

CLUES FAIL IN HUNT FOR WOMAN

Editorials on the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS

BABE RUTH can't go to the movies—so he tells an interviewer in Los Angeles. He might hurt his eyes, and if he hurt his eyes he would fall down on home runs.

And, he says, he LOVES to go to the movies.

He can't dance. That might hurt his legs, and after you've knocked a long one it isn't a home run until you've run it out. If you're going to make speed around the bases, you've got to have good legs.

Babe says he loves to dance.

He can't gamble, for that wouldn't look right to the cash customers and the baseball czar would object. He can't ride in airplanes, because his contract won't permit it.

He can't swim, because that would mean exposing himself to colds, and when you've got a cold you're off your game. The cash customers don't pay to see the Babe off his game.

THESE responsibilities of the great are terrible. They can't do this, and they can't do that. Their lives are just one long round of denying themselves the things they really want.

We little people, who haven't any particular responsibilities to live up to, seem to be about the only ones who can afford to have a good time.

FIGURES from 144 colleges, scattered all over the country, some of them large and some of them small, show a total registration this year of 394,481, as compared with 384,076 for the same schools last year.

The depression doesn't seem to be affecting the demand for education.

WHO has suffered most from the depression—the educated man, or the man without an education?

That question is hard to answer, and so far the statisticians, with their sharp pencils, haven't given us any figures bearing on it.

But at least this can be said: (Continued on Page Four)

Klamath Joins in Paying Tribute to Thomas A. Edison

Klamath Falls joined in the rest of the nation Wednesday in paying tribute to the memory of Thomas A. Edison. Appropriate exercises were presented in the city schools, while certain local stores and all offices in the Klamath county court house were closed from 11:30 until 1:30 o'clock.

A special memorial program, consisting of moving pictures of Edison's life and work, will be presented Sunday evening at the C. M. U. P. church. An announcement from Rev. T. Davis Preston, pastor.

EARTHQUAKE FELT

ROME, Oct. 21. (AP)—A slight earthquake which lasted five seconds was felt here this morning, but there was no damage. It was the first in five years.

Mrs. Hall Conducts Final Session of Cooking School

The final session of The Evening Herald and The Klamath News cooking school and home economics exposition was conducted in the high school auditorium at 2 o'clock this afternoon with Mrs. Ethel M. Hall, San Francisco Call-Bulletin home economics expert, in charge. Several hundred women attended the event, at the close of which grand prizes were awarded.

Mrs. Hall spoke on bridge luncheons, giving her auditors many new hints for refreshments, decorations and bridge prizes. Demonstrations of the preparation of meat, fish and fowl, bridge set-ups and the proper method of table service, were features of the afternoon.

Mrs. Hall will go from Klamath Falls to Medford, and then to Roseburg, to conduct similar classes and demonstrations.

Here is the menu for the cocktail breakfast, introduced in Klamath Falls for the first time by Mrs. Hall at Tuesday evening's session of the school:

EDISON IS LAID TO REST UNDER HUGE OAK TREE

All Nation Mourns Death of Inventor; Rites are Simple, Glowing Praise Voiced by Speaker; Mrs. Hoover Present.

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 21. (AP)—In the drawing room of the spacious, Victorian mansion where he had lived for many years, a simple tribute was paid today to one of America's greatest peace time heroes—Thomas Alva Edison.

There assembled his family and his friends to bid him farewell, with the music, the poetry, and the flowers that he loved.

The wife of the president of the United States, whom the inventor counted among his friends, was present, but there was about the funeral little of the stately ceremony one would associate with the obsequies of a man of world wide fame.

Favorite Songs Sung

The service opened with two of Edison's favorite songs—"Little Grey Home in the West" and "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen."—played on the violin by his old friend and business associate, Arthur L. Walsh.

There was more of his favorite music from Bach and Beethoven, a reading of the 23rd Psalm, a tribute from Arthur J. Palmer, one of Edison's old associates in the laboratory, and a prayer.

Then his body was borne away to rest under a giant oak tree in Rosedale cemetery near that of his assistant, John Ott, who died Monday of grief and shock over the passing of the inventor.

