

GUILD PLAYERS HAVE EXPERIENCE

Seven places have contributed the talent for the Little Theatre guild play, "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room," which will be produced at the Pine Tree theatre February 1. In addition to Oregon, the states of Minnesota and California have served as theatrical training ground for various members of the cast.

Dramatic experience at the University of Oregon was gained by Virginia West, Lynn Roycroft and George Schlessner, the latter having also appeared in theatrical productions at Stanford University. Miss West is now dramatic coach at Klamath Union high school.

Zed Barnes, who was a star in the old Klamath county high school theatricals, attained prominence in the same line at Oregon State college. Three others, Allison Barnes Frye, Thelma Bradley and Dave Totten, have been recruited from the ranks of Klamath Falls' high school talent.

Ted McDonnell gained most of his histrionic experience in St. Paul, Minn., where he was a member of the Community theatre and the College Art theatre. Bob Swenson appeared in productions at the University of Minnesota, and Jane Epley at the University of California.

Accidental Shot Injures Hunter

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Jan. 26. (P)—Mrs. Charles Merrill Chapin, Jr., prominent New York society woman, was shot accidentally while hunting doves on the Chapin winter estate near here yesterday, and early today her condition was reported as serious. She was given a blood transfusion shortly after being taken to the hospital.

AMUSEMENTS

Vox—Now playing, "Her Sweetheart" (Christopher Bean). Marie Dressler and Lionel Barrymore.

Pine Tree—Now playing, "Skyway," with Katherine Crawford.

Pelican—Now playing, "Take a Chance," with eight stars.

Rainbow—Now playing, "Central Park," with Joan Blondell.

AT THE VOX.

Marie Dressler and Lionel Barrymore, co-starred for the first time on the screen in "Her Sweetheart" (Christopher Bean), offer a lesson in what happens when two Academy Award winners get together in the same scene.

So says Sam Wood, who directed Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's filmization of the famous stage play, "The Late Christopher Bean," currently playing at the Vox theatre.

Sam Wood directed the now picture, with an elaborate cast which features Helen Mack, Ben-Hadad, Russell Hardie, Jean Hersholt, H. B. Warner, Helen Shipman, George Coulouris and Ellen Lowe.

AT THE PELICAN

"Take a Chance," a veritable parade of screen stars, opens at the Pelican theatre today, with James Dunn, June Knight, Lillian Roth, Cliff Edwards, Lillian Bond, Dorothy Lee, Leona Andre and Charles (Buddy) Rogers leading the parade.

On the stage, May DeRosier Dance Studio presents the Petite Folies, a gaily musical revue with twenty tiny tots appearing in a series of song and dance numbers.

AT THE PINE TREE

Paul B. Franklin has a good solid idea back of his screen story "Skyway," which comes to the Pine Tree theatre today. "Flash" Norris, hot-tempered aviation pilot, is hero of the yarn, and while his fiery methods land him in one uncomfortable situation after another, he manages to crawl out again by indulging in another fit of temper.

AT THE RAINBOW

Charlie Chan unravels the most mysterious murder mystery of his career in "Charlie Chan's Chance," the Fox thriller, coming to the Rainbow theatre today.

Warner Oland, unequalled for his portrayal of Chinese character roles on the screen, appears as Charlie Chan, the famed Honolulu detective, who solves a New York crime that has the detectives of two continents frankly stumped.

Leaves Hospital—E. J. Allen, who has been a patient at Hill-side hospital for some time, returned to his home at 325 Commercial street Friday.

Portland Visitor—J. S. Laird

Portland insurance man, is making a business visit in Klamath Falls.
