LEAGUE HEARS OBJECTIONS TO HARRY DAILEY

pay $200 a month for a building inspector with as little building construction going on.

Supplied Funds

Since the complaint was made up Elliott told the taxpayers that Dailey is paid not only $200 a month for his services, but is also supplied with funds for office and traveling expenditures. He maintained that Dailey is using gas supplied by the city for his own use. In offering proof of this statement, the attorney stated that his clients made an investigation of the number of gallons of gas used by Dailey, which averaged 73 gallons a month. In August, Elliott claimed Dailey used 67 gallons of city gas and in December, 1931, he used 79 gallons.

"There is something peculiar about those figures. Why the difference? If it had been the other way around, there would be little question as to Dailey's mileage and gas. In 20 working days Dailey probably travels 70 miles a day, and there is not enough building inspection at the present time to justify that mileage," Elliott said.

In attempting to check the gas that Dailey used Elliott said it was almost impossible to check accurately on the gas used by city employes. "They just back their cars up to the pump, and pump it in. It is almost impossible to check it."

In recommending Dailey's dismissal Elliott made the following statement:

"We do not believe that it is necessary for the city of Klamath Falls to pay that amount for the maintenance of a building inspector. How many of you men of the city of Klamath Falls, during the last few days, have noticed the small number of buildings going up? Do you think it is wise for the city to pay $200 a month to have those few buildings inspected?

Records Given

Records show that during December, 1930, 15 residential permits, totaling $21,700, and five commercial permits, totaling $5,232.50, were issued, while during the same month of 1931, two residential permits for $350, and 13 commercial permits, totaling $4,263, aggregating only $4,613, were issued. Elliott pointed out that the city is paying as much per month for a building inspector now as it did during December, 1930, when there was $23,000 more permits issued.

"Steam-rollered"

Elliott stated further that when he appeared at the city council meeting Monday night to present the protest that his objections were "steam-rollered" through; that he expected to be given a chance to introduce his testimony, but Mayor Cofer read his report, reappointments of all city officers were made and immediately accepted, and that "after I got my breath it seemed useless to present a protest at that time."

Following reading of the protest a lengthy discussion of the charges took place, with several from the audience stating that they had heard no objections previously made against Dailey. The question of whether the city could obtain a competent building inspector, on a fee basis, to work for 30, 60 or 90 days, was brought up.

No Action Taken

The league took no action on the protest, but it was asked by Elliott to carefully consider it and to take action if members deemed it wise. Officers of the league ventured no opinions.

A. G. Morrison, secretary of the league, presented the following plan for consideration of the taxpayers with a view of cutting down expenses of city and county offices and schools:

1. Schools—To father a movement to consolidate the high school and grammar schools under one efficient management in order to cut down expenses; to insist upon a published audit of school affairs; to ask that all commodities and supplies be granted to the lowest qualified bidders, and to eliminate waste in all ways possible.

2. City—To bring pressure on the city council in the matter of the California Oregon Power company's franchise; to see that a public and complete audit of books is made periodically; ask that all city supplies be purchased in open competition; investigate and watch city salaries.

3. County—To have the league father a periodical county audit which will be made public; name a county purchasing agent; and to support the county court in elimination of the 6 per cent tax limitation increase.

In asking that periodic audits be made of city, county and school records, it was suggested that the league have its own auditor do the work. Morrison said that there are now 31 levying bodies in the county, and that various audits cost the county each year approximately $7,000, and that the work could be done for $3,000.

A communication was read requesting the league to send a representative to the meeting of the Mills P.-T. A., at 7:30, January 13, to present the league's views on school taxation and other problems. The community of Malin also requests league members to attend a forthcoming meeting in that district, the time to be set later.

A letter was read from the county court in answer to remonstrances presented by the league against passage of the county budget. The letter was signed by County Judge Fred R. Goddard, Commissioners Obenchain and Williams.

H. J. Tickner of Langell Valley, member of the Langell Valley grange committee, reported on several resolutions passed by the grange.

It was also suggested that all representatives of this district be asked to appear here before the league or its directors for instructions on policies of the league.