Dr. Perry Speaks

The tribute from Mr. Palmer read by Dr. Lewis Perry, head (Continued on Page Two)

CONFIDENCE HELD NEED OF LUMBER

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 21. (AP)—Lumber sales will boom when United States and Canada logging industries cast aside their yoke of lack of confidence, President L. H. Mills, Portland, predicted today to the Pacific logging congress.

As soon as he had opened the 32nd annual convention officially an open discussion revealed that Northwestern logging contractors have been preparing for an expected upward turn in the lumber business by economizing to cut the cost of logging to new low levels. Executives of many Western United States and Canadian lumber companies then tackled their individual problems of methods of cost cutting.

Mrs. Hall Conducts Final Session of Cooking School

Menu

Eggs in bread boats, with bacon strips for oars.

Fruit cocktail in orange cups, set on petals of roses. Nectar over fruit.

Coffee.

Last night's session was featured by more than just the cocktail breakfast menu, for Mrs. Hall also gave demonstrations of beauty make-up, and the Peacock beauty salon gave a facial demonstration.

Close to 500 women attended the session, in addition to several score men who appeared just as interested (and maybe a little more so) than the women.

Mrs. Hall also gave some original ideas for other cocktails, such as shrimp in grapefruit, cranberry cocktails with grapefruit top, and others. She demonstrated cucumber boats with asparagus, creamed peas in orange cups and other new cuisine delights.

A Halloween game was played with a roast turkey as a prize to the one who had most answers correct.

Move to New Building

Kenneth Ellis, head of three departments which will move to new quarters in the Federal Building, dedicated in impressive ceremonies Wednesday. Upper, left, Postmaster John McCall, and B. E. Hayden, reclamation bureau superintendent. Below, County Agent C. A. Henderson.

FREIGHT RATE ON LUMBER IS DUE FOR BOOST

L. C. C. Indicates Gains on Product; Potatoes Exempt.

SALEM, Oct. 21. (AP)—The interstate commerce commission ruling in granting certain increases on commodities shipped by rail, although refusing the flat 15 per cent increase requested by railroads, affects lumber, Charles M. Thomas, public utilities commissioner. He said his interpretation of the findings showed this was the only commodity materially affecting Oregon.

The increase permitted on lumber interstate shipments was $3 a carload. This increase was included in the conditionally approved surcharges. Thomas expressed surprise that the lumber freight rate increase was included.

The commissioner announced that the individual railroads had also filed intra-state increase requests at the same time as the joint application was made to the interstate commerce commission. This case in Oregon has not yet been set. Thomas said the action of the commission on the matter would await the next move of the carrier within the state.

SEVENTEEN MEN TO REMAIN IN ARCTIC

NOME, Alaska, Oct. 21. (AP)—Seventeen men, the captain and the crew of the ill-fated ship Baychimo, face a long and hazardous winter far north of the Arctic circle—while their companions, "rescued" by airplanes, are far away to the south.

In a hastily built winter house on the beach, near their ice-locked vessel, the men will spend the next eight or nine months till spring in the far north. No village lies within 30 miles.

The plight of the little band, commanded by Capt. S. A. Cornwall of London was described today by passengers brought out by airplane, as well as the story (Continued on Page Two)

Ford Says Slump Is Preferable to False Prosperity

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (AP)—Henry Ford thinks the economic slump "has done less harm to the people of our country than a continuance of our previous false prosperity would have done."

In an interview in today's issue of the American Automobile, Mr. Ford says that "the depression is a wholesome thing, in general."

"The conditions will be broken when people cease to believe that something can be obtained for nothing, and when people get back their self-dependence; that is, when they cease to lean on the initiative of a few either to provide work or charity."

Judd Was Inmate of State Hospital

SALEM, Oct. 21. (AP)—Dr. W. C. Judd, whose wife is sought in connection with the trunk murder of Mrs. Agnes Leroy and Miss Hedwig Samuelson at Phoenix, was an inmate of the Oregon state hospital for the insane from December 27, 1919, to February 21, 1920. The hospital records show that he was committed from Marion county as a drug addict.

Dr. Judd had served with the United States forces overseas during the world war, and his commitment followed his return here. Later, following his discharge from the hospital, he is said to have been official physician for the Brookings Lumber company at Brookings, Ore., near the California line.

He was graduated from the medical college of Willamette university in 1908, and for a time was an intern at Willamette sanitarium here.

Local physicians who knew Judd describe him as normally a man of culture and very personable.

