

NEWS IN BRIEF

Left for Ashland.—Harry D. Holvin, city attorney, and Russell Crandall left this afternoon for Ashland, where Mr. Holvin will attend the joint meeting of Southern Oregon Elks lodges as an officer of the Klamath lodge. Mr. Crandall expects to transact business in Ashland and Medford. They will probably return home this evening.

Fog Halts Tourists.—More than the usual number of guests registered at local hotels Wednesday night on account of the dense fog, which made motor travel hazardous. Among Klamath Falls residents here on Wednesday night were: O. H. Dean, C. H. Piper, Carl Steinbocker, Bill Hunt, Carl Knutsen, Carl Hiltner, M. E. Garnett and F. Herriott.—Grants Pass Courier.

Invite Lakeview Masons.—Klamath lodge A. F. & A. M. No. 77 have invited Masons of Lakeview to be their guests at the dance February 12, in the local Masonic hall. The local Masons assisted by the Eastern Star social club are making plans for a large crowd at their dance. All Masons, visiting Masons, Eastern Stars and De Molay boys are invited to attend.

School Girls' Club Met.—The Pioneer School Girls' club met at the president's home, Mrs. Will Wood's, on Pacific terrace. Games were played until a late hour, and old times talked over. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Riggs Returns to Klamath.—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Riggs have returned to their home in Klamath Falls from California, where they spent the past week in San Francisco and Marysville on business.

Moved to Portland.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, who formerly resided near Merrill, have moved to Portland to make their future home. Mr. Brown has accepted a position with the Fairbanks-Morse company in the northern city.

Banker Here.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Arthur of Lakeview are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard of Mills addition. Mr. Arthur is president of the Commercial National bank of Lakeview, and the Intermediate Credit corporation.

Rex Lawson in Portland.—Rex Lawson, who was recently appointed representative for this district for the Western Cattle company, is in Portland at the present time, and is expected home in the near future.

Returned Home.—Mrs. James O'Neill, Merrill matron who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis here, has returned to her home at Merrill, and is rapidly gaining strength.

Andersons Are Back.—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson of Merrill have returned from San Francisco, where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Anderson's brother, S. E. Martin.

Returned from Visit.—Mrs. W. F. Fruits and son Gordon have returned from a visit with Mrs. Fruits' parents at San Jose, Calif.

Returned from Hospital.—Mrs. L. W. Burris of Merrill returned to her home this week from the Medical Empire sanitarium at Klamath Falls, greatly improved.

Sheepman Here.—Ivan Cain, prominent sheepman of Medford, spent Friday in Klamath Falls.

PELICAN

LAST SHOWING TODAY

The Drama of a Carnival Girl Who Dared All For Love!

Mary Nolan

"YOUNG DESIRE"

PINE TREE

LAST SHOWING TODAY

With his back against the wall he used his wits and fists to bring to justice one of the blackest bands of crooks who ever hid in the hills. See him battle his way to glory at the rodeo! See him ride and fight and race to bring the bad men to justice. . . HE'S GREAT!

Hoot Gibson

"SPURS"

RAINBOW

LAST SHOWING TODAY

Gary Cooper

and Fay Wray

"THE TEXAN"

Character Close-Ups

Clarence Coon Resigns.—Clarence Coon, member of the Klamath Falls police department for the past three and one-half years and one of the best known and best liked policemen in the city, has tendered his resignation from the force to Chief Stanley Jones, effective February 6.

Judge Corkins Coming.—Judge O. M. Corkins of Lakeview will arrive in Klamath Falls Monday morning, according to an announcement made today by Lloyd DeLap, clerk of the circuit court. Judge Corkins will confer with local attorneys and act in several criminal and civil matters.

Motors to Portland.—A. L. Leavitt left this morning for Portland, where he will spend several days on a business and pleasure trip. Judge Leavitt accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson to the northern city.

Medford Visitors.—J. C. Boyle of Medford, assistant manager of the California Oregon Power company, and Porter J. Neff, Medford attorney, were in Klamath Falls today, attending a meeting of water users.

