Figures in Washington 'Phantom Death' Case

GOOD OLD DAYS

LONDON.—Victorian etiquette and dress of those days had it all over the present freedom of manners and dress, in the opinion of Hon. How Weak Nervous Women Grow Stronger

Feel Better, Look Younger and Have Steadier Nerves

If you only knew—you run-down, anemic women—who are dragging yourself around on your "nerves"—what a wonderful increase in strength and health Tanlac will give you. You wouldn't hesitate a moment about going to your druggist and getting a big bottle of this splendid medicine. Mrs. Dora Robillard, of Belknap, Mass., R. F. D. 1, Box 17, says: "I had no digestion nor appetite. Sick headaches laid me up in bed three days at a time. I couldn't even do light housework. Now I do all our cooking and washing in addition to the other work."

Tanlac is as free from harmful drugs as the water you drink—only Nature's own medicinal tonic herbs. Druggists know this and for the past 19 years have recommended it to men and women who need a quick "pick-up" that will put them on their feet and give them a new interest in life.

So confident are the makers of Tanlac that if you are not helped by it, you get your money back on request.
