RESTORATION TO ENTRY OF LANDS IN NATIONAL FOREST. (List 6-2164 "C"Mam. 1433079). Notice is hereby given that the lands described below, within the Crater National Forest, will be open to settlement and entry at the United States Land Office at Lakeview, Oregon, under the provisions of the homestead law and act of June —, 1906 (34 Stat., 233), on June 1, 1932, by any qualified person in the absence of entry by persons coming within either of the two following classes: (1) Persons named after each tract upon whose application the lands were listed, if any, who, in order to avail themselves of the preference right, must file their application within sixty days prior to date of opening; (2) Ex-service men, who, in order to avail themselves of the preference right conferred by Congress under Public Resolution No. 85, approved June 12, 1930, may file application within one hundred ten days prior to date of opening. All such applications filed within the first twenty days of this period will be treated as simultaneously filed at 9 a. m. on the ninetieth day prior to date of opening. Applications by ex-service men thereafter, but prior to date of opening, will be treated in the order in which filed. The general public may file applications within twenty days prior to opening date. These will be treated as simultaneously filed at 9 a. m. on date of opening, but no application will be allowed prior thereto. SALLIES

Rails and roads are reported blocked by snow, making us realize how easy it would be to paralyze commerce by storms. Snow plows are used to clear the roads.

Perhaps your financial affairs have been impeded by the storms of hard times. In that case, I suggest that you use News and Herald classified ads as your plow back to prosperity.

Mrs. Walter West, 204 S. Riverside, ran a classified ad to obtain magazine subscriptions. It was only a small ad, but it brought many dollars to the advertiser. With an example before you, a word to the wise (and needy) ought to be sufficient.

Yours for RESULTS.

SALLY.

Comforters Made By Ladies' Club For Relief Work

MERRILL, Ore.—Ladies of the club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. H. Anderson when two comforters were tied, and work was done on layettes and dolls. Mrs. P. McNeil donated a quilt which was sold at the dance Friday evening for $14.

Mrs. Fred Stukel and Mrs. F. W. Brown are on the committee to fill boxes for the needy. The P.-T. A. committee is composed of Mrs. Ivy Stukel and Mrs. Otto Ellis.

Those present Thursday were Mesdames J. S. Johnson, H. O. Cox, F. W. Brown, Ray Merrill, M. A. and L. Bowman, P. McNeil, Crawford, R. H. and R. C. Anderson, W. Walker, L. A. Blake, V. F. Myers, R. L. Dalton, H. Heaton, J. C. Stevenson, E. C. Stukel, Ted Nelson, R. W. and J. R. Stiel, Scott McKendree, DeLap, Charles Snyder and Miss Wylie Walker.

Amusements

Pelican — Now playing, Seth Parker, in "Way Back Home."

Vox—Now playing, Joan Crawford and Clark Gable, in "Possessed."

Rainbow—Richard Barthelmess in "The Lash."

Pine Tree—Coming Thursday: Chic Sale and Walter Huston in "The Star Witness."

PELICAN

One of the many thrills in "Way Back Home," the Seth Parker film now at the Pelican.

Combining a wistful, rural simplicity with a stern drama as rugged as the Maine coast, Seth Parker, of broadcast fame, made an auspicious screen debut at the Pelican theater in RKO-Radio Pictures' "Way Back Home."

The film is a pleasing diversion reminiscent of the vigor, the spontaneous humor and homey rustic atmosphere of the immortal "Way Down East." In it the currently popular Parker brings to the screen for the first time the simple philosophies, the nobility and uncompromising valor of country people in times of stress.

VOX

Those feminine movie-goers who take a special interest in the clothes worn by the stars of their sex will find an extraordinarily ample feast for their eyes in "Possessed," Joan Crawford's new starring vehicle now playing at the Vox theater.

RAINBOW

There isn't such a thing as a synthetic cattle stampede, even in the movies. When several thousand long-horn, bald-face Texan steers were stampeded through the streets of a village as part of a sequence in "The Lash," Richard Barthelmess' latest picture, at the Rainbow theater, it took 14 cowboys the rest of the day to collect them from the hills of the Malibu Rancho, the locale of this First National production.

PINE TREE

Manager Poole of the Rainbow theater is pleased to announce tomorrow as the opening date of "The Star Witness," the Warner Bros. production featuring Charles (Chic) Sale and Walter Huston.