Purchase Property.—J. P. Fassington of Chemult, has completed the purchase of property in this city belonging to Dr. R. R. Hamilton of Portland. The deal was consummated thru the office of Ida B. Momyer.

San Francisco Visitor.—J. W. Van Doren of San Francisco is a week and visitor in Klamath Falls, at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. A. Barnum, 16 Waring street.

Mrs. Emmitt in Portland.—Mrs. R. J. Emmitt and three daughters, who reside in the Alameda apartments, have gone to Portland for a brief visit with friends and relatives.

Visiting Relatives.—Miss Lillian Scofield of Berkeley, Calif., is spending a two-weeks' vacation with relatives and friends in this city.

Returns From Portland.—Frank Schmitz, Beatty merchant, returned Friday night from Portland, where he transacted business.

Returned to Grants Pass.—F. L. Vannice and Frank Mashburn have returned to their home at Grants Pass, after a brief business visit in Klamath Falls.

Ranchers Visit.—John Link, from the west side of Tule Lake, from Victor Shuch, from the east side, were business visitors in Klamath Falls on Friday.

Chiloquin Shoppers.—Mrs. H. A. Radke and daughter Miss Bernice, of Chiloquin, were shoppers in this city on Friday.

Portland Visitor.—L. M. Brainard, representative of the World Fire and Marine Insurance company, is a business visitor in Klamath Falls.

Spending Week With Mother.—Miss Ruth Eads of Klamath Falls is spending a few days this week with her mother, Mrs. Vesta Martin, near Grants Pass.

KELLEMS WILL END MEETINGS

Tomorrow is to be the last Sunday of the series of big meetings at the First Christian church which has been continuing for four weeks under the leadership of the Kellems Brothers Evangelistic party of New York and Seattle. The campaign will not officially close until Wednesday night but tomorrow will be the last Sunday. At the morning hour Dr. Kellems will preach on the theme "The Soldier of the Cross" and at the evening service on "The Unpardonable Sin." It is expected that the meetings will be well attended. This is one of Dr. Kellems' most famous sermons and has won thousands of people to Christianity around the world.

The Kellems party has made thousands of friends while in Klamath Falls. People of all the churches have taken part in the meetings and have been greatly impressed by Dr. Kellems' expositions of the great Bible themes. For above everything this scholarly preacher of the Gospel is a teacher. He believes in dignity in his services but at the same time there is a fine humor which makes the meetings bright and interesting from the very first word. Mr. Homer Kellems, not only with his preaching as well but by his leading of the music has endeared himself to the people of our city.

A large attendance has been planned for the Bible school tomorrow and all in all it is expected that this will be the greatest day of the entire meeting.

Wednesday night Dr. Kellems will give his illustrated lecture on "South Africa."

Bryant Williams, Local Student, on State Committee

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 31.—Bryant Williams, junior in agriculture, of Klamath Falls, has just been elected chairman of the Greater Oregon State committee. This is a committee of students which guides the policy of the student body in its relationship with high schools and home activities. The chairmanship is one of the most important offices in the entire student body.

Bryant was unanimously selected without the formality of an election, since no one was nominated to oppose him. He is also prominent in other activities. He is president of Kappa Delta Rho, national social fraternity, and treasurer of the Delta club. He was a member of the Pep committee, and is now circulation manager of the Beaver, yearbook of the Oregon State students.

PORTLAND MANSUET IN FACING PENITENTIARY.—VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 31. (AP)—Facing a minimum sentence of ten years in state prison, Waino B. Maki, Portland man, was convicted last night in superior court here of second degree murder. He was tried for the killing of Andrew Hendrickson, aged resident of the Hockinson district near here. Hendrickson was beaten to death. The jury was out five hours.

