And as its heroine, the beautiful girl misled into sophisticated beliefs of "freedom" by a brilliant though dissolute father; a girl tora between the love of an honest man that of a gambler and underworld czar; a girl who finds life crashing about her ears when the structure of error top-ples, Miss Shearer presents what is without doubt the most grip-pingly dramatic characterization of her career.

"Just A Gigolo"

She slapped his face—and se they were married,
Which is how the effervescent William Halnes is catapulted into romance in "Just a Gigolo," his latest talkie now showing at the Pine Tree theater.

Adapted from the brilliant New York stage play, "Dancing Partner," the story has Haines in the role of a young English nobleman with a fliritation complex and an idea that no woman can make a faithful wife because all can be misled. The slap in the face teaches him differently, in a vivid little drama which also abounds in comical situations.

"His Maney"

"Big Money"
For the first time since they appeared in "Oh Yeah," Rebert Armstrong and James Gleason are teamed in strong rofes in "Big Money," showing today at the Rainbow theater, Eddie Qullian and Miriam Seegar are foatured in the leading roles, Russell Mack, who directed Quillan in "Night Work," also directed "Big Money." The original story, by Walter De Leon offers a comedy slant on the highly popular sanester stories.

An excellent cast of mage and screen players was chosen for "Big Money." The list includes Margaret Livingston, Robert Ede-son, Robert Gleckler, Dorothy Christy, Myrtla Criniey, Mona Rico, Ed Deering, Maurice Black, Kit Guard and Louis Natheaux.

educated at the Sacred Heart convent in that city, Miss Dunn was among the first of the Paramount "Junior stars" and later was a contract player with M. G. M. Her role in "Air Police," that of Dolores, a dancer in a border cantina, offers her exceptional opportunities to display her talents as an emotional actress.

"Arizona Terror"
Nena Quartaro who plays Lola the Mexican girl with Ken Maynard in the "Arizona Terror," at the Vox theater, does not have I caet the role. Nona is all Mexican and proud of it and just a word in passing, never make the mistake of of calling her a Spaniard—unless you are prepared to prove to yourself the famous "spontaneous combustion" of the temperament of this lady from down below the Rio Grande.

Others in this western thriller include such popular players as Michael Visaroff, Hooper Atchley. Lina Basquette, Charles King, Murdock Mae Quarrie and one of the most convincing bands of cowhands evere seen on the screen.
