

NEWS IN BRIEF

Stovall Still Band Leader—

A misleading report made yesterday stated that Harry Stovall had been engaged in the musical department of the high school and that Stovall, band leader, has been transferred to the general science department. Stovall is still band leader but volunteered to teach a class in general science since he was the only man available for that class. "Harry Stovall has taken over the orchestra work because of the increased enrollment due to incoming freshmen which necessitated a class for them," Mr. Jackson stated. Stovall's work with the band has been outstanding this year.

Dance is 28th—

Contrary to the previous announcement made several days ago, stating that the Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen dance would be January 20th, the dance is to be held January 21st. Extensive preparations are already being made for the affair. The entire Moore hall will be turned over to the two organizations and the downstairs will be occupied by the young set who care for the modern dances while those wishing to indulge in old fashioned dances will find room upstairs.

Make Plans For Annual Duck Dinner

Members of the Klamath Sportsman's association held last night in the chamber of commerce rooms.

Officers nominated were: O. D. Matthews, and A. M. Collier, president; Tom Amersau, vice president; W. W. Southwell, secretary; Paul Winters, treasurer; and Walter Wisendanger, W. E. Lamm, Clifford A. Dunn, George Hoffman, Dr. W. R. Boyd, Gus Krause, and Elmer Balseger, directors (three to be elected).

The annual duck feed will be held Wednesday evening at 6:30 in the basement of the Methodist church. Ducks for the event will be furnished free of charge by the association but the association is asking the sportsmen and their ladies who attend to assist in defraying the expenses of the banquet for which an elaborate menu is being prepared to accompany the ducks. Tickets for the feed were placed on sale today at hardware stores and sporting goods houses.

Following the banquet pictures of fish and game will be shown. The menu consists of shrimp cocktail, fruit salad, duck with dressing and cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, peas, celery, olives, pickles, rolls and butter, coffee, ice cream and wafers.

The duck feed is one of the three annual feeds put on by the association. Spring is marked by the fish fry, fall by the venison feed and winter by a duck feed.