DEEDS

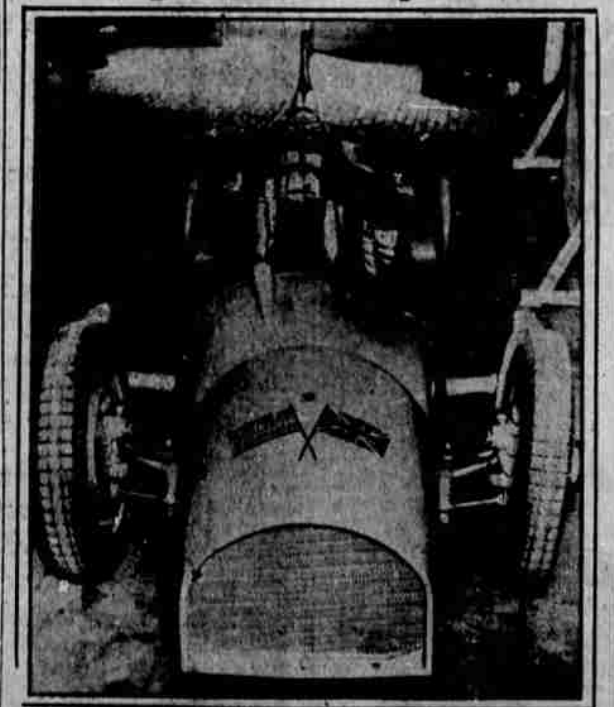

West Coast National Bank of Portland to the Navarro Oil company, properties described in the instrument of transfer.

Viola L. Dunbar to John S. Elliott, lot 13, block 41, Hot Springs addition.

A. J. Simmers et ux and C. R. McClellan et ux to Eugene Hamilton, properties described in the instrument of transfer.

John S. Elliott and Grace N. Siler et vir and John L. Elliott et ux to Viola Dunbar, lot 5, block 47, Hot Springs addition.

Challenger for Land Speed Record

Here is a striking view of the stream-lined 12-cylinder automobile which Capt. Malcolm Campbell, noted British race driver, hopes to push to a record-breaking speed of more than 231 miles an hour at Daytona Beach, Fla. Note the cooling device at the front, the small cockpit, and the knife-like rudder in the rear. Captain Campbell, back called for the United States with the car, which has been christened the Bluebird.

SOCIETY

Mooseheart Women Met on Tuesday

The Women of Mooseheart Legion met Tuesday evening at the Moose hall, with all elected officers present.

Newly elected senior regent, Mrs. James Jensen, appointed the committee chairman for the year. She also outlined a very active program for the chapter this year. Committee chairmen named were as follows: Mrs. Bert Thompson, publicity; Mrs. Geo. Ogilvie, sick and relief work for members; Mrs. E. A. Mann, social service; Mrs. Helen Hewitt, past senior regent, civil service. The duties of the civil service committee is to confer and to co-operate through the lodge with other civic bodies in the city, especially with reference to child welfare work.

After the regular order of business the lodge closed, to meet again on Tuesday evening, February 19, at the Moose hall. At the close of that meeting a pot luck luncheon will be served to members and husbands present.

Book Section To Meet Monday

The book section of the women's library club will meet Monday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock in the library club rooms at which time Mrs. Fred Rueck will present the program.

Mrs. Rueck will review "Mahatma Gandhi," by R. C. Marsh, which will be assisted by Mrs. E. F. Josephson who will read a paper on the non-cooperative movement in India. Reviews of recent magazine articles on India will also be given during the afternoon.

Three Hostesses At Wednesday Club

Three charming young society matrons, Mrs. Paul W. Foster, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas and Mrs. Fred Pope Jr., were hostesses this week to members of the Wednesday club, who met at the St. Paul Episcopal parish hall Wednesday evening.

The hall was made cozy with the addition of many beautiful lamps, which cast a soft glow over the rooms. There were ten tables of cards in play.

Happy Hour Club At H. E. Jones Home

Mrs. H. E. Jones was hostess Tuesday afternoon to members of the Happy Hour club who gathered at her home at 814 Lincoln.

