Will Spend Thanksgiving Here

Miss Alexis Lyle (left), daughter of Mrs. A. J. Lyle, and Miss Blanche O'Neil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton O'Neil, will be among the University of Oregon students to spend the Thanksgiving holidays in Klamath Falls.

Important Events To Mark Observance Of Thanksgiving Day

The beautiful tradition of Thanksgiving Day will be happily observed in Klamath Falls with many social functions, important among which will be occasions honoring college students who will return home for the joyous occasion, family dinners and dancing parties.

The week will be filled with gaiety. An outstanding affair will be the Thanksgiving eve ball at the Elks Temple.

Judge and Mrs. William B. Barnes will celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary on Thanksgiving Day, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mills will observe their fifty-first anniversary during the week.

Among the college students to return home for the festivities will be Miss Alexis Lyle, student at the University of Oregon. Miss Lyle will arrive Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. A. J. Lyle. She will be accompanied by her cousin, Robert Chilton, freshman student at the university and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, the son of Dr. Chilton, formerly of Klamath Falls and now a resident at Indianapolis. Miss Lyle is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority on the university campus and takes an active part in social and scholastic activities.

Misses Helen Shives and Blanche O'Neil, both freshmen students at the university, will arrive home Tuesday evening. Helen will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shives, and Blanche with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton O'Neil.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hill Hunter will enjoy a visit from their daughter, Harriet, who is attending Oregon State college at Corvallis.

Maryellen Bradford, president of Phi Mu sorority at the university, will pass through Klamath Falls Wednesday evening en route to San Francisco, Calif., where she will visit Miss Louise Dalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dalton of Merrill, and a former university student. Miss Bradford will return to Klamath Falls Friday to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bradford, for the day.

Bruce Campbell and George Sprague, university pupils, also plan to spend Thanksgiving Day in Klamath Falls, as do a number of other students.

Thanksgiving Day, which affords a two-day holiday for teachers of the city, will be marked by the departure of many of the teachers, who plan to spend a short time in San Francisco, Portland or their homes.
