

Sandehl Wrecks Gymnasium

"Terrible Swede" Runs Amuck With Word Ray Frisbie Will Referee Monday's Wrestling Program...

By JOE PIGNEY

Bill Sandehl, a suspicious gentleman when aroused, burst down the Copco gymnasium doors Saturday...

"I think I can beat Tom Ray, but I won't guarantee to throw him if I have to take Sandehl spotted shortly after a wrecking crew had gone to work patching up damages to the gymnasium...

Sandehl, he it remembered, nourishes a private hatred in his terrible Swedish heart, and Frisbie, the whole of that hatred, returns the dislike to intensely he trains on Scandinavian crackers and marmalade...

Frisbie and Sandehl roughed each other months ago in something of same manner a cowboy would bull-dog a steer, but the match came to the unsatisfactory conclusion...

This second encounter—like the first—came to an indefinite termination. Frisbie and Sandehl, after weeks of verbal scuffling, knocked each other cold in a bar-nothing animal-battle.

Each claimed a "moral" victory, and a third and final match has been hanging fire since long before the battle of Shanghai hit the front page of the world's newspapers.

Now Bill had just returned to training after a long absence from the ring when he met Frisbie. This rough led played havoc with Bill's carefully made comeback plans...

Guy Merrill, chief of police, has considered the peace and quiet of Klamath Falls, and after the second blood-flowing skirmish between the Tiger and the Swede, he tentatively set his foot down on a third promotion...

Although the fact that Frisbie might be the third man in the ring Monday doesn't actually constitute an excuse for a resumption of hostilities, Merrill probably will take more than ordinary precautions by detaching a sub-machine gun squad to the Legion hall.

Ray Frisbie will enter the ring—if he is to be the referee—in an ugly mood. Frisbie is the temperamental sort of matman cultivating showmanship as a necessary adjunct to wrestling smartness.

Frisbie is thoroughly normal in the deep-rooted desire to win, and when he gets dumped over it's weeks before he recovers any sort of even disposition. Ray was badly pinned at Eugene Friday night by Roland Kirchmeyer, Oklahoma, and the resentment won't be out of his system by Monday...

Lava Bears Crush Pelican Team, 35 - 22

BEND QUINTET TAKES EARLY LEAD FOR WIN

By JIM SLUSSER

Klamath Hi Correspondent

Gaining partial revenge for three previous defeats, the Lava Bears of Bend stung the Pelican quintet with a 35 to 22 defeat Saturday night in the Klamath high gym.

Erickson started the Bend fireworks with the first three points of the battle. With this start the Bears kept it up until they had 12 points at the end of the quarter. All the Klamath scoring in this period excepting a one-hand shot by Sheets, was on foul shots.

Haines, the aggressive forward of the visitors, led his team's attack with 14 tallies. Estes and Allen led for the Pelicans with nine points apiece. Haines was really "on" for he rarely missed a goal.

Continuing their scoring deluge the Bears had a total of 19 chalked up at the end of the half, as compared to the nine markers for the Klamath team.

Coming out for the second half seemingly determined to do some better work, the Pelicans netted the first three points of this period. This spurt was short-lived, however, as the visitors soon resumed basket shooting with unobtrusive regularity.

TWO RECORDS FALL, ANOTHER TIED IN RACES

NEW YORK, Feb. 8. (AP)—The figures tell the story of a determined pre-Olympic charge by America's track and field stars here over the week-end—two world indoor marks smashed and another tied.

Three youths: Gene Venzke, George Spitz and Emmett Toppino—unheard of nationally when the last Olympics were run off at Amsterdam in 1928, accounted for these brilliant performances.

Oustrine Narmi, Ray Venzke, a formidable runner only since last year, flashed the Wanamaker mile of the Millrose A. A. games in 4:11 1-5, shaving four-fifths of a second off the indoor mark held jointly by Narmi and Joe Ray. It was the third best mile in track history, indoors or out. Surpassing it is the 4:10 2-5 hung up by Narmi outdoors in 1927 and Jules La Doumregue's universal standard of 4:09 1-5, set at Paris last summer.

Spitz, America's chief hope for the high jump championship in the coming Olympics, bettered his own indoor record by 5-8 of an inch when he cleared the bar at 6 feet 7 1/2 inches.

Three favorites: Toppino, rapidly developing into one of the greatest sprinters in the game, turned the 60 yards in 6.2 seconds, equaling the record first set by Loren Marchion and since equalled by several others.

All three probably will be outstanding favorites in their specialties when the national indoor A. A. U. championships are held here February 22. Toppino beat Ira Singer, the national 80-yard champion, among others on Saturday night.

Canadian Runner Takes Speed Race. NEW YORK, Feb. 8. (AP)—Gene Venzke of Boyertown, Pa., set a new world record for the one-mile indoor run tonight when he won the Wanamaker mile, feature event of the 25th annual Millrose games held before a capacity crowd of 15,000 in Madison Square Garden.