Leatrice Joy to Wed on Thursday

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21. (AP)—Leatrice Joy, motion picture actress, and first wife of John Gilbert, another screen star, said here today she would be married, possibly at Del Monte tomorrow, to William Spencer Hook, Los Angeles business man.

Miss Joy and Mr. Hook are at a hotel here. With them were Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Nagel, also screen celebrities, who will be witnesses at the wedding.

FLAG HOISTED, NEW BUILDING IS DEDICATED

Formal Ceremonies Held at Federal Structure on Wednesday. Captain C. P. Nelson of Navy Has Part in Event.

The Stars and Stripes were raised over the headquarters of the federal government in Klamath Falls this afternoon as the Klamath Union high school band played the Star Spangled Banner. The raising of the flag, which was hoisted by Custodian Employee Grables whose daily duty it will be to raise and lower the banner, marked the formal dedication of the $209,000 federal building. The flag raising was preceded by the playing of popular march numbers by the band.

Master of Ceremonies E. B. Hall then dedicated the building and introduced Captain C. P. Nelson, United States Navy, coordinator for the Seventh Corps Area, Seattle, who gave a short address.

After tracing the 26-year long campaign of the people of the Klamath empire to secure a federal building Mr. Hall said:

"In dedicating this building to the people of the United States, it is their building and of particular benefit to the people of Klamath county and Klamath Falls."

Captain Nelson stated, "It is a building of which you may well be proud. It is not only an ornament to the city but will aid in the cooperation of the various government departments. I came here because I wanted to see the dedication of this fine building and because I wanted to see Klamath Falls. I have heard it is a wonderful place and it certainly is."

The ceremony was witnessed by Klamath Falls citizens who (Continued on Page Eight)

TROOPS FIGHT WHILE LEAGUE SEEKS PEACE

TOKYO, Oct. 22 (Thursday) (AP)—A Mukden dispatch today said Japanese garrisons were fighting under difficulties with 2,999 Chinese soldiers near Tieling, on the South Manchurian railway, south of Mukden.

The dispatch added reinforcements were rushing from Mukden to aid the garrisons. Tieling is about 45 miles north of Mukden. A train from Changchun, about the same distance north of Tieling, was halted.

CHAMBER PLAN ON RELIEF IS GIVEN

E. B. Hall, R. C. Greenback and A. M. Miller recently adopted to outline the attitude of Klamath County Chamber of Commerce toward relief work during the coming winter, presented a report to the board of directors at the regular Wednesday meeting.

The following report was unanimously adopted by the board, and copies will be sent to all organizations working for charity and relief:

We recommend the following as constituting the policy of the chamber with reference to relief:

1. That organizations be encouraged to continue to carry on the relief work among and for their own members.
2. That, to prevent duplication of organizations be requested to report to the Governor's committee (Continued on Page Two)

Akron to Take Off on Delivery Flight

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 21. (AP)—The U. S. Akron will take off on her delivery flight to Lakehurst at 5:30 p. m. today, navy officials decided following a study of weather maps.

Just before the Akron is walked out of the dock she will become the property of the navy.

Birds at Zoo Eyed By Women Seeking Plumes for Hats

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21. (AP)—The birds out at the Forest park zoo aren't any more, now that Empress Eugenie hats are back in vogue.

Zoo officials reported today that during recent weeks hundreds of women have sought out attendants at the bird house and asked for feathers from the plumage of the parrots and ostriches, while others have attempted to pluck them from an ostrich.

Believed To Be Murder Victims

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (AP)—Scores of clues flooded police headquarters today in the search for Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, 26 years old, wife of a physician, who fled from a railroad station here Monday shortly before two trunks were opened, revealing the bodies of two of her friends, whom she is accused of killing.

Excited citizens, bus drivers, motorists, restaurant owners and the like telephoned police, repeatedly, saying they had seen a woman resembling Mrs. Judd. Each investigation, however, went for naught, the suspects either having disappeared or proved other identities.

Meanwhile authorities pined together evidence in the lives of Mrs. Judd and the slain women, Mrs. Agnes Le Roi and Miss Hedwig Samuelson, hoping to gain information that would fit a motive. Of the theories advanced three stood out. They were jealousy, or insanity, or illicit intimacies.