H. F. Murdock presented a resolution supporting Senator Borah's plan of reduction of all official salaries.

A resolution that the league be called non-partisan instead of non-political, was passed.

The invitation of the Pomona grange to send grange members of the league as a committee to a forthcoming meeting was accepted.

Catarrh Causes Head Noises and Deafness

This Method Opens Clogged Nostrils and Relieves Catarrhal Deafness

Few people realize what a serious disease catarrh really is. Deafness and head noises that drive the sufferer nearly frantic are frequently due to this complaint. Unchecked, this disgusting, dangerous ailment often destroys smell, taste and hearing, slowly undermines the general health. Its neglect may make you a wornout catarrhal wreck.

As catarrh is a disease of the blood, the only real relief comes from treating the blood itself. So go to Star Drug Co. or your druggist for an ounce of Parmint (Double Strength.) Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day. Drive the catarrhal poisons from the system by treating the blood, and the disease itself must vanish. Parmint has proved successful in so many cases because it acts directly on the blood and mucous membrane.

Life will be much more worth living if you can breathe freely again, hear plainly, smell, taste, and arise in the morning refreshed and strong, with head and throat free from phlegm. For your own sake give Parmint a trial—and with your whole system crying for relief from catarrh you should start Parmint treatment now.—Adv.

MANY HOME FOR HOLIDAY SEASON

BLY, Ore.—The holiday social season came to an end in Bly Saturday night, when the girls of the 4-H club gave a masquerade party at the local gymnasium.

A hard-time dance at the Community hall was the principal attraction New Year's eve.

Among those who were home for the holidays were Miss Ruth Campbell, teacher at Henley, and Miss Helen Campbell, a senior at St. Helen's hall in Portland, who visited their parents. Iva Hoye was home from Klamath Falls, and Miss Edwina Casebeer, a student at Ashland Normal, spent the vacation with her family.

Roehl and Dorothy Watts, with their mother and brother, Owen, were all at their ranch home from Medford where they are residing while the two older children attend high school. Lorena Hanna, Fred Bollman and his two sisters, Lela and Susan, were home for the holidays from Lakeview.

Imogene Jones, who has been attending high school in Klamath Falls, left with her parents and brother, Billy, for Los Angeles.

New Year Dance Given By Ski Club

FORT KLAMATH, Ore.—The New Year's dance given Saturday night by the Crater Lake ski club was attended by a large crowd. Music was furnished by the Jazz Pirates.

These weekly dances are sponsored by the ski club and will continue until the annual ski race to be held in February. Proceeds from the dances will be used to purchase prizes for the various events and help defray expenses. Work will be started soon on a new ski jump to be constructed at the winter playground, according to Alfred B. Castel, president of the club.

Log Hauling Is Stopped by Storms

BLY, Ore. — Recent heavy storms made difficult the trucking of logs to Crane mill, and hauling was temporarily stopped when the roads became impassable due to a thaw.

However, the mill has continued to operate with the exception of December 31, when a shut-down was ordered on account of flooding of the lumber yard. Employes of the mill enjoyed a three-day vacation from December 25 to 28.

Roads Are Opened After Heavy Snow

FORT KLAMATH, Ore.—This community is having a spell of freezing weather after the recent heavy snowfall, with the result that ranchers who were snowed in have been able to open their roads to the highway. Snow plow crews have been working overtime to keep the highways clear of snow in order that motorists will have no difficulty.

GOSS CASE GOES ON TRIAL IN COURT HERE

The case of James W. Goss versus the State Industrial Accident Commission went on trial in circuit court Thursday morning when a jury was chosen, opening statements made by respective counsel and the taking of testimony begun before the noon recess.

Goss is suing for compensation for permanent disability as the result of an injury to his leg and hip sustained in a fall while he was in the employ of the Ewauna Box company.

The plaintiff is represented by A. W. Schaupp, local attorney, while Attorney Jackson, attorney for the State Industrial Commission, and Miles McKey, assistant attorney general for the state of Oregon, are conducting the defense.

Circuit Judge W. M. Duncan is hearing the case.

