

EVENTS OF WEEK IN KLAMATH FALLS SOCIETY CIRCLES, CLUB GROUPS AND FRATERNAL ORGANIZATIONS

February Anniversaries To Be Observed With Unique Social Events

THE month of February holds more important anniversary days than any other month, days which lend themselves to social observance and unique decoration.

St. Valentine's Day, with its hearts and fluffy valentine offerings, as well as early spring floral decorations and George Washington's birthday, too, with the immemorial hatchet and cherry tree and the patriotic colors of the nation, Lincoln's birthday, is to be remembered in the patriotic occasions which will fill the short month to the hilt.

A number of Valentine parties have been announced, perhaps the most important being the dancing party planned by the Winter Dancing Club.

The valentine motif will also be dominant at bridge afternoons and luncheon parties, as well as at several evening parties, which are also set for mid-February.

With the beginning of Lent on Ash Wednesday, the social season will feel its usual lull, and activity will slow down until the Easter rush begins, and college students return home for spring vacation, bringing the gaiety which always surrounds the return of the young crowd when school days give way to holidays.

Klamath Falls A. A. U. W. and Guests Enjoy Dessert Meet

The Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Stearns on Pacific Terrace Saturday afternoon when members and guests enjoyed a dessert meeting. Mrs. Robert Thompson, vice-president, was in charge of the meeting in the absence of Mrs. George Gardiner, president.

A delightful program was presented with Mrs. W. A. Beaver talking on "Adolescent Psychology" and Mr. Ralph Horan on the "Sales Tax." Miss Marabel Brzdon and Mrs. Madge Hampton furnished the musical program.

The committee in charge of the afternoon's meeting was Mrs. D. L. McClure, chairman, Mrs. Joe Pigney, Mrs. C. A. Henderson, Mrs. John Fowler, Miss Jean Rogers, Mrs. Ralph Stearns, Miss Alexis Lytle and Miss Constance Fisher.

New members who joined at the meeting were Mrs. David H. Canfield, Mrs. A. L. Siffle and Miss Helen Jones.

BEATTY MATRON GUEST OF AFTERNOON PARTY

Mrs. Jack Harrison was the honor guest at a delightful afternoon party and miscellaneous shower Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Maude Shuey, 122 North Second street. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Betty Shaffer.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the guest of honor, and refreshments were served late in the afternoon to the following guests: Mesdames Kathleen Hepburn, Ada Hunter, Maud Barlett, Myrtle Donnellson, Reta Smith, Pauline Adamson, Doris Robinson, Fay Sturgess, Josephine Robinson, Ninny Niback, Dorothy Johnson, Grace Harris, Polly Schroeder, Kate Hogue, Bessie Allen, Esther Inman, Amanda Ferris, Elvira Lien, Ella Pauley, Myrtle Harris, No-rene Hales, Florence Lee, Reta Fuller, Flora Lonsmire, Ora Hughes, Dorothy Cody, Mamie Johnson, Nellie Takus, Alice Dickerson, and Fanny Cheyne, and the honor guest, Mrs. Harrison.

Mills P.-T. A. child study group will meet Wednesday, February 7, at the home of Mrs. L. J. Brink at 1905 Wantland avenue, where a pot luck luncheon will be served at noon. The afternoon will be spent in visiting and child discussions. For further information call Mrs. I. E. Sherman, chairman of the study group.

MERRILL—Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Tolle entertained at dinner at their home Sunday in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Miss May Tolley. Covers were laid for Miss Tolle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Lewis, Alden, Loyd and Lois Lewis, Mark Lewis and the host and hostess. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bailey were Klamath Falls visitors Tuesday.

St. Valentine's Ball Planned by Club February 10

One of the gayest and most important dancing parties of the winter season is set for Saturday evening, February tenth, when members and guests of the Winter Dancing Club will celebrate St. Valentine's day in the ball room of the Willard hotel.

Special decorations, designed and executed by Walter King, talented young Klamath Falls artist, will provide an appropriate setting for the party, for which dainty invitations will go into the mail in a few days, according to Mrs. Harry H. Panning, chairman of the executive committee.