No-Hostess Luncheon at Hotel

A no hostess luncheon was enjoyed by members of the Aloha Past Matrons club at the Willard Hotel at one o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Ella McMillan and Mrs. J. F. Penrod were in charge of arrangements and had the table charmingly decorated with a centerpiece of pink carnations. Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Mae R. Baisler, Mrs. Sadie Holloway, Mrs. Cecil Givens of Danvers and Mrs. H. W. Withrow, Mrs. Baisler, Mrs. Holloway and Mrs. Withrow were admitted into the membership of the club.

Ladies Aid Met At Dalton Home

MERRILL.—The monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid was held at the Dalton home Wednesday afternoon, January 21. Mrs. R. L. Dalton and Mrs. L. E. Brown were co-hostesses at the occasion an enjoyable afternoon was spent by all present.

The following members were in attendance: Mesdames C. A. Barrows, M. A. Blawie, H. J. Beardsley, T. A. Blake, H. P. Blanton, H. O. Cox, Anna Dewey, Arthur Frazier, M. Hartlerode, Frank Hunsaker, W. E. Hill, W. P. Jinnette, J. B. Kidwell, P. D. Lewis, M. L. Moore, G. W. Orfield, J. W. Scoggins, J. C. Stevenson, H. F. Tolle, E. G. McGreer and J. W. Taylor.

Mills P. T. A. Give Card Party

The Mills Addition Parent-Teachers association held a benefit card party, another of their series, January 31, in the school auditorium. Prizes were awarded as follows: Pinchols, Mrs. P. W. Sayles, F. S. Perry, five hundred, Melba De Bord, Ben J. Dalton, bridge, Emilie Haldeman, E. F. Pollock. After cards and delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. E. L. Mitchell and Mrs. B. Z. Smith were in charge of the event.

Mrs. O. O. Nichols Honors Friends

Mrs. O. O. Nichols proved a charming and gracious hostess when she entertained a group of school teachers at her beautiful home on Lakeshore drive Saturday evening.

Guests were Billie McCall, Gladys Rice, Mr. Hynek, Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. Thorne, Florence Ollman, Hazel Holboko and the hostess.

Missionary Society Installs Officers

The Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held their first social and business meeting of the year on January 22 at the church, Eighth and Washington streets. About twenty-five members were present. Mrs. Waive Hunsaker was installed as new president, Mrs. McCluskey, vice president; Mrs. Hornsby, secretary; Mrs. George Welch, missionary treasurer and Mrs. J. P. Hershberger, general treasurer. At the close of the afternoon the new officers served refreshments.

Twenty Six Tables Of Cards in Play

Twenty six tables of cards were in play at the Rebekah card party given Thursday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall, which proved to be a successful affair. Money desired will be placed in the fund for the degree team to make the trip to the state convention at Corvallis.

High score was won by Mrs. Walter West and low by Kenneth Smith, bridge. Miss Wynne Brotherton took high score for five hundred and Mr. Dalheim, low.

Eulalona Chapter Meeting Monday Eve

Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet in regular session Monday evening, February 2, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, with Mrs. Joseph E. Ewing as assistant hostess.

Mrs. Walter Locke Is Named Hostess

At this week's meeting of the St. Rita club, at which Mrs. Martin McAndrews presided as hostess, Mrs. Gary Cozad won first prize, Mrs. O. J. Johnson second and Mrs. Kents consolation.

Delphians Have Interesting Meet

An interesting program on Greek Myths was given at Tuesday's meeting of Delta Gamma chapter, Delphians, held at the library club rooms. The program follows:

1. Gods of the Fruitful Search. (Supervisor's summary) Mrs. Don Zumwalt
2. Poseidon and the Creator of the Sea.
3. Delights of the Winds. Mrs. George Cunningham
4. Songs—(a) The Heart of a Rose, Elinor Remick Warren. (b) Glorietta (Italian street song). Mrs. Marjorie Olds
5. The Delights of Darkness (President's summary).
6. The Twelve Labors of Hercules: (a) The First Six Tasks, Mrs. H. R. Harrison; (b) The Remaining Labors, Mrs. W. H. Robertson.