Azeil Bach Files Suit for Divorce

Suit for divorce has been filed in circuit court by Azeil Bach versus William L. Bach, whom she married in Lakeview, Ore.

The plaintiff charges cruel and inhuman treatment, and asks for the custody of a 3-year-old son. She also asks for an order from the court for $35 per month for support of the child, and $50 allimony.

Woman Asks Aid In Finding Husband

Mrs. Byron Roberts, 913 Rose street, has called upon city police to aid in finding her husband whom she said left their home at 10 a. m. Tuesday and had not returned at 11:40 a. m. Wednesday.

She stated that he started to the Salvation Army to saw and cut wood. He was dressed in gray trousers and wore a red sweater. She described him as being 22 years of age, weight 175 pounds, height 5 feet and 10 inches, with blonde, wavy hair and a clear complexion.

WEATHER

The Cyclo-Stormagraph at Underwood's Pharmacy shows a slightly higher pressure again today and continued fine weather is indicated.

The Tycos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows:

High	28
Low	17

Forecast for next 24 hours: Generally fair and cool.

INDIANS BARRED FROM COUNTY JAIL

As the result of a conference Wednesday between Sheriff Lloyd Low, District Attorney Gillenwaters, Superintendent Blair of the Klamath Indian reservation and Special Indian officer Lou Mueller, no Indian wards will hereafter be accepted in the county jail unless they obtain health certificates from County Health Officer G. S. Newsom.

Because the Indian population in the county jail usually runs from 25 to 50 per cent and there is no isolation ward provided for them, all Indian law violators who cannot obtain the proper health certificates will be placed in the government jail at Chiloquin, thus relieving the congestion at the county jail and saving Klamath taxpayers a considerable sum.

TULE HOMESTEAD AWARDS TO BE MADE

Eligible applicants for Tule Lake homesteads will receive notification of awards of land by the end of January, according to B. E. Hayden, superintendent of the Klamath reclamation project.

The last meeting of the examining board was held at the reclamation building Thursday, when applicants were called in for the fourth time for personal examination.

The board will spend the rest of the month examining candidates papers and qualifications, making public the homestead awards by the last of the month.

Applications for the 67 homestead tracts opened to bid of ex-service men closed November 15, 1931. Competition was keen in the bidding, with more than 150 submitting bids for the land.

AUTOS COLLIDE

A. B. Moore, 31 Main street, and Bill Conklin, Acme Motor company, reported to police Thursday that their cars were in a collision Wednesday morning when their cars skidded on icy pavement at the foot of the South Sixth street viaduct, Sixth and Spring streets.

Apparently I must play loose ladies.—Ruth Chatterton, movie actress.

THEATRE COMPLETES PLANS FOR PROGRAM

Plans for the first amateur night performance to be sponsored by the Pine Tree theatre next Friday night, are nearing completion, according to Harry Poole.

In addition to the amateur acts a dance review of varied acts will be presented.

The amateur contest is still open to entrants and the management of the Pine Tree theatre will receive any applicants until 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Those planning to enter are asked to notify James Henson. A feature, "Reckless Living" will also be shown Friday night.

FUNERAL NOTICES

WILLIAM CRANE.

William, infant son of George and Lounita Crane, passed away at the family residence in Chiloquin, Thursday at 6:30 a. m., following a brief illness. The child was born Sept. 25, 1931, and was aged 3 months and 10 days. In addition to his parents he leaves a sister, Rachael, and two brothers, James and John. The remains are in the Baby Nook of the Klamath Funeral Home, 925 High street, where friends may call. Last rites will be held at the graveside in Chief Sconchin cemetery Saturday, January 9, at 1 p. m.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Fees Not Required of State Officers

SALEM, Jan. 7 (AP)—State officers acting in their official capacities are not required to pay fees to county clerks for preparing and certifying transcripts on appeal or copies of other files in civil cases, Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle held in an opinion given today. The request for an opinion was made by Loutus L. Langley, district attorney of Multnomah county.

The opinion held that since such transcript on appeal is a necessary expense in connection with such appeal, therefore the state is exempt from payment of such fees.
