure hope you have for Ive tried to be a good girl and I love music better than anything. I practice and play every night when I get home from school. I want to be a music teacher when I get big.

Please bring my baby sister something to. she will soon be one year old. We moved here
