San Jose Grand Jury Probing Lynching Case

SAN JOSE, Calif., Jan. 12, (U.P.)—The Santa Clara county grand jury investigating a double lynching here found itself last night unable to complete examination of witnesses and adjourned until Tuesday.

Anthony Cataldi, 18 year old farm youth who is the only person to have been charged in the lynching to date, was not called as a witness. It was understood he had not been subpoened.

Eighteen witnesses were examined today by Deputy District Attorney Herbert Bridges. Most of them were newspapermen or deputy sheriffs. Sheriff William Emig, injured in defending his prisoners, was the first witness. Previously, he had declared that he could identify none of those in the mob. Six witnesses remained to be called.

NRA Insignia On Japan Cans Investigated

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12, (U.P.)—Four thousand cases of Japanese canned tuna fish, each can Eagle, were ordered held by customs marked with an NRA Blue toms authorities at San Pedro, Calif., today after they had been landed from the Japanese vessel Tatsuta Maru.

At the same time Administrator Hugh S. Johnson requested the treasury department "to refuse entry to any foreign importations bearing NRA insignia until we can make the necessary investigations."

The tuna fish was said to be consigned in part to a Chicago firm.

The incident raises the question of the use by aliens of NRA insignia, Johnson pointed out. Use of the Blue Eagle emblem by foreign producers would be, of course, a fraud on the American people, he added.

Six Aviators Die In North Africa Crash

TRIPOLI, North Africa, Jan. 12, (U.P.)—Six Italian fliers were killed last Sunday when the large military plane in which they were taking off from the Bungem airport in the interior crashed in a sudden gust of wind, dispatches reaching here today revealed.

The dead are Lieutenant Guiuseppe Papi and Sergeant Gaetano, co-pilots; Lieutenant Stefano Melodia, observer; Sergeant Dante Buratore, photographer; and Sergeant Arnaldo Berti and Aircraftsman Alberico Mollo, both mechanics.

The machine capsized and crashed as it was leaving the ground.

National, Local Markets

BUTTER PRICE JUMPED AGAIN BY HALF CENT

PORTLAND, Jan. 12. (AP)—Low grade butter has found such a keen demand in the Portland trade because of recent advance through the list that a further rise of a half cent was shown for the bottom score during the late session of the produce exchange.

Bargain houses who cater to the lowest prices were chief buyers of the lowest grade butter. So great has become this demand that supplies have been inadequate.

Price Range Narrows.

There was no change in other scores than first during the late session, therefore no advance in the buying price of butterfat.

Differential between top and bottom grade butter is now but 1c lb.

Trading in the egg market continued to hold steady with a rather active demand despite the continued selling of undergrades by outsiders to low grade trade. No storage input was noted.

With some slight improvement in the California situation, which has been extremely weak, market for light weight hens here was holding fairly steady at the moment with no change in any line.

There was a discrimination against small tom turkeys in the country with 16c the general top there while large toms, 17 lbs. and more, were in call up to 17c lb. Local trade was about unchanged.

Newsboy Finds Lost Diamond For Customer

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 12, (U.P.)—Scotty Cohen, newsboy on one of this city's busiest corners, thinks his patrons deserve a "break" once in awhile.

One of his customers, while purchasing a paper recently, warned him a friend had lost a $150 diamond ear-ring on one of the corners.

It wasn't long until Scotty espied a stranger pick up a sparkling object. Scotty pounced upon him and claimed it.

The following night the diamond ear-ring was returned to J. Williams, its owner. Reward was refused. The newsboy still cries his wares in a raucous voice—and is willing to do favors.
