

Thirty Rounds Boxing at Merrill Tuesday Night

SEVERAL NEW BOXERS WILL BE IN ACTION

Thirty rounds of boxing will be held on the card by Matchmaker Joe Bickerstaff under the auspices of The Union Post of the American Legion at Merrill Tuesday evening. Which of the six-round events will top the card will not be known until Tuesday evening, when numbers will be drawn from a hat deciding which is to be the top line, and the order in which the other four bouts are to follow.

Many new boxers to the ring fans of this district will be seen in action and among them are several who have impressive knockout records, which promise a evening of real fistic excitement.

Heavyweights.
Jess Holloway, 6 feet and 3 inches and weight 200, age 21, will meet Tiny McCumber, 6 feet and 6 inches and weight 210, age 24 years. Both have won many battles by knockouts. Holloway, former University of Oregon student, is from The Dalles. In his two years of fighting Holloway has become popular in The Dalles and last Tuesday he knocked out Heebe, Portland, in less than two rounds.

Mr. Elmer Huston, The Dalles meat market owner, who is building a meat packing plant here, gives Holloway a fine send-off. McCumber recently disposed of his opponent, Chuck Martville in less than two rounds.

Light-weights.
Another The Dalles popular fighter, Cliff Sparr, comes here well recommended with five straight one-round knockouts. He is also a former University of Oregon student and according to fight critics has the makings of a fine fighter. Beautifully built, this athlete tips the beam at 170 pounds of solid beef. He meets a veteran in Jess DeMott, the Merrill spud grower.

Johnny Jackson, Modoc Point Indian, and Tuffy Hansen, The Dalles butcher boy, may steal the show, for they are the same type of aggressive fighters and both hit hard. "Tuffy" has eight knockouts to his credit in his last 15 fights in The Dalles. They are lightweights.

Rematch Made.
Frankie Munroe, Lakeview, and Jack Kirk, colored, Klamath Falls, by popular demand mix in a six-round return match. In the Lakeview card they fought hard for the entire six rounds.

Jack Tanner and Battling Leo Burns are the fifth pair. Tanner is a recent arrival from the east and is living in Dorris. He hopes to get over Burns and work his way up to a regular main event here, his position when he left the east.

The boys from The Dalles will arrive Monday by motor.

The Klamath fighters are working out regularly here.

LeMon's Eye Cut.
The Tuesday fight card takes the place of the bout originally set for last night between Ray McQuillan and Romeo LeMon. Matchmaker Bickerstaff canceled the bout to allow Romeo LeMon to meet George Dixon in Portland. Dixon won by a technical knockout in the seventh round when LeMon's eye was so badly cut that the fight was stopped by Referee Tom Loutitt. Manager Jack Walker says LeMon's eye is healing rapidly, although it has not fully healed yet as the gash extended nearly the length of his eyebrow. A suitable opponent could not be found for McQuillan.

Young Corbett Is Returned Winner Over Paul Pirrone

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21. (AP)—Young Corbett, Fresno welterweight, set out last night to refute the critics who said he was slipping, and he succeeded in making them take back their words.

Corbett went up against Paul Pirrone, rugged and hard punching Cleveland brawler, and he handed him a neat thrashing in ten rounds. He took eight of the rounds by wide margins, dropping only the sixth, when Pirrone clipped him with a hard left to the jaw, and the last round, when he was tired out from his own aggressiveness.

The Fresnoan by reputation a counter-puncher, was forced to fight a different type of battle against his Cleveland opponent. Pirrone refused to lead, and Corbett was called on to force the fighting. He did so decidedly, beating a steady tattoo on Pirrone, and blocking punches with all his old time effectiveness.

MINES TO STAGE.
LONDON—One of the most famous tenors to appear on the English stage is the newcomer, Trefor Jones, who is becoming one of the greatest attractions in the British Isles. He passed a musical examination, which promptly drew his efforts from mining to singing. Judges say he'll soon be taking leading roles at Covent Garden.

Baseball Heroes Next on Mat

By AL DEMAREK (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

Now that the football players are invading the mat game in droves, who is preventing some of the husky baseball gents from entering the "tug and grunt" pastime?

Gus Sonnenberg, Don George and "Jumping Joe" Savoldi are faring very well, so I nominate Hack Wilson, Babe Ruth and Art Shivers to represent the diamond against the gridiron.

Some of the ball players of the past would have made great material for wrestling or fighting.

Jim Thorpe, Jeff Tesreau, Fred Toney, Jim Vaughn, Larry McLean and Fred Merkle, and Kid Gleason and Moose McCormick would all have given a good account of themselves.

Fred Toney was a powerful athlete. Six feet four inches tall and weighing 235 lbs., he used to open beer bottles with his teeth and roll up the caps with his fingers till they resembled tin foil. Kid Gleason, now with Connie Mack, always loved a scrap and his specialties were back drivers and policemen. Fred Merkle was another fellow who never ducked a good fight.

SUN BEAU THE FAVORITE AT AGUA CALIENTE

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico, March 21. (AP)—Those famed "Chapeeperian words" "My Kingdom for a Horse," were paraphrased here today by thousands of turf followers seeking an Equine thoroughbred which might have a chance against the big short-odds bay, Sun Beau, in the world's richest stake, the Agua Caliente handicap to be run on the morrow.

