

CHIEF TO GET NOTICES FROM COMMISSION

Official notices will be presented to the chief of the fire department, E. A. Taylor, and the chief of police, Guy Merrill, today of the action of the civil service commission Tuesday.

Police Judge Roy Fouch stated that the orders of the commission to him to answer the letter of the police chief and to certify to the chief the names of 16 men eligible to positions will also be submitted.

The police chief will be notified that he has 10 days from the date of the commission meeting to make his appointments from the list submitted and that the probation time of six months will start for each officer from the date of his appointment by the chief under civil service.

No protests have so far been filed with the secretary of the commission by policemen who have been laid off or suspended since March 2, 1931, when the rules and regulations were adopted by the civil service board.

DEVERS TELLS NEED OF MORE RELIEF MONEY

iousness of unemployment and the need in Klamath, Lake, Union, Baker and Clatsop counties, Devers said. Nothing more can be done to give the necessary aid unless the commission extends more money for emergency work, he said.

"The commission should either decide to sell more bonds for such relief or notify the counties that the maximum has been done," Devers reiterated. Virtually every county in the state has written for more funds, and the list of unemployed appears to be on the increase," he said.

Devers is preparing a revised report of conditions in each county, to submit to the governor. Reports from eleven counties indicate a general increase in unemployment, with about three-fourths of the number in dire need. The percentage of the latter class has increased about 50 per cent during the past few months, he said.

Culbertson Lead Suffers Heavy Cut

the general commander as a great pinch hitter. For 41 rubbers in which Liggett has played in place of Oswald Jacoby, who has a dispute with Lenz, the plus of Lenz's side is 8,070 points, making it virtually as impossible for Liggett to have a deficit as for Lenz to win the match.

Culbertson to Play Mrs. Culbertson will be opposite her husband at the card table again tonight. For the 53 rubbers in which she has taken part the plus of Culbertson's side is only 155 points.

Before last night's session Culbertson praised Schenken for precision in bidding and play, and said his fault, if any, was his excessive soundness. Comment on hands dictated by Culbertson during the session indicated that he believed a misplay by Schenken was responsible once for Liggett winning game and rubber and also that Schenken's bids could have been better.

Had Better Hands Lenz and Liggett had a far better run of hands, and might have gained more points by a few doubles. Culbertson and Schenken took sundry sets, vulnerable and non-vulnerable, without undue punishment.

One hand showing Culbertson's dissatisfaction with Schenken was $26, on which the contract was three spades. Culbertson made four. He commented: "Game laid down. H. S. should double, not over-call, to give a proper inference of strength."

Man Not Lost, But His Auto Was Stuck

Byron Roberts, 913 Rose street, was not lost Wednesday when he failed to return home and his wife became anxious and called the aid of police in finding him. It was learned Friday.

Roberts had gone to Sprague River to see about getting work, the car he was in became stuck, and he was unavoidably detained in returning.

WEATHER

The Cyclo-Thermograph at Underwood Pharmacy shows that the barometric pressure has been quite stable during the last 24 hours although the trend at noon today was slightly downward. No great change in weather conditions seems probable.

The Tycoos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows: High, 25; Low, 21.

Forecast for next 24 hours: Generally fair with continued moderate temperatures.

ELKS GIVE CLOTHING TO P. T. A. PROJECT

A wagon load of clean, old clothes was turned into the Elks club Thursday night to be turned over to the Parent-Teachers' association service shop, which will give the clothes to needy families.

The clothes ranged from baby clothes to suits for men and dresses and stockings for women. Arthur Macken of Malin won the prize for bringing the largest bundle, with a collection weighing more than 100 pounds. About 75 bundles of old clothes were turned in by the Elks, with every member attending bringing a bundle.

Sheriff Lloyd Low admitted he had no old clothes, and presented a supply of bundles which have been at a local laundry unclaimed for more than a year. He purchased the clothes and presented them as his donation.

the county court, which turned down their request for a $75,000 cut in the Klamath county budget, they are believed to be interested in finding friends from whom they are believed to be interested they may secure support.

The 1008 heads of families are not expected to feel particularly happy over the refusal to place money in the budget to assist in relief work this winter.

Major C. H. Underwood, chairman of the Klamath county relief committee, states that he expects next week to decide upon a date for a meeting of the committee within ten days from the date of call. There are positions to be filled in the committee and the committee will look toward having candidates from each of the 36 precincts of the county on the ballot in order that a strong central committee will be elected and organized after the primaries.

City officers are nominated by petition in the fall, and the city campaigns are not expected to develop before July.

Record Claimed By Bigger Liars

came back to the ranch about an hour later and found that we had 374 rabbits in the truck.

"We can't imagine what the men on Nelson Reed's team did with their time when they went out. Here we weren't even hunting and brought back more game than they did. We didn't even count the three deer and ten china pheasants either. Well that's the way it goes. However now that we have our bearings expect to put on a hunt sometime within the next week. We have the rabbits located and we will hang up a record that will probably stand supreme for all future time against any competition just as our present bag, killed when we weren't even working at it, tops that of the city boys who have been doing so much loud talking recently."

"By the way if any of them would like a little practice tell them to borrow guns some day and some of us will give them lessons out at the traps. Until then of course there isn't any chance for them to compete with us when it comes to hunting."

Dunn invites any sceptic on the Reed team to count the kill of Thursday and swears that all the foregoing is absolute truth.

Police said tonight they had reports indicating that the Korean, Rihoocho, was sent here by the provisional Korean government at Shanghai, having been given about $150 expense money to stimulate the Korean independence movement.