Hosts and hostesses for the Valentine party have been selected from the young unmarried set and have been announced as follows: Misses Gladys Rice, Vivian McCauley and Hermina Bilbo, and Chester Langslett, Harry Bolvin and Rodney Darnell.

Ed Fargo and his musicians will furnish the music for dancing.

SCHOOL-DAY PARTY ENJOYED FRIDAY

Twenty-seven little school boys and girls, who in everyday life are members of the Aloha East Matrons club, enjoyed their luncheon served in tin dinner buckets, and spent the afternoon in spelling each other down and speaking pieces on Friday.

This was the regular meeting day of the club, at which Mrs. Ella McMillan presided as hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Jennie Hurn and Mrs. Charles J. Martin, the committee in charge. The party was held at the McMillan home.

Luncheon was served at 1:00 o'clock, followed by a regular old-time Friday afternoon program, during which the members of the club posed for a group picture.

One of the features of the afternoon was a picture guessing contest, in which the earliest pictures of all those present were displayed, and the names of each guessed. The prize for this contest was awarded to Mrs. Jean Young.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Walter Zimmerman and Mrs. Earnest Evans of Chillicothe, and Mrs. R. S. Adams of Lakeview, all of whom are past matrons of the Order of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Zimmerman and Mrs. Evans acted as judges of the best sustained character during the afternoon and first prize for the best little girl went to Mrs. George Chastain. Mrs. Adams of Lakeview was voted to be the best little boy.

MRS. STEWART HONOR GUEST OF BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Neal Stewart was the honor guest of her contract club Tuesday evening, when Mrs. Frank W. Humphrey was hostess at dinner and bridge at her home on Roseway Drive.

Mrs. Paul Foster, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. Lester Offield, Mrs. J. J. Steiger, Jr., Mrs. Emil Dreher and Mrs. Rahm Hastings were special guests of the evening, and the high score was awarded to Mrs. Foster.

Mrs. Sadie Rand was honored with a surprise birthday party and handkerchief shower Friday afternoon, when a group of friends from the Women of Moose lodge called at her home. A pleasant afternoon of conversation was enjoyed by the following: Mrs. Rand, the honor guest, and Mesdames Clara B. Land, Loretta Pex, Blanche Dixon, Edna Jensen, Belle Tompkins, Lula Potts, Sarah Robbins, Lola Miller and Mrs. George Ogilvie.

DAUGHTER OF COL. ROOSEVELT, FIANCEE

The only daughter of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Jr., Miss Grace Roosevelt, and her fiance, William McMillan of Baltimore, are shown together at a Baltimore supper club party for the first time since announcement of their engagement. Miss Roosevelt, eldest grand-daughter of the late President Roosevelt, and McMillan, nephew of the late Senator James McMillan of Michigan, will be married March 3 at Oyster Bay, L. I., home of the Roosevelts.

Two Hundred and Fifty Contract Players Enter Olympic

Reservations for 60 tables have already been made by Klamath Falls contract bridge enthusiasts who will join in the Third Annual World Bridge Olympic to be played on the evening of Thursday, February first.

The local tournament will be played at the Reames Golf and Country club, with play starting promptly at 8:00 o'clock.

More than 100,000 players from every state in the nation and from 47 foreign countries will play the same hands at the same time during the Olympic, final results of which will be announced after all hands have been scored and computed.

Four local prizes will be offered to those entering play in this city, which is being held under the auspices of the Klamath Bridge League and the Reames Country club, and which is being captained by Dr. May Havens.

Limited reservations may be made by calling any member of the committee in charge of the local tournament, which has been announced as follows:

Mr. W. E. Lamm, Mr. A. W. Schupp, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. H. E. Hauger, Mrs. B. A. Purcell, Mrs. Harry Peltz and Mrs. W. L. Quinn.

Cards designed especially for the Olympics will be used for sixteen hands and simplified scoring will be used. Any system of play is permissible, according to members of the committee.

ALOHA CHAPTER O. E. S. HOLDS MERRY EVENING

A social evening of fun following the regular business meeting, was enjoyed by members of Aloha chapter of the Order of Eastern Star Tuesday evening at Masonic hall.

