HEN TURKEYS SELL HIGHER THAN TOMS

PORTLAND, Dec. 21. (AP)—Reversing usual market conditions, the price of hen turkeys on the Portland market is now definitely established at an advance of 2 cents a pound over the quotations of toms.

The sales to the local trade over Sunday appears to have been fully satisfactory, according to E. J. Dixon of the local co-operative.

Arrival of turkeys Sunday was somewhat disappointing to wholesale trade. The complaint was heard that many local growers are "peddling" their supplies from one place to another, occasionally disposing of them to retailers at a price lower than offered by wholesalers.

MARKET QUOTATIONS

WHEAT WEAK

PORTLAND, Dec. 21. (AP)—With no sales—the ideas of buyers and sellers being far apart—there was a weaker tone in the Monday session of the Portland futures market. December 1931 wheat was quoted at 1.00-1.01, and May 1932 at 1.00-1.01. The merchants' exchange wheat lost 1c bu.

CHEESE MARKET UNSTEADY

PORTLAND, Dec. 21. (AP)—While there was no change in the price of cheese at any of the leading American centers for the week's opening, undertone of the market is by no means steady. Dulness permeates the trade generally in practically all sections, notwithstanding the extreme low price list now effective.

BUTTERFAT DOWN

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21. (AP)—California dairymen faced lower prices for butterfat today as the result of recent generous rains. The basis price here fell 1 1/2 cents a pound to 27 1/2 cents.

GRAIN VALUES RECEDE

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. (AP)—Grain values receded in the late dealings today owing more or less to disappointment over the decrease in the United States visible supply total being smaller than had generally been looked for. The decrease for the week amounted to but 1,135,000 bushels, compared with 4,145,000 bushels, compared the week previous. Export demand for North American wheat lacked volume, new business being only 600,000 bushels.

Wheat closed unstable, 1/2c to 1 1/2c under Saturday's finish. Corn 1/2c to 1 1/2c down, oats 1/2c to 1/2c off, and provisions varying from 1/2c setback to 1/2c advance.

MIDDAY GAIN HIT BY LATE SELLING

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (AP)—Late selling of the oil and copper shares was somewhat depressing to the stock market today, and cancelled most of a midday upturn. The market was quiet, with total transfers well under two million shares, but the closing tone was heavy, with several issues off 1 to 2 points. The market as a whole maintained a fairly confident tone during most of the day, with further signs of good support appearing in bonds.

holy Garden," famous Goldwyn's latest production starring Ronald Colman, now playing at the Vox theatre.

Algeria, with its sand dunes and mosques and patches of tropical jungle, is the scene in which Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur laid this thrilling melodrama and Fogarty enjoyed his "artist's" holiday in devising its settings.

The artist, a Hungarian, won his first American fame several years ago with the Metropolitan Opera in New York.

RAINBOW
Urrula Parrott must have Norma Shearer in mind when she creates heroines for her novels. For in "Strangers May Kiss," as in "The Divorcee," Miss Shearer steps gracefully into the leading role and wraps it about her with a certain assurance of possession. Indeed, this reviewer can imagine the role in no other hands.

PINE TREE
Winnie Lightner has a wonderful time in "Side Show" which is now at the Pine Tree. Winnie does everything. She smokes as one of the angles of a love triangle, and she substitutes for most of the circus freaks, one after another, when they become temperamental.

Other notable members of the cast are Charles Butterworth, Evelyn Knapp, Donald Cook and Guy Kibbee.

Incidental offerings include a news reel, and a rollicking comedy entitled "Howdy Mate."

Furs & Fur Coats

LOVELY scarfs, lovely coats—the most wonderful Christmas Gifts any woman could receive—and probably the most beautiful selection we have ever shown. Gray squirrel, caracul, muskrat, raccoon, in fact every one of the choice furs—all are the finest, most carefully matched skins, all are well-made and high in fashion character. The low prices are almost a miracle—lower than they've been even this year of low priced furs, and lower than they'll be again for years. This is the Christmas to buy her a coat that she will wear with pride for at least three—probably four or five—years.
