Four highest 2-year olds making 25 pounds fat were: Dekol, a Holstein, owned by J. C. Wright, making 1617 pounds milk and 50.1 pounds fat; Snooky, a Jersey, owned by Earl Mack, making 774 pounds milk and 41.9 pounds fat; Flossie, a Holstein, making 1158 pounds milk and 35.9 pounds fat; Vale, a Holstein, owned by J. C. Wright, making 837 pounds milk and 25.2 pounds fat.

BODY DISCOVERED; GUN PLAY EVIDENT

YANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 18. (UP)—The unmarked body of Ed Knyart, 49, was found on the floor of his farm home today amidst unmistakable evidences of a gun battle.

Bullet holes in the house, powder burns in the crack of a garage door and an emptied pistol in Knyart's pocket provided a mystery officers had not yet solved.

No wound or injury appeared on Knyart's body.

VOX

Eddie Cantor in a scene from Palmy Days

Almost alone among the Hollywood picture producers, Samuel Goldwyn prepares his films on the most rigid kind of schedule. His newest screen comedy, "Palmy Days," in which Eddie Cantor is starred at the Vox theater, was only four weeks before the camera.

PINE TREE
Quite the most intensely interesting newspaper drama that has come to the local screen this season is "Graft," the picture which opens an engagement at the Pine Tree theater today.

PELICAN
Aside from the feature picture the high light of the new show starting at the Pelican theater today, is the comedy, "The County Seat," starring that beloved comedian, Chic Sale, who is probably one of the best and most popular of present day comedians.

Richard Dix in his last picture, "The Public Defender," heads the program on the new show at the Pelican today.

RAINBOW
The feature at the Rainbow today and tomorrow is "The Eastest Way," starring exotic Constance Bennett. With Miss Bennett is an unusual cast—Robert Montgomery, Anita Page, Clark Gable, Adolphe Menjou—each one a star in his own right. This is a picture peculiarly adapted to Miss Bennett's talents and will be thoroughly enjoyed.

Bankruptcy Filed Against Financier

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18. (UP)—Irving H. Hellman, Los Angeles banker and member of a famous financial family of southern California, today had involuntary bankruptcy action filed against him.

The petition was filed by three creditors who declared the action was necessary because a creditor recently had filed a superior court suit and attached properties of Hellman. There was no schedule of assets and liabilities filed with the petition.

Duncan Sisters File Bankruptcy

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18. (UP)—The famous vaudeville team "Topsy and Eva"—Rosetta and Vivian Duncan—today was granted a federal receivership after the sisters had filed a voluntary petition for bankruptcy.

The Duncan sisters told Referee Rupert B. Turnbull a story of depleted finances, caused by the declining value of securities they had purchased.

Here are the six members of the House of Representatives who will take active part in the 72nd Congress. There are three republicans and three democrats, with the latter having the edge in political preference. They are (1) Ruth Bryan Owen, democrat, of Florida; (2) Ruth Baker Pratt, republican, of New York; (3) Florence P. Kahn, republican, of California; (4) Edith Nourse Rogers, republican, of Massachusetts; (5) Mary T. Norton, democrat, of New Jersey, expected to receive the chairmanship of the important District of Columbia committee, and (6) Effiegene Wings, democrat, of Arkansas, who entered congress a year ago.

STATE COMMISSION TAKES NO ACTION

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 17. (UP)—The issue of 100 foot vs. 60 foot right of way for the proposed widening of the East Side highway paving between New Era and Salem to 50 feet was dismissed from every angle by the state highway commission today.

When the commission adjourned this evening, however, no action had been taken.

Marion and Clackamas county delegations who came to declare against the wider route were met by the statement of Chairman Alinsworth that the federal gov-

JAMES COOKE WILL BE FREED FROM PEN

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 17. (UP)—James P. Cooke, who was president of Overbeck & Cooke when the brokerage firm collapsed with a huge loss to investors, will be freed from the state penitentiary next February.

Cooke's sentence of seven years was shortened to three years by Governor Meier along with five pardons and four other commutations of sentence as Christmas presents. Time allowed for good behavior will also reduce the term.

The firm's failure brought a loss to investors of $2,000,000, of which creditors received 23.37 per cent.

RANGE REMODELED

The Klamath Rifle club indoor range in the rear of the Greter garage, has been completely remodeled in preparation for the winter season. A turkey shoot will be held Friday night at 7 o'clock.

The common name of the cicada is "locust."
