

WHITE GIFT PLANS AT CHURCH SHAPED

The Bible school of the First Presbyterian church of which Mr. George W. McIntyre is superintendent, is to hold a "White Gift" program at the opening of the school hours, 9:45 a. m., Sunday morning. The program is in charge of the Kedron class of which Mrs. A. Theodore Smith is the teacher.

Miss May Phinney, president of the class, is to take the part of the Spirit of Christmas, summing up the school through members of the various departments to present their gifts at the foot of the cross for the relief of the needy. The cradle roll superintendent, Mrs. A. C. Weed, will represent the babies with one or more members of that department.

Mrs. Victor Lee Goodnight, superintendent of the Beginner's department, with two or more members of that department, will represent the little children from three to six. Mrs. A. M. Coffler, superintendent of the primary department with some primary children, will represent that department. Arthur Dixon, superintendent of the Junior department, with representatives of that age, will present the Junior's gifts.

In the upper grades the various classes will have special representatives. Gifts of groceries, canned goods, fruits, vegetables, candy, toys, and money will be received and be used to bring Christmas to the needy, who otherwise might not have a real Christmas.

Kiddies Put In Bids To Santa Claus; Letters Printed Here

Deviating from a custom established several years ago, The Evening Herald and Klamath News is not sponsoring a Christmas program for the kiddies this year. In spite of this fact, Santa Claus letters are being mailed to the office. Letters received this week follow:

Fear of Skates
Dear Santa: I hope you have a happy Xmas. I want a pair of ice skates and a sled. My name is Billy Edmunson.

Send Dump Truck
Klamath Falls, Ore. November 29, 1931.
Please get me a little dump truck. I'd like to have a train that has a cook car on the back of it. Now I want a little radio and a little horn that blows easily and don't break easily. I want a little fire engine. I have a little baby brother and I'd like for you to bring him a little street car and little tiny fire engine. I'd like to have a house that has an up stairs. Now I want a cook stove. I'd like to have a caterpillar and a plow. I'd like a hammer, saw, measure square and a place for nails.
Lots of love,
Garret Dean.

Wants Riding Brille
Tule Lake, December 7.
Dear Santa Claus: I want a riding bridle for my pony, between my brother and I. My 3 sisters want a doll each and a brother. Your friend, Bobby Caldwell.

WANTS TEDDY BEAR
Dear Santa: My brother is writing you a letter to tell what I want for Xmas. I want a Teddy Bear and an airplane. Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you what my name is. It is Charles Caldwell. Yours truly, Charles Caldwell.

Age 7, Birthday March 10
Dear Santa: I am writing the things that I want for Christmas. I want two dolls sitting up at the table and a little house for them, a trunk to put my dolls clothes in, and a ring for myself and a ring for my dolls, a necklace for my dolls, and a sewing machine.

Shirley Writes
My name is Shirley Newman and I have a little sister Joan. We are both good girls and like you, Santa Claus. We want you to bring us each a doll, and a table and chair and some dishes. Bring mamma and daddy something, too.
Shirley Newman, age three.

Elks Lodge Will Sponsor Event

"Old clothes" night will be observed by the Elks lodge January 7, it was decided Thursday evening. The next two scheduled meetings of the lodge, which would come on Christmas eve and New Year's eve, have been cancelled.

Each member is requested to bring old clothes to the January 7 meeting and the person bringing the largest bundle will be given a prize. The clothes will be given to the Klamath P. T. A. council for its service shop.

An entertainment and feed is also being planned for the meeting, of which Bert Hall is chairman.

PRESBYTERIANS TO GIVE XMAS PROGRAM

Christmas music will be presented at morning service of the First Presbyterian church next Sunday instead of at the evening service as has always been the custom heretofore, according to Rev. A. Theodore Smith, pastor.

The Christmas musical program is under the direction of Miss Augusta Parker, and will take up the entire morning hour. There will be no sermon, but a part of the Gospel record of the first Christmas will be read by the Pastor.

The morning program at 11 o'clock follows:
Organ prelude, "Sanctus," Gounod.
Silent Night, by the full choir.
Processional, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing"
Call to Worship, Doxology, Invocation, and Lord's Prayer, "Gloria"
Anthem, "The Birthday of a

King," by Neiginger, by the Chorus.
Scripture Reading by the pastor.
Hymn, "Joy to the World," by the congregation.
Tenor solo, "Hail, Holy Child", Neidlinger, Mr. Ben Staats.
Anthem, "Christmas," Shelly, by the chorus.
Offertory, "March of the Magi Kings" by Dubois.
Soprano solo, "When Christ was Born," Stuits, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas.
Anthem, "Brightest and Best," Coombs, by the chorus.
Hymn, "O Come, All Ye Faithful," by the congregation.
Anthem, "The People that Walked in Darkness," Rogers, by the chorus.
Announcements.
Bass solo, "The Infant Jesus," You, by Mr. George Myers.
Anthem, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," by the choir.
Prayer by the pastor.
Anthem, "There Were Wise Men," Vincent, by the chorus.
Benediction.
Oregon Postlude, "Hosanna," Armstrong.
The evening program is at 7:30 o'clock and is in charge of Miss Dorothy A. Smith, who with the high school group of the Bible school, presents the pageant, "The Nativity." The program consists of three scenes, the temple scene when the birth of John the baptist is announced, the annunciation to Mary, and the nativity scene.

The cast of characters is: The Virgin Mary, Marie Collier; Joseph the husband of Mary, Joe Bowdoin; the high priest, Harold Van Duker; the angel, Ethel Mae Driscoll; the wise men, Bob Van Duker, Greer Drew, and Frank Drew; the shepherds, Mr. Alfred Collier's class of boys; the reader of the Gospel stories, the pastor, Rev. A. Theodore Smith. Beginning the service, between the various scenes, and at the close the choir of young people will sing familiar Christmas carols.

This program is one of the finest ever written centering in the nativity of the Lord.

Mrs. George W. McIntyre, organist, will play at both services.

TWO MEN EXECUTED AT TEXAS PRISON

HUNTSVILLE, Texas, Dec. 18, Friday—(UP)—Two men, one white, the other a negro, were put to death in the electric chair in Huntsville penitentiary today.

Wills Fritts, 41, Haskell county farmer, was electrocuted first. Barney Lee Bloss, 23, Morris county negro, followed him in five minutes. Fritts was sentenced to death for the murder of D. W. Hamilton, a neighbor whom he killed after an argument over grand jury testimony. He also killed Earl Hamilton, the neighbor's son.

Ross was electrocuted for criminal assault on a white woman. Fritts was given the first application of current at 12:04 a. m., and pronounced dead at 12:13 a. m. Ross was placed in the chair at 12:19 a. m. and pronounced dead at 12:26 a. m.
