LIGHT AND DARK MEET

Today In Klamath's Theatres

AT THE PELICAN
Nancy Carroll's first starring picture, "Slightly Scarlet," now showing at the Pelican theatre is a story of intense love and gripping adventure. In a South Sea island locale, the suspense makes for unusual suspense, however.

NANCY CARROLL
in "Slightly Scarlet"
A Paramount Picture

Paul Lukas, the graceful sophisticated, is seen in "Slightly Scarlet" in another of those delightful men's roles which bids him to be popular with film audiences everywhere. And laughter-provoking Eugene Pallette struts and booms in dress clothes. The cast includes Henry Wadsworth, the sailor in "Applause"; Morgan Farley, seen with George Bancroft in "The Mighty"; Virginia Bruce, a beautiful blonde recently placed under contract by Paramount.

Also, a separate bill for the finishing of the dam at Astoria, according to plans and specifications on file with the secretary.

Proposals for said work when made by a corporation must be signed by the legally authorized officers of the corporation, and all bids must be accompanied by a certified check or bidder's bond, payable to the order of the secretary of the district, in at least 5 per cent of the amount of the bid or proposal.

The board of supervisors reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Done by order of the board of supervisors this 10th day of January, 1931.

C. R. DE LAP, Secretary.
