Legal Notices
WASHINGTON, Jan. 13, (UP)—College students throughout the country are drinking hard liquor and some in the University of Michigan are selling it to pay their way through school.

Legal Notices
Before a senate committee holding hearings on bills to provide four per cent beer, Clancy, young graduate of the University of Michigan and a former newspaper reporter, said he had evidence from present day students at his own school of the widespread drinking of hard liquor.

Legal Notices
NOGALES, Ariz., Jan. 13, (UP)—Clyde M. Hirstow, 45, mounted customs officer, was shot and killed tonight by one of two men Hirstow and another officer had surprised in the act of transporting liquor from Nogales to Tucson.

Legal Notices
According to Charles Jones, the other officer, he and Hirstow challenged a small car on the Tucson highway about 15 miles north of Nogales. As Jones started to walk toward the other car, one of the men fired, missing Hirstow, leaped from the car, shooting and received two bullets in the stomach as his feet hit the highway.
