PRESIDENT OF ARMOUR FALLS TO HIS DEATH

CHICAGO, Jan. 16 (AP)—The career of F. Edson White, multimillionaire who worked his way up from the ranks to the presidency of Armour and Company, packers, was ended last night in a seven-story fall from a window of a bedroom in his north-side home.

His neck was broken and many bones fractured. His death, Deputy Coroner F. J. Dwyer and P. L. Reed, treasurer of Armour and Company, said, was an accident.

Reed, who was expected to testify today at a coroners inquest, expressed belief that a fall White suffered last Wednesday night when he arose to address company employees at a dinner, was responsible for the accident. He believed the previous accident caused White to become dizzy and lose his balance last night.

Reed said White's financial affairs were in excellent shape and there was no reason why he should take his life. His statement the death was an accident was concurred in by the deputy coroner.

White was chosen president of Armour and Company in 1923 after a humble beginning as a car checker from which he was promoted district manager, later director, then vice-president, and finally president. He succeeded Philip D. Armour III, when the latter retired.

He was born in Peoria, Ill., September 9, 1873 and began his career as a packer in 1890, with only a common school education as his background. His first job was with his father in the cattle business in Peoria. From Peoria he went to San Francisco where he won rapid advancement with the Western Meat company before coming to Chicago.

SUIT FILED

Suit was filed in circuit court today by Jacob and Gile Inc., a corporation versus Walter C. Krause Corporation. The amount of money named in the suit is $577.21, alleged due on merchandise purchased by the defendants. Thaddeus W. Veness, Portland attorney, and Henry E. Peckius, local lawyer, represent the plaintiffs.

Commission Reinstates Accountant

NEW YORK, Jan. 16, (AP)—For the first time in her native country Rosa Ponselle essayed today the difficult role of Violetta in Verdi's opera "La Traviata." The role has been prized by many famous sopranos—Patti, Tetrazzini, Melba, Hempel, Galli-Curci, Farrar, Sembrich and Bori among them, but Miss Ponselle, who was born in Meriden, Conn., has sung only once before. That was in London last spring. Her appearance in it this afternoon was at the Metropolitan opera house.

The first Violetta was Savini Donatelli at the La Fenice theater in Venice in 1853. She was more than portly, and in the last act when the doctor announced she was dying of consumption the audience burst into prolonged laughter. But today the opera rivals "Il Trovatore" in popularity.

IN THE SAME BOAT
"Please, sir, will you give me something? Just imagine how terrible it is to be outcast from human society, and also to be hated by everyone!"
"I won't give you anything,"

I'm an income-tax collector, myself!"—Der Lustige Sachse, Leipzig.
