

TWO SLAYERS COME TO END OF THE TRAIL

PENDLETON, Ore., Feb. 13 (AP)—Traced across the continent for two months by a Tennessee sheriff, two alleged murderers were under arrest in the Pacific Northwest today. They are John Eddington and Hugh Bowen, charged with slaying W. R. Kingston near Chickamauga, Ga., December 13 last. Eddington was captured at Helix, Ore., near here last night and Bowen was arrested at Centralia, Wash.

Under the personal direction of Sheriff Charles C. Taylor, of Chattanooga, Tenn., local sheriff's officers watched Eddington for several days. When he was arrested last night letters found on him revealed Bowen's whereabouts and he was arrested at Centralia. Sheriff Taylor left a short time later to take him into custody. Eddington was held here.

Eddington and Bowen allegedly killed Kingston to collect $10,000 insurance money carried by Bowen, Sheriff Taylor said. He said that after reportedly murdering Kingston the two mutilated his face with shot-grenade fire in order to destroy his identity. Then they allegedly dressed the body in Bowen's clothes, placed Bowen's insurance papers in the pockets and left the body on a roadside near Chickamauga.

The two disappeared, Taylor said, and hoped to collect the insurance through Bowen's brother, Frank, who was named beneficiary. Taylor said Frank Bowen had been under surveillance at Chattanooga and that he had ordered his arrest.

Eddington last night signed waiver of extradition on a grand larceny charge brought against him for alleged theft of an automobile.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 13. (AP)—Word from Oregon was awaited today by police investigators seeking to establish the identity of an aged man, found slain and buried in a wood near Memphis.

Information sent in a telegram sent to Mrs. E. F. Marlin at Pendleton, Ore., was expected to aid in determining whether the dead man was William Parnell, a war veteran who left the United States Soldiers Home at Johnson City, Tenn., February 10 last. Mrs. Marlin is a sister of Parnell.

The body was found Wednesday night buried under three feet of earth. The skull had been crushed. The position of the body led investigators to believe that he was killed elsewhere and carried to the woods.

ROBERT MONTGOMERY and BENNY RUBIN in "LOVE IN THE ROUGH" comes from the Pacific Coast that the making of "Love in the Rough" was more fun than work. Charles F. (Chuck) Reiser, who directed the musical comedy romance from the play, "Spring Fever," is said to have made his company feel as though they were on a vacation, devoting several weeks to the hilarious golf links sequence which kept the players in close touch with their favorite pastime. Since the picture is based upon a golf story, it was only natural that players who follow the game were chosen.

Heading the cast of the production which will open today at the Pelican theatre, is Robert Montgomery, whose rise to film fame within a year is regarded as little short of amazing, and who, rumor has it, will shortly be rewarded with stardom. Other players include Dorothy Jordan, recently seen opposite Ramon Novarro in "Call of the Fish," Benny Rubin, Dorothy McNulty, J. C. Nugent, Catherine Moylan, Tyrrell Davis, Allan Lane, Roscoe Ates, Edwards Davis and Harry Burns.

Report has it that the interpolation of the musical sequences out-of-doors was particularly cleverly handled, especially a golf forenoon which executes song-and-dance routines on the greens. The musical score, written by Dorothy Fields and Jimmy McHugh includes seven new song numbers played by the Biltmore Hotel orchestra.

AT THE PINE TREE

Heading the list of the coming attractions at the Pine Tree Theatre is First National's melodrama hit, "The Widow from Chicago," which begins its engagement today.

The picture is entitled to be labeled "all-star," including as it does Edward G. Robinson, Nell Hamilton, Frank McHugh and Alice White.

Nell Hamilton plays opposite Miss White, in an interesting role that ends by making him a hero though he just escapes the villain class. The love story is said to be very original, and don't get the idea that Nell is killed off to justify the title. Alice only pretends to be "The Widow from Chicago."

Outstanding in the cast is the figure of Edward G. Robinson, who created the unforgettable gangster role in the sissy version of "The Racket." He portrays an entirely different type of gangster, one more human, subtle and realistic in "The Widow from Chicago."

Even in smaller roles are such well-known players as Betty

AT THE RAINBOW

Seven leading men support Clara Bow in her latest talking picture, "True to the Navy." Fredric March heads the group of romantically-inclined sailors who pursue the lively redhead afloat and ashore. "True to the Navy" is now showing at the Rainbow. March was Miss Bow's favorite in "The Wild Party."

His rivals in "True to the Navy" include Eddie Dunn, Rex Bell, Eddie Fetherston, Macarney.

SLAKES AND JOBLESS

SYDNEY, Australia—The unemployment situation in Australia is somewhat relieved by snake hunting expeditions. Those out of work are earning a living by hunting and selling snakes. The brightly marked skins are dried and sold to tanners, and the skeletons are made into necklaces and sold. The skeletons, when dried, resemble ivory.

Locate Mutilated Currency Stolen In Station Holdup

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (AP)—The mutilated currency stolen by thugs early yesterday in the Union station was discovered by police today in an up-town alley.

The three registered mail pouches in which the worthless pieces of money were being shipped from the federal reserve bank in New York to the treasury here were not located. The bills, worth $507,000 had they been whole, were wrapped in 11 bundles and found near 14th and T streets, N. W. In another alley nearby, police found several packages of shotgun shells, from which the shot had been extracted and steel slugs inserted. They continued the search for the three or four robbers believed involved in the crime, hoping to connect the abandoned money and the shells.

"Well, sir," said Jones, "I would, but the fact is that I don't get as much as that."—Tit-Bits.