ACHIU, RAY BRING GRID MAT STYLES

All of the participants on Matchmaker Herb Owen's card for Monday night at the Legion hall, 8:30 o'clock, had arrived in Klamath Falls by Monday morning, and there was no possibility of substitutions.

Walter Achiu, Pete Becker's Chinese opponent on one end of the double main event will go on the mat with confidence after a Friday night victory over Vasil Tascoff, Bulgarian, at Eugene.

Bill Sandehl, outstanding heavy-weight matman of this region, will meet Tom Ray, Longview, in the other main event.

Within the last month both Becker and Achiu have met and defeated Pat Reagan, Wyoming cowpuncher. Achiu won two out of three falls in a Eugene main event while Becker pinned the Wyoming range rider in the final round of a four ten-minute period preliminary to the Robin Reed-Sam Romaine welter-weight match two weeks ago.

Bill Sandehl, teaming with Roland Warren, Klamath Falls grappler as a training partner, announced himself in the best condition he has reached since his return to the game after a lay-off of several years. The ex-Olympic game star from Sweden, while giving a few pounds to the heavier Tom Ray, has become confident his undefeated string of victories since his resumption of wrestling will not be broken.

Both Achiu and Ray will bring the Sonnenberg style of wrestling to the Legion hall arena. Achiu for four years was a football star with Dayton university and then entered the professional grid game in the east. Despite his 150 pounds, the Chinese was one of the best defensive backs in the middle west up until the time he was graduated. Last fall Achiu was assistant football coach at Dayton.

Becker has been at work in the Klamath Athletic club gymnasium since his boxing victory over Red Stanley last week. The Klamath Falls grappler believes he has perfected defense for Achiu's tackling, butting type of wrestling, and, like Sandehl, is sure his unbeaten record here will be continued.

Kieckhefer To Play Reisel In Last Game

CHICAGO, Feb. 8. (AP)—Two old-timers in the billiard business, Augie Kieckhefer of Chicago and Otto Reisel of Philadelphia, will play a round of three-cushion tonight for a world championship and $10,000 in cash.

This pair of angle artists, both former champions, have reached the final match tied for first place, with seven victories and three defeats, and tonight will play for the big reward—$7,500 and 16 per cent of the receipts, which will amount to another $2,500. The winner also figures to collect as much as $25,000 more from exhibitions.

Kieckhefer will be after his tenth title, which should be defeated the fidgety Philadelphia, would tie the all-time mark of ten championships, held by Johnny Layton of Sedalia, Mo. It will be Reisel's sixth title if he is able to overcome the left-handed Chicagoan.

SEATTLE, Feb. 8. (AP)—Crashing through to three victories last week, Washington State College hoopers retained their lead in the northern division Pacific Coast conference championship race with eight wins and only one defeat marked up in the record books.

The Cougars will take the road now, playing all seven of their remaining games away from home.

Washington's Huskies were hard-pressed to knock over Oregon, but took the Webfooters Friday night by a 33-29 count, and repeated the following evening with a 27-21 win.

OREGON FRESHMEN BEAT ROCKS AGAIN

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 8. (AP)—University of Oregon freshmen won their second consecutive basketball game from the Oregon State college rocks here Saturday, 22 to 20, after a late Orange freshman rally fell short.

With the first period ending 22 to 12 for the frosh, the Stateers came back strong in the last half to close the game by sensational shots by Hibbard, Oregon State guard.

The rocks took an early lead and held it until the middle of the first half when the frosh passed them, never again seriously to be threatened until the closing minutes of the game.

Hibbard, rock guard, was high point man with 13, followed by Berg of Oregon with 8.

Long distance telephone calls in Corvallis numbered about 14,500,000 in 1930.

GLEN RAPE WINS DOG DERBY CUP

OGDEN, UTAH, Feb. 8. (AP)—Glen Rape of Cascade, Idaho, a newcomer in dog racing circles, driving a seasoned team, today was holder of a silver cup and first prize money of $500 as winner of the third annual Wasatch dog derby.

Crowding the George Stone-String of Irish and Llewellyn setters over the last twenty miles through slush and over gravel, Rape drew up yesterday on Roy Stover of McCall, winner of the first half of the race Saturday afternoon, and overtook him when Stover's lead dog went lame.

The McCall musher was forced to carry his leader on the sled for the last five miles, and dropped back to finish in third place. Delbert Groom of Rley, who was second in the first half of the race, held that position and won $300.

Stover received $150 third money. Dean Hann of Big Springs, Idaho, winner last year, was awarded $75 for fourth place. Their total elapsed time for the forty miles was: Rape, 3:07:17; Groom, 3:07:51; Stover, 3:12:13, and Hann, 3:18:28.

Thula Gestlan of McCall, the only woman musher in the race, was fifth in 3:25:40.

The ancients regarded the number seven as lucky because they counted seven sacred planets, seven days in Creation, seven days in the week, seven divisions in the Lord's Prayer, and seven ages of man.
