

ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETE FOR JAMBOREE

Final arrangements for the Dad's and Son's jamboree at the Klamath Union high school at 6 p. m. Friday, have been completed by Russell Andrews, dean of boys, who is in charge of the event. More than last year is promised and a program full of interest for the men has been planned.

The first public appearance of the faculty quartette, Russell Andrews, Lloyd Emery, John Stovall and Lawrence Thomas, will open the program.

The boys' glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Madge Hampton, will sing "Winter Song" and "Me." The highlight of the evening's program will be a wrestling exhibition by Roy Anderson. Boys of the high school will be matched in an interesting boxing card. The high school band, directed by John Stovall, will give a number of selections.

Business Men Urged
Andrews is particularly anxious that all of the boys have fathers for the night, and any business man of this city who has no son of his own to take is asked to call the dean of boys at 559. Many of the band members, especially, will be unable to attend unless enough "dads" are located, Andrews said.

Preceding the program, which is to take place in the gymnasium, the Pep Peppers will have a dinner in the cafeteria. Committees in charge of the event are:

Invitations: John Stovall, faculty chairman; Bob Claunch, Herman Bremmer, Stewart Grossbeck, Jim Harnes, Jimmy Rogers, Adolph Zamsky, Robert Vannice, Thornton Smith, Edwin Logan, Robert Lind and Jack McGeoghegan.

Publicity: Alex De Sota, faculty chairman.
Entertainment: Lloyd Emery, faculty chairman; L. C. Thomas, Dwight French, Ralph Peyton, Lawrence Weinberg and Gordon Williams.
Stage: Charles Doll, faculty chairman.
Table: Fred Blakeney, chairman; R. Brun, F. Flowers, J. Kerns, J. Sherrick, Bert Bagley, Albert Powell, Harry Jarles, Gail Nowson and Merle Montgomery.
Ticket Sales: Stanley Woodruff, faculty chairman; John Merziman, Bob Woods, Ben Foster, James Chaney, Glendon Branchard, Rex Howell, Joe Wicksham, Bob Van Duker, Wayne Perry, David McCauley and Stewart Tatty.

Scoggins Brothers Pay Assault Fines

Cliff and Ed Scoggins, charged with beating Lucille Scoggins, their brother's wife, pleaded guilty in Justice court Wednesday morning, and paid fines of $25 each.
A motion to hold the pair for the grand jury was withdrawn by District Attorney Gillenwaters after the hearing.

Health Association Will Meet Friday

The Klamath county public health association, of which James E. Swamen is president, will hold its annual banquet and election of officers at the Pelican Grille at 6:30 Friday evening, October 16. The public is invited.
Other officers of the group are Mrs. D. Clark, secretary; E. M. Rabb, treasurer, and Harry Hill, publicity director. Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, will be principal speaker.

The banquet will follow the tubercular seal sale conference, which is to take place during the afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Dunbar.

See for yourself the unequalled facilities of the Northwest Clinic for treating rectal, colon, heart and endocrine diseases.

See our new quarters—especially designed to accommodate the ever-growing number of patients from all sections of the Northwest. Here you will find the newest of electrical equipment for physiotherapy; also for heart, endocrine, stomach, colon and rectum examinations. Cardiograph, X-Ray, microscopical and chemical laboratories make possible complete examinations; so that causes, instead of symptoms, can be treated. Our practice, formerly limited to the non-surgical treatment of rectal and colon diseases, now includes diseases of the heart and endocrine, often affected by colonic poisoning. A competent specialist in this branch of medicine is now a staff member. Thorough medical treatments complete the services rendered by this Clinic.

We appreciate the loyal friendship of our thousands of former and present patients which has encouraged us to equip this new Clinic so that all who suffer may find relief here. You are invited to consult our staff physicians without obligation. Mail inquiries receive prompt and confidential reply.

A woman lay murdered. A daring jewel theft had been committed. Somewhere not far away the perpetrator of both crimes was hiding.

On the night that was to have been the gayest and happiest of Mary Harkness' life tragedy descended on the household in which she lived. Tragedy . . . that struck mysteriously and struck again.

"Gems of Peril" by Hazel Ross Hailey tells the amazing events following that night of terror. Mystery, adventure and romance are combined in this great serial. Watch for "Gems of Peril." It begins Thursday, October 15th.