Engagement Is Announced

The engagement of Miss Gladys Svensson of Everett, Wash., and F. O. Parker, who is a member of the new Parker-McGinnis Funeral home of this city, was announced in Corvallis Sunday.

Miss Svensson, who is teaching in the college city, is a graduate of Oregon State college, and is affiliated with the Kappa Delta sorority, where the engagement of the young couple was announced early Sunday morning.

B. C. Grigsby's Birthday Feted

Honoring the birthday anniversary of B. C. Grigsby, prominent Klamath county resident, a number of pioneer residents and old friends of Mr. Grigsby were entertained Monday evening by Mrs. O. L. Brown, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. Henry Grimes and Mrs. William Sanders at the home of Mrs. Ida Grimes in Hot Springs addition.

Hamaker, of Bonanza, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, Mesdames Laura Chamberlain, Addie Walker, Charrion Johnson, Frances Boyd, Nellie Summers, J. B. Griffith, Ed Probst, Miss Mary Walker and H. R. Dunlap.

Assign Duncan To Morrow's Duties

Chief Justice R. E. Bean has assigned Judge William Duncan to the Portland bench of Judge Morrow, who is absent from his bench until February 15, it was announced yesterday by Lloyd DeLap, clerk of the circuit court, after word was received from Portland. On February 16, Judge O. M. Corkins of Lake county will take Judge Morrow's bench.

During Judge Duncan's absence Judge Corkins will attend to the judicial work in Klamath county.

ENGLISH GIRLS FLEE BATTLE ABBEY SCHOOL

HASTINGS, Eng., Jan. 31. (AP)—One hundred twenty girls of the exclusive Battle Abbey school fled before dawn today from a dormitory which was destroyed by fire. No one was injured but the historic Battle Abbey, part of Battle Abbey, dating back to William the Conqueror, was destroyed.

The hall stood at the reputed spot where Harold was slain by the troops of William the Conqueror during the invasion of 1066.

THAT WAS NO TOY—

He: I spotted you bathing this morning with your rubber hippopotamus.

She: Pardon me, but that was my mother.—Passing Show.

Forbes' Drug Moved To 6th and Klamath

WILLIAM POWELL Shadow of the Law

Two gorgeous women! One wants his money, the other his love! And the law wants his life! Who wins? See and hear.

RAINBOW Sunday and Monday

Two Burn to Death As Autos Collide

BALTIMORE, Jan. 31 (AP)—Returning from a dance at a downtown hotel, two young men were burned to death early today in a fire that followed the collision of their automobile and another.

afterward as John C. Hager, 21, and Frederick Schreier. The collision occurred at a street intersection and was witnessed by Patrolman Charles Fields. He said the burned car burst almost immediately into flames and that he and another officer were kept at bay by burning gasoline until after firemen arrived.

Empire Hotel
538 MAIN
Next to American Bank
Clean Rooms Reasonable Rates
In Center of Business District
Special Rates to Permanent Guests
Mrs. Lena Noel

PINE TREE SUNDAY and MONDAY

THE MERRY ADVENTURES OF GOOFY GOBS WHO GO DOWN TO THE SEA IN GONDOLAS
WARNER BROS. present
OH SAILOR BEHAVE!
with OLSEN and JOHNSON
America's Funniest Comedy
CHARLES KING — IRVING DELROY — LOWELL SHERMAN — NOAH BERRY — LOTTI LINDER. From the stage play by Elmer Rice. Adaptation and Dialogues by Joseph Kohn. Directed by Archie Mayo.

PELICAN Sunday and Monday
Into the Rough! And onto the Fairway! And America's Boy-Friend and the Sweetheart of the Screen! On a laugh-making, love-making, joy-riot! Golf! Girls! Grins! And Glorious Romance!
"FOLLOW THRU"
WITH CHARLES ROGERS NANCY CARROLL ZELMA O'NEAL JACK HALEY
A SCHWAB MANDEL PRODUCTION
A Paramount Picture
Filmed Entirely in Technicolor