Explanations Sought

One of these, authorities agreed, probably would explain the tragedy in which the two women were shot and discovered the body of one dismembered and the remains of both placed in trunks and a valise and forwarded here by train from Phoenix, Arizona, where the three had been employed in a medical clinic.

The other theories were discovered by a railroad agent who saw blood filtering through cracks in one of the trunks. When Mrs. Judd and her brother, B. J. McKinnell, university student here, arrived to claim the baggage, they demanded that she open the trunks but she fled, pretending that she did not have the keys.

The theory of intimacies was based, almost wholly, on a diary in the possession of County Attorney Lloyd J. Andrews of Phoenix who flew here to aid in the search.

It told, police said, a story of a strange affection between the two victims and a sudden changed attitude and actions of Mrs. Judd, who once had lived with them.

Letters Studied

In a letter written by Dr. W. C. Judd, husband of the alleged slayer, to her last October six, police found another possible (Continued on Page Two)

USE OF WOOD FOR BRIDGES ADVOCATED

LA GRANDE, Ore., Oct. 21. (AP)—The condition of Amos Helms, state trooper, shot here Sunday by Keith Crosswhite, 19, and John Owens, 28, of Springfield, Mo., appeared satisfactory today than it did yesterday. He passed a restless night.

Crosswhite and Owens were captured yesterday near Moschans, after posse of national guardsmen, state police, sheriff deputies and citizens had sought them since Sunday, after they shot Helms, who, with Captain Lee Noe had tried to question them for auto theft.

Officials said today they expect to file charges of assault with attempt to kill against the two men if Helms recovers. If he dies the two will face murder charges.

Summer Lake Vote on Bonds Proposed

SALEM, Oct. 21. (AP)—The Summer Lake irrigation district was authorized by the state reclamation commission yesterday to call a special election on a proposal to issue $103,000 refunding bonds and to vote on a refinancing plan. The bond issue would take up and retire the existing bonded indebtedness of the district aggregating $325,000.

The district contains 2500 acres of land and is located in Lake county. The bond holders would receive about 25 cents on the dollar under the refinancing plan.

One-Eyed Cars to Be Object of Drive

SALEM, Oct. 21. (AP)—Charles Pray, state superintendent of police, today issued a warning to motorists driving at night with only one headlight. The police department is making a drive against these offenders and anyone with single headlights will be subject to arrest, Pray announced.

Complaints of many one-light drivers on the highways as well as many driving with glaring headlights, have come into the department, Pray said. Both violations will be checked in the drive for more safety on highways.

WOUNDED OFFICER'S CONDITION WORSE

MENOMINEE, Wis., Oct. 21. (AP)—Sheriff's posse today were hunting three members of a machine gun bandit gang for the holdup of the Kraft State Bank in which a son of the bank's president and a fourth robber were slain.

LATE NEWS

NEW YORK, Oct. 21. (AP)—The torch of the Statue of Liberty will be extinguished for one minute at ten o'clock tonight in tribute to Thomas A. Edison.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21. (AP)—State department officials denied today that the United States was playing "a loose hand" in the efforts to pacify Manchuria. Department officials said the United States was cooperating in every way it felt it could with the league of nations.

SALEM, Oct. 21. (AP)—The state board of control announced today it would open bids on November 16 for a physician's dwelling house at the Oregon State Tuberculosis hospital at Salem. The legislature appropriated funds for this building.

3 MOTIVES FOR CRIME STUDIED BY DETECTIVES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (AP)—Scores of clues flooded police headquarters today in the search for Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, 26 years old, wife of a physician, who fled from a railroad station here Monday shortly before two trunks were opened, revealing the bodies of two of her friends, whom she is accused of killing.

Excited citizens, bus drivers, motorists, restaurant owners and the like telephoned police, repeatedly, saying they had seen a woman resembling Mrs. Judd. Each investigation, however, went for naught, the suspects either having disappeared or proved other identities.

Meanwhile authorities pined together evidence in the lives of Mrs. Judd and the slain women, Mrs. Agnes Le Roi and Miss Hedwig Samuelson, hoping to gain information that would fit a motive. Of the theories advanced three stood out. They were jealousy, or insanity, or illicit intimacies.

Explanations Sought

One of these, authorities agreed, probably would explain the tragedy in which the two women were shot and discovered the body of one dismembered and the remains of both placed in trunks and a valise and forwarded here by train from Phoenix, Arizona, where the three had been employed in a medical clinic.