Four years ago this son of Sun Briar could have been purchased for $5000. Yet today he stood a favorite by a wide margin to poke his nose across the line in the second renewal of the $100,000 race ahead of eight others probable starters and become the greatest money winner of all time.

So it was that those who chose to put their money on the line did so with a common thought, "My Kingdom for a Horse to beat Sun Beau."

The Willis Sharpe Kilmer five year old, with Frankie Colletti, the tried and proven astride, will go to the post with 129 pounds in the boot, 12 pounds more than his nearest opponent. Even in the face of this, and the threatening possibility that McGonigle, a troublemaker at the gate, might be allowed to go, Sun Beau stood at odds of four to one in the future books, and threatened to drop even below this.

Nearest approach of Sun Beau was Lady Broadcast, quoted at 4 to 1, even though the question of what jockey would pilot the five year old filly remained unanswered. George Woolf's infected hand beat efficiently, he will be in the saddle. Other wise Lufe Cunningham will handle the reins. H. M. Woolf's entry will go to the post 16 pounds lighter than Sun Beau.

Third place in the future books was held by Mike Hall, packing 116 pounds, and Pigeon Hole, carrying 113. These geldings, ages 7 and 6 respectively, both representing the Hal Price Headley stable, are being quoted six to one, as is the Choctaw, which recently flashed to the fore by besting several of the outstanding starters in a prep race.

Hope for a Pacific Coast winner rests entirely with Alexander Pantages. Figured as an outsider last year, this horse, owned by the thesaurus magnate's sons Rodney and Lloyd, placed second to Victorian in the first running of the re-created Cotforth handicap and has appeared in better form this season as a six year old than ever before.

LOST EVERYTHING
BRIDGETON, N.J.—Gill Mattox had a canvas bag with $420 in it. That was until his cow, Bossy, ate it. The cow was killed and $74 was retrieved from one of the cow's stomachs. But the rest of the money was digested by the animal, and so Gill lost it and the value of the cow, too.

SALEM, March 21. (AP)—The 1931 state basketball championship will go to either Pendleton or Salem. These teams will meet in the finals of the Oregon tournament here tonight, after wrecking the hopes of the Portland schools for leading honors late yesterday. Both Jefferson and Benson went down to defeat in the semi-finals, eliminated by the Estersners and the capital city players, before crowds of cheering fans, and by scores which upset the dope bucket beyond recovery.

Pendleton started the slaughter by administering an overwhelming defeat to the leading contender for championship honors, Jefferson high school of Portland. The team from the large Oregon school was not given a chance after the first few minutes of play, and the game ended with 24 points difference between the two, nine more than the total scored by Jefferson during the contest. The final tally was 39 to 15 in favor of Pendleton.

Following suit the Salem high school, which failed to make much of a showing in its first game, came through strong, and in a close fight took the game from Benson by a safe score of 25 to 15. The largest crowd of the series witnessed this contest. It was anything but Portland's day today. It didn't seem to be in the cards. As a result these two fast squads will play tonight.

The Portland schools are now placed in the semi-finals of the consolation series against Astoria and Baker. Astoria, after winning from The Dalles, will play Jefferson high school for the second time during the tournament. These two teams met in the first game, and Jefferson had difficulty in taking the contest. Baker, after playing the hardest schedule of any entrant, will play Benson. Baker previously gave Jefferson a hard battle in the championship series and has already played four games.

The winners of the consolation semi-finals will play the first game of the night program for third and fourth position in the state rating. Coaches, officials and newspapermen will select an all-star team during the day, which is to be announced following the games at night. They will also choose the outstanding player of the tournament.

Sammy Hale's Homer Beats Detroit Club

(By The Associated Press)
With spring officially on the calendar and two exhibition baseball games on the schedule, Pacific Coast baseball fans "looked up" today.

Yesterday's exhibition contests saw the first home run in the new Seals' stadium at San Francisco where the Chicago Cubs trounced the Pittsburgh Pirates 6 to 5. "Gabby" Hartnett, husky Cub catcher, belted one of Pitcher Bednar's offerings over the left field wall in the fifth inning, scoring Manager Hornsby ahead of him.

Batteries were Root and Hartnett and Z. Taylor for the Cubs; Bednar, French and Phillips for the Pirates.

At Los Angeles, a home run in the eighth inning by Sammy Hale, third baseman of Portland's Pacific Coast league club, with the bases full gave his team a 5 to 3 victory over Detroit of the American league. The veteran Buck Infielder came to bat when the score was 3 to 1 in favor of Detroit and boosted one of Chief Hogsett's throws over the fence.

Batteries for Portland were Keating, House, Fullerton and Woodall and Fitzpatrick; for Detroit Sorrell, Hogsett and Hayworth.

Consider what you get for what you pay
Today, especially, it is wise to consider carefully just what you get for every dollar you pay. Be certain that the automobile you buy represents the latest standard of motor car value. Quality never cost less than it does in the new Chevrolet Six. And in the long run, quality makes a big difference in the satisfaction you get out of the money you spend for an automobile.
