Collier of Mississippi Calls for Non-Partisan Action on Matter

Short-Term Credits To European Countries Told By Lamont

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 (F)

— Representative McFadden Pennsylvania, republican, told the house today he was ready to submit to a congressional committee of inquiry the basis of his charge that President Hoover "sold out" to Germany.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18, UP;—A democrat arose in the house to-day to ask it to ratify President Hoover's debt moratorium.

He was Collier of Mississippl, the new chairman of the ways and means committee. He called for non-partisan action, and said the president's step had been taken to steady the swaying economics of Germany.

In the debate which followed, two other democrats opposed ratification.

WOMEN MOOCHERS

Women are going about the streets telling citizens that they are hungry and cold and in need and are receiving from 50 cents to $1 for each request when in fact they are just "mooching." Chief of Police Guy Merrill warned citizens Friday.

One of the three or four women begging on the streets gave the name of Mrs. L. E. Brown and her address as 1027 California avenue Police checked the address and found that there is no such place.

address and found that there is no such place.

Chief Merrill warned citizens to refuse requests for money made by both men and women and to send them to the police station if they are beggins.

The chief pointed out that by the giving of money to charitable organizations many people may be fed for 50 cents or a dollar while if the money is given to one person it lasts for only a meal or two for one person.