When you see Chic Sale in "The Star Witness" you will be meeting an old friend, for he plays his Grandpa Summerill—the man who knew Lincoln—a part which he has played all over the country.

Lester Stebbins Better—Lester Stebbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stebbins of Klamath Falls, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident in Grants Pass the last of the week, is improving, according to word received here. He is still confined to a Grants Pass hospital, however, and examinations revealed that he has a slight concussion of the brain.

INITIATION HELD AT GRANGE MEET

MERRILL, Ore.—At a meeting of the Merrill grange held Tuesday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Haskins were initiated.

After the meeting the following program was given: "An Old Maids' Tea Party," with Mrs. H. N. Bogue, Mrs. W. C. Bailey and Mrs. J. S. Johnson in the cast; Mrs. Turnbaugh entertained with a vocal number and the ladies' chorus sang one number. Visitors were present from Henley and Bly.

The women will be guests at a banquet in the near future. The meeting dates have been changed from the first and third Tuesdays to the second and fourth Mondays. The Merrill grange will entertain Pomona grange, Saturday, January 9.

Officers elected by the grange for the coming year include: Master, Walter Strauss; overseer, J. L. Pope; steward, Arthur Frazier; secretary, J. L. Fotheringham; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Frazier; chaplain, Mrs. J. L. Fotheringham; assistant steward, Myron Haskins; Pomona, Dorothy Haskins; Flora, Frances Guimon; Ora Burkes, Ceres; L. Andrieu, gatekeeper; lady assistant, Annabel Fotheringham; lecturer, Mrs. J. W. Taylor; musician, Verna Haskins; executive committee, C. N. Haskins.

Dance Held At Community Hall

MERRILL, Ore.—An old-fashioned dance given at the Community hall, Friday evening, as a get-together for the Merrill people was well attended. Music was furnished by the Kiger orchestra. Doughnuts and cider were served later in the evening.

Ladies' Aid Will Assist With Relief Work at Merrill

MERRILL, Ore. — Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Aid met at the church annex when ways and means were discussed to provide aid for needy persons.

A committee composed of Mrs. Thomas A. Blake, Mrs. J. W. Scoggins and Mrs. E. C. Stukel was appointed to work with committees from other organizations, to fill boxes.

Mrs. Jinnette was in charge of the short program which followed the business session and included a reading by Mrs. Lee Dickson, and songs by Paula Blanton and Ivy Jane Haskins.

Those present were Mesdames J. W. Scoggins, W. F. Jinnette, T. A. Blake, W. F. Fruits, E. C. Stukel, Anice Anderson, H. J. Beardsley, H. P. Blanton, M. A. and C. Bowman, J. L. Haskins, Lee Dickson, R. F. Tolle and P. D. Lewis.

Taxpayers Hold Meet at Merrill

MERRILL, Ore. — A meeting of the Taxpayers' league was held at the city hall Tuesday evening, when a number of points in regard to taxation were discussed. The small size of the crowd was believed due to the fact that the meeting was not well advertised, since the ranchers of this district are keenly interested in taxation.

In Hospital—Mrs. Nellie Herrich of Fort Klamath is a patient in the Klamath Valley hospital where she will undergo a major operation within a few days. Mrs. Herrich was taken suddenly ill on Christmas eve.

DAMAGE LEFT IN WAKE OF STORM

ALGOMA, Ore. — The severe wind storm which hit the Klamath basin Saturday caused considerable damage at Algoma. A severe explosion occurred in the electric sub-station near Hagelstein's dairy, shattering light globes in buildings at Uhrman's station.

One of the large, old trees near a ranch house owned by the Algoma Lumber company, and now occupied by Conroys and Barretts, was blown down. The roof of the planing mill was also blown off.

The community has received a heavy snowfall and chains are necessary.

Services Held By Light of Candles

MERRILL, Ore. — The candle light services held at the Presbyterian church, Sunday, under the direction of Rev. S. H. Jewell, was impressive.

The program started with the early prophesies and continued down through the ages to the birth of Christ. Carols were sung by candle light. The chorus of the Junior, Intermediate and Senior Christian Endeavors was composed of nearly 150 voices. Music was provided by a stringed orchestra of eight pieces.

Don't forget the second annual New Year's Eve Masque Ball, Merrill, Oregon, sponsored by Tule Lake American Legion Post No. 164.—Adv.
