Combination Herald and News
CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES
 Three cents per word per day. Same ad run one week, 10 per cent discount. Same ad run one month, 25 per cent discount. No book charge made for less than 50 cents.
TELEPHONE 1900
 The News and Herald business office, corner 4th and Main streets, is open from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m. Between these hours Want Ads may be placed at the counter or phoned by calling 1900. If you prefer, a representative will call at any place of business in the downtown district.
 In order to insure proper classification in both the Herald and News, Want Ads must be our office, corner 4th and Main, not later than 5 p. m.
 Advertisements will be accepted in the "TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY" column of the Evening Herald up until 12 noon of the day of issue. Want Ads accepted for this department will be charged at the rate of three cents per word for the one paper only. Orders to change or discontinue advertisements for the next day's issue of the News and Herald cannot be accepted later than 5 p. m. All changes and bills ordered after this time will not take effect until the following day in the News.
 Any errors found in advertisements should be reported to the News and Herald office immediately, as the News and Herald will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion.
 The News and Herald reserves the right to reject objectionable advertising. It further reserves the right to classify all advertising under the proper classification.
 All classified advertising, except "Too Late to Classify," will appear first in the Morning News and then picked up and run without charge in the Evening Herald.
 All accounts for classified advertising are due upon presentation of the bill and overdue after ten days.