The other theories were discovered by a railroad agent who saw blood filtering through cracks in one of the trunks. When Mrs. Judd and her brother, B. J. McKinnell, university student here, arrived to claim the baggage, they demanded that she open the trunks but she fled, pretending that she did not have the keys.

The theory of intimacies was based, almost wholly, on a diary in the possession of County Attorney Lloyd J. Andrews of Phoenix who flew here to aid in the search.

It told, police said, a story of a strange affection between the two victims and a sudden changed attitude and actions of Mrs. Judd, who once had lived with them.

Letters Studied

In a letter written by Dr. W. C. Judd, husband of the alleged slayer, to her last October six, police found another possible (Continued on Page Two)

Letters Read in Effort to Find Reason for Killing Pair.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (AP)—Scores of clues flooded police headquarters today in the search for Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, 26 years old, wife of a physician, who fled from a railroad station here Monday shortly before two trunks were opened, revealing the bodies of two of her friends, whom she is accused of killing.

Excited citizens, bus drivers, motorists, restaurant owners and the like telephoned police, repeatedly, saying they had seen a woman resembling Mrs. Judd. Each investigation, however, went for naught, the suspects either having disappeared or proved other identities.

Meanwhile authorities pined together evidence in the lives of Mrs. Judd and the slain women, Mrs. Agnes Le Roi and Miss Hedwig Samuelson, hoping to gain information that would fit a motive. Of the theories advanced three stood out. They were jealousy, or insanity, or illicit intimacies.

Explanations Sought

One of these, authorities agreed, probably would explain the tragedy in which the two women were shot and discovered the body of one dismembered and the remains of both placed in trunks and a valise and forwarded here by train from Phoenix, Arizona, where the three had been employed in a medical clinic.

The other theories were discovered by a railroad agent who saw blood filtering through cracks in one of the trunks. When Mrs. Judd and her brother, B. J. McKinnell, university student here, arrived to claim the baggage, they demanded that she open the trunks but she fled, pretending that she did not have the keys.

The theory of intimacies was based, almost wholly, on a diary in the possession of County Attorney Lloyd J. Andrews of Phoenix who flew here to aid in the search.

It told, police said, a story of a strange affection between the two victims and a sudden changed attitude and actions of Mrs. Judd, who once had lived with them.

Letters Studied

In a letter written by Dr. W. C. Judd, husband of the alleged slayer, to her last October six, police found another possible (Continued on Page Two)

Widespread Search Is On for Winnie Judd but No Success.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21. (AP)—Scores of clues flooded police headquarters today in the search for Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, 26 years old, wife of a physician, who fled from a railroad station here Monday shortly before two trunks were opened, revealing the bodies of two of her friends, whom she is accused of killing.

Excited citizens, bus drivers, motorists, restaurant owners and the like telephoned police, repeatedly, saying they had seen a woman resembling Mrs. Judd. Each investigation, however, went for naught, the suspects either having disappeared or proved other identities.

Meanwhile authorities pined together evidence in the lives of Mrs. Judd and the slain women, Mrs. Agnes Le Roi and Miss Hedwig Samuelson, hoping to gain information that would fit a motive. Of the theories advanced three stood out. They were jealousy, or insanity, or illicit intimacies.

Explanations Sought

One of these, authorities agreed, probably would explain the tragedy in which the two women were shot and discovered the body of one dismembered and the remains of both placed in trunks and a valise and forwarded here by train from Phoenix, Arizona, where the three had been employed in a medical clinic.

The other theories were discovered by a railroad agent who saw blood filtering through cracks in one of the trunks. When Mrs. Judd and her brother, B. J. McKinnell, university student here, arrived to claim the baggage, they demanded that she open the trunks but she fled, pretending that she did not have the keys.

The theory of intimacies was based, almost wholly, on a diary in the possession of County Attorney Lloyd J. Andrews of Phoenix who flew here to aid in the search.

It told, police said, a story of a strange affection between the two victims and a sudden changed attitude and actions of Mrs. Judd, who once had lived with them.

Letters Studied

In a letter written by Dr. W. C. Judd, husband of the alleged slayer, to her last October six, police found another possible (Continued on Page Two)