The program was in charge of the men of the chapter, and the important occasion of the installation of the "Worthy Husband of the Worthy Matron." (Walter West), was solemnized with pomp and circumstance.

J. I. Beard acted as temporary marshal, and Howard E. Getz and Robert E. Wattenburg as installing officer and installing marshal.

The occasion provided much merriment and gaiety, especially when the newly installed officer was presented with pseudo-bouquets of flowers, and decorated with the insignia of his new office.

Saturday, February 17

Dinner dance to be given by the American Legion Auxiliary at the Willard hotel. Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. Karl Winotrou, at 959J.

Congressmen Complimented At White House Function

By RUBY BLACK U. S. Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Despite whatever troubles they may have had renting full dress suits, congressmen seemed to enjoy the party President and Mrs. Roosevelt held in their honor last week.

Representative Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois bragged that his dress suit was rented, while Representative Carroll L. Beedy of Maine pointed to the splits in his white kid gloves (no other man was seen in gloves) and his "zinc and mussel shell" studs.

Everybody wondered who "the McFarland twins of Texas" really were. They wore little black sequin hats, dresses made of ruffles of white lace at the top and black lace skirts.

Senator L. J. Dickinson of Iowa was there, smiling replacing his usual head-shaking over the advent of the Roosevelt revolution. Mrs. Dickinson, in blue, commented on how much nicer it is to start the procession in the East room of the White House and proceed to the state dining room.

Rep. Bertrand H. Snell of New York, republican leader of the house of representatives, liked the grape punch so well he had a cup in each hand.

Never were so many kinds of gloves seen on ladies' hands. There were lace mitts, like those worn by Mrs. Sol Bloom, velvet gloves like the red ones worn by Miss Vera Bloom, many white kids, some of black net, but as usual the hands of Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Curtis H. Dall were bare.

Mrs. Dall, the tall, handsome daughter of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, wore a new coral crepe dress, with a striking scarf-like collar. The scarf was drawn closely across the front neck line, caught at the shoulders with brilliant clips, and fell in pleats down the back. She revealed that it was meant to go the other way, but she liked the pleated scarves to go down the back, so she reversed them.

Mrs. Roosevelt looked stately as she always does, in her ice blue satin dress, with its low V back, its train formed of panels, and its flaring skirt which emphasizes the grace of her tallness.

The dignity and formality of the ceremonial parade of the president and the cabinet, with their wives, from the dining room, where the President and Mrs. Roosevelt receive the cabinet, was given a human touch by the solemn efforts of Mrs. Homer Cummings, wife of the attorney general to keep in step with her long-legged husband while her long-time avoid step on the train of Mrs. George A. Clark, wife of the secretary of war.

and refreshments were served to about one hundred members and guests.

LEGION AUXILIARY HOLDS ENTERTAINMENTS

MERRILL—The Merrill Unit No. 80 of the American Legion auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. E. C. Stukel Tuesday afternoon. The business meeting was followed by a social hour after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Members present were Mesdames Minnie Stukel, Edna Book, Alma Merritt, Gertrude Pierce, Anne Fruits, Dean Spencer, S. O. Vikan, Anna Howard, U. Underhill, Audrey Lewis, Arlene Brown and Thelma Stukel. Visitors were Myrtle Chaburn and Claire Ellis. Tuesday evening the auxiliary assisted the Merrill Legion post in entertaining the Klamath and Malin posts and auxiliaries. The Klamath post furnished the program consisting of musical numbers and skits. County Superintendent of Schools Fred Peterson addressed the group on the effect of the sales tax on school.

Dancing followed the program and refreshments were served to about one hundred members and guests.

BRIDGE LUNCHEONS GIVEN BY MRS. HUMBLE Mrs. Clarence A. Humble was a delightful hostess at a series of bridge luncheons this week at her home on Portland avenue. Luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday by the hostess. Two tables were in play on Monday and three on Wednesday and Thursday.

High scores on Monday went to Mrs. G. L. Black and Mrs. Walter West; on Wednesday to Mrs. George Sample and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson and on Thursday to Mrs. Lyle Caspar and Mrs. Fred H. Cofer.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft drill team will meet on Monday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Sarah Robbins, 528 North Seventh street.
