At The Vox

"Charley's Aunt," the Columbia farce of Oxford University, life, produced by Christie, is this week's attraction at the New Vox theatre. It has been acclaimed by press and public wherever it has played. The reason for the enthusiastic acceptance of this farce is that it is a long succession of laughs. Four hundred and twenty-two sure fire laughs have been counted. The simple, hearty fun that follows on the wild students' trick of turning a chum into an old lady so that their sweethearts should be encouraged to visit them under "protection" convulses audiences everywhere.

But Charlie Rozzies, is peculiarly adapted to the delineation of difficult title roles. He is a veteran star of musical comedy and was outstanding in such memorable vehicles as "Rolling Stone," "Wizard of Oz," "Tumble Inn," "Demi Virgin," "White Collars," "Battling Butler," "Queen High" and "Rainbow." His picture work includes roles in such successful attractions as "Gentlemen of the Press," "The Lady Lies," "Roadhouse Nights" and "Young Man of Manhattan." It is safe to predict that his performance in "Charley's Aunt" will go down in red letters in motion picture history.

G. N. ASKS PERMIT TO BUILD NEW LINE

SALEM, Ore., April 1. (AP)—The Great Northern railroad today filed application with the public service commissioner for certificate of necessity to build 14.3 miles of line between Bend and Lava on the east side of the river. The change is made because of better location on the east side, the company statement asserts.

A BROAD HINT.

"Mary, remember that you are only a servant; I don't want you to have so much company. Why, you have more callers in a day than I have in a week."

"Well, ma'am, perhaps if you'd try to be a little more agreeable you'd have as many friends as I do."—Passing Show.

FUZLED HUBBY

"Well," said the bride of three months, "how do you like my cake, dear?"

"I was just wondering," said the young husband, awkwardly, how such light, tiny hands could make such a great, big, heavy