The incident occurred as the carriage of Count Makino was turning into the palace ground through the famous Sakurada-mon, or cherry field, gate where a number of statesmen were assassinated during Japan's reconstruction period.

EDITORS' POLL INDICATES DEMO VICTORY IN 1932

NEW YORK, Jan. 7, (AP)—The majority of newspaper editors in the United States believe that a democratic, probably Governor Roosevelt of New York or Newton D. Baker of Ohio, will be the next president, a nation-wide survey by the Magazine Publishers' service, indicated today.

Three hundred and five out of 592 editors of daily newspapers who answered the magazine's questionnaire, predicted a democratic president. Only 145 predicted republican victory, while 140 declined to venture an opinion. One editor predicted "republicans with Coolidge only."

The questionnaire was sent to all daily newspaper editors in the United States, totalling 1,925. About one-third of the editors answered the questionnaire. The magazine believes results of the survey to represent a true cross-section of sentiment among all newspaper editors in the country. Embraced in the survey are the votes and exclusive editorial opinion of the largest metropolitan dailies, as well as the smallest county dailies.

Outstanding surprise facts indicated by the survey are these: 1—That whereas 209 of the 591 newspapers will definitely support the republican nominee, only 145 believe that a republican candidate can be elected.

2—That, whereas the democratic candidate is assured of the support of only 153 of the 591 papers, 305 believe the democratic candidate will be elected.

tion, which, it was assumed then, did not call for a reply.

Sovereignty Recognized Japan, he said, recognizes, as has often been stated, China's sovereignty over Manchuria, but it is the contention of the government that no actual authority has ever existed there. The hoisting of the Sun Yat Sen flag in 1928 by Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang, he said, was a mere pretext, and even Marshal Chang's acceptance of a vice commandship in the Nanking army and navy was without any real meaning.

Marshal Chang, he said, never commended Nanking regarding his policies. He appointed his own railroad and other commissions. Regarding Manchuria's future, Tokyo holds, he said that neither Japan nor any third power ought to attempt to interfere with the Chinese establishing their own government in Manchuria in accordance with the principle of self-determination. Japan's military action, he said, has not infringed the Kellogg pact because Japan acted, and is acting, entirely in self-defense, "which is the fundamental right of a nation to its existence, recognized both by the nine-power pact and the Kellogg pact."

NANKING, China, Jan. 8, (AP)—Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs Kan Chao Hui, in addressing a group of students today, said China would invoke Article 16 of the League of Nations covenant in the Manchurian dispute at the next meeting of the council on January 25.

Article 16 of the League of Nations covenant reads in part as follows: "Should any member of the league resort to war in disregard of its covenants under Article 12, 13 or 15, it shall ipso facto be deemed to have committed an act of war against all other members of the league, which hereby undertake immediately to subject it to the severance of all trade or financial relations, the prohibition of all intercourse between their nationals and the nationals of the covenant-breaking state, and the prevention of all financial, commercial or personal intercourse between the nationals of the covenant-breaking state and the nationals of any other state, whether a member of the league or not."

It shall be the duty of the council in such case to recommend to the several governments concerned what effective military, naval or air force the members of the league shall severally contribute to the armed force to be used to protect the covenants of the league."

against W. C. Hawley and that "there is some expectation" Harvey Starkweather may elect to join with Dezell for the same job.

Further, the paper says "there has been the rumor that Walter Pierce will confess his ambition to run for congress in the second district, though there is a rumor of somewhat later vintage that he intends to withhold any commitment until after Bert Haney has said what he intends to do about the senatorship. Should Haney run for the senate, then Pierce will run for congress, so it is hoped, but should Haney decide not to be a candidate then it is expected that Pierce will become a senatorial candidate."

The Klamath democratic central committee recently passed a resolution favoring the candidacy of Bert E. Haney for United States senator. William A. Dell is a former postmaster of Klamath Falls and is the father of T. W. Dell, assistant manager of the California-Oregon Power company.

No democrats from Klamath county will attend the Jackson day meeting and banquet in Portland tonight so far as could be learned Friday.

AUTHOR OF FAMOUS TARIFF BILL DIES

SAGINAW, Mich., Jan. 8, (AP)—Joseph Warren Fordney, member of congress for 24 years, and co-author of the Fordney-McCumber tariff of 1921, died at his home here at 7:05 a. m. today. He was 78 years old.

He had been in ill health for months, but death was caused by an attack of erysipelas, which developed Sunday. He had been in virtual retirement since 1923, when he completed his twelfth consecutive term in congress as representative of the Eighth Michigan district.

Known affectionately to his constituents as "Uncle Joe" Fordney for nearly a quarter of a century, he was a leader among the so-called protectionists, and the 1921 tariff bill to which he gave his name was largely written by him.

COUNTY SHARE OF CAR MONEY NAMED

SALEM, Jan. 8, (AP)—Counties today were apportioned $40,954 as their one-third share of the fees collected by the secretary of state for motor vehicle license and operators license for the last three months of 1931. A total of $122,853 was collected, of which the state highway commission will receive $31,909. The last quarter of the year shows the smallest distribution of the fund the secretary of state reported.

Multnomah county's share of the fund is $13,595; Lane county, $2,398; Marion county, $2,382; Klamath county, $2,487; Baker, $310; Benton, $289; Coos, $1,285; Douglas, $1,158; Jackson, $1,833; Josephine, $79; Umatilla county, $1,121; Union, $770; Clackamas, $1,549; and Washington, $1,152.

The counties also were apportioned $12,489 in addition as their one-fourth share of the motor transportation fund. The highway commission received three-fourths of this fund, or $37,469.
