SALLIES

Yesterday a gentleman came into the office and told me in quite strong language that this was the first town he had ever been in where he couldn't find wood for sale advertised in the classified. We told him where to get some and he went away somewhat pacified.

This surely illustrates how people look in the classified first. Everyone that has wood for sale should have a small ad in the classified columns all during the winter. The cost is small.

Legal Notices

the 23rd day of January, A. D. 1932, in the above entitled action, wherein Iri Davis and Vale Davis, the above-named plaintiffs, obtained a judgment and decree against the defendants, R. H. Thew, Esther G. Thew, James W. Irvine and Catherine E. Irvine, on the 23rd day of January, A. D. 1932, which said decree was duly entered of record on said date, I am commanded to sell all that certain lot, piece and parcel of land situated in the County of Klamath, State of Oregon, and bounded and particularly described as follows, to-wit:

The Southeast Quarter of Section Six, the Southwest Quarter of Section Five, the Southwest fourth of the Northwest quarter of Sec. Five, and all that part of the Northwest quarter of Section Five lying and being south of the Langell Valley Market Road running through said section five; all being situated in Township Forty-two north and Range Thirteen East, Willamette Meridian, containing four hundred acres, more or less.

Notice is hereby given that on the 25th day of February, 1932, at Two o'clock p. m. of that day, in front of the court house in the County of Klamath and in the City of Klamath Falls, Oregon, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy plaintiff's judgment with interest and costs, to the highest and best bidder for cash, in gold coin of the United States